

Car crashes into Casey's

By Brian Sanders

A Tuesday evening incident that saw a passenger car drive through the front of the new Casey's General Store in Holton was "purely accidental," according to Holton Police Chief Gale Gakle.

No one inside the convenience store was injured in the accident, which occurred at about 6:15 p.m. Tuesday at the store, which is located at the intersection of U.S. Highway 75 (Arizona Avenue) and Kansas Highway 16 (Fourth Street), Gakle said.

The accident involved a 2007 Chrysler 300 that was driven by Nancy Mahan, 69, of Topeka.

"She and a passenger had pulled in off of U.S. 75 to get some drinks and use the restroom," Gakle said. "Her foot slipped off the brake and hit the gas, and the car ran into the front of the building... The car basically went three-fourths of the way into the building."

Both Mahan and her passenger, Charles Johnson, 61, also of Topeka, were wearing seat belts at the time of the accident and were not injured, Gakle said. The vehicle was towed from the scene.

The amount of damage sustained by Mahan's car, as well as damage to the front of the convenience store and contents inside the building, was not available at press time.

The store is one of two

Casey's General Store locations currently operating in Holton. The new store was opened in February of 2015, it was reported.

County Commission

Three seek election to third district seat

Bill Elmer

Democrat Bill Elmer, 67, of Hoyt is seeking re-election to the third district seat on the Jackson County Commission in the general election.

Elmer is running against John Coleman and Melvin Bailey. The third district is in the southern part of the county and includes Adrian, Douglas, Lincoln and Washington townships.

Elmer was first elected to the position in November 2012.

Elmer worked as a road foreman for Jackson County for five years. Before that, he worked for Hamm Quarries for 12 years, Georgia Pacific for 17 years and the U.S. Army from 1969 to 1971.

Elmer graduated from Linwood High School in 1967 and attended tech school in Kansas City, Mo.

He and his wife, Robbie, have lived in Jackson County for 36 years and have four children.

Why are you seeking election?

"I feel I have had a positive impact in my position as county commissioner," Elmer said. "I have always had the best interest of Jackson County in my decisions and actions. I would like every person in the third district to know their voice is being heard. I will continue to keep my focus on the people of Jackson County and work to keep improving our county."

Do you think the county's current tax rate is justified and adequate to operate the county's departments?

"The current tax is not adequate to continue serving the county at its current level," he said. "The cost of rock continues to rise and the loss of county quarries has made it necessary to haul rock into the county. This

John Coleman

Rural Denison resident John Coleman, 50, is seeking election to the third district seat on the Jackson County Commission.

Coleman is not affiliated with a political party and will face incumbent Democrat Bill Elmer and Republican Melvin Bailey on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

Coleman was born and raised in Jackson County and has lived here for 45 years.

He is a registered nurse and graduated in 1994 from Neosho County Community College.

He has been employed by and owned RN Care Services for 18 years. He has four children.

Why are you seeking election?

"I am seeking election to bring a different set of eyes to the operations of the county," Coleman said. "I want to contribute and use my past business experience to help with how we, as a county, spend our tax dollars to provide the best level of service possible."

Do you think the county's current tax rate is justified and adequate to operate the county's departments?

"I can't give an answer to the tax rate as being justified at this time," he said. "Is the tax rate correct? I am not sure. I will need to dig into the budgets to see if it is adequate or excessive. But more importantly, first we need to ensure the dollars we have are being spent judiciously. Only then can we make a determination on whether the rate is justified."

What concerns do you have regarding the county budget?

Melvin Bailey

Republican Melvin Bailey, 51, of Mayetta is running for the third district seat on the Jackson County Commission in the upcoming general election.

Also on the ballot are incumbent Democrat Bill Elmer and John Coleman, who is not affiliated with any political party.

Bailey has lived in Jackson County for 38 years.

A 1983 graduate of Seaman High School and Kaw Area Technical School, Bailey has been operating his own trucking company for the past 24 years. He has also received some college credits through Highland Community College.

Before starting his own company, Bailey worked for a construction company and several automotive repair businesses.

He and his wife, Jenny, have four children.

Why are you seeking election?

"I believe there are changes that are needed and can take place to make Jackson County a better place to live," Bailey said.

Do you think the county's current tax rate is justified and adequate to operate the county's departments?

"Yes, it is justified if used properly in the places that are needed," he said. "I do question the adequate use of funds at the road and bridge department. You can speak with residents throughout the county and hear from them and see firsthand that the roads are in poor condition."

What concerns do you have regarding the county budget?

"Is the money being used for the best bang for the taxpayers' buck?" he asked.

Get your flu shots now

By Brian Sanders

With the approach of October comes the approach of "flu season," and the advice of many medical professionals across the country regarding the influenza vaccine can be summarized in three words.

"Get it now," Jackson County Health Nurse Angie Reith said of this year's vaccine for influenza, commonly referred to as "the flu."

Officials from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control (CDC) agree, noting that while flu activity in the U.S. is "low overall" at the present time, localized influenza outbreaks in this country are "not unusual for September." The "flu season" as it's recognized by health and medical professionals generally begins in October and continues through the next May, it was noted.

But for healthy people receiving this year's flu vaccine, even at this early point in the "flu season," Reith said the vaccination should offer adequate protection against identified viruses throughout the entire season.

"We know that everyone's body reacts differently to things and produces antibodies against the flu at different levels," she said. "So a healthy person who's vaccinated in good general health, without any chronic health conditions, should definitely be protected throughout the flu season."

Flu vaccines are currently available, and in varying formulations for different age groups, Reith said. One particularly new kind of vaccine that's available is called "high-dose," and it is generally formulated for senior citizens and people with "weakened immune systems."

"We know that older people and people with weakened immune systems sometimes do not produce the antibodies after they're vaccinated," she said. "The high-dose vaccine gives them a stronger immune response so that they can develop stronger antibodies."

Another change in available vaccines this year involves recommendations for people with allergies to eggs, Reith noted. In the past, the CDC had encouraged people with egg allergies to contact their doctor prior to vaccination since vaccines are grown in chickens' eggs.

But this year, people who have only experienced hives after exposure to egg products may be vaccinated in any setting other than an inpatient or outpatient setting at a hospital or clinic, according to the CDC.

"The CDC has lifted some of the restrictions for people who have egg allergies this year," she said. "People who previously were unvaccinated due to an egg allergy have the potential this year to go ahead and be vaccinated. But that needs to be discussed with your doctor, or they can call our office and we're happy to discuss that with them."

One particular type of vaccine that the CDC does not recommend for use this year, however, is the live-attenuated influenza vaccine, or LAIV, which is administered as a nasal spray. Reith said concerns have been raised by CDC officials about the effectiveness of LAIV based on analysis of post-vaccination immunity levels in people.

Influenza vaccines are generally "trivalent" — meaning vaccines are engineered to prevent infection by three different flu strains that are predicted to be prevalent during the flu season. CDC officials said this year's vaccine should protect against

HCH named one of the top Critical Access Hospitals in the nation

Holton Community Hospital was honored recently at the National Rural Health Association's conference as one of the 2016 Top 20 Critical Access Hospitals in the country, it was reported.

The Best Practice Designation award, as determined by iVantage Analytics, was given for success in achieving high rankings on the patient perspective index: A rating of hospital performance based on the percentile rank on two HCAHPS measures (overall hospital rating and patients that would "highly recommend" the facility).

HCAHPS, or the Hospital Consumer Assessment of Healthcare Providers and Systems, is a survey of services and the level of quality as measured from the patient's point of view.

Carrie Saia, Holton Community Hospital CEO, said, "We are blessed at our facility to have such a dedicated, caring and professional group of individuals who provide care to our patients and families."

"Our staff are a part of our community," Saia said, "and often know the individuals they are providing care to, which is very reassuring to our patients. I am very proud of all of our staff who are a part of the team delivering care to be recognized for their efforts."

Holton Community Hospital is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation governed by a seven-member board of directors. Designated as a Critical Access Hospital, Holton Community Hospital, together with its provider group, Family Practice Associates, offers vital health care services to Holton, Hoyt, Wetmore and surrounding areas.

Other winners included:

- * Avera Wescota Memorial Medical Center in Wessington Springs, S.D.
- * Bigfork Valley Hospital in Bigfork, Minn.
- * Blue Hill Memorial Hospital in Blue Hill, Maine.

Heartland Meat Market opens just off the Holton Square

By Ali Holcomb

Heartland Meat Market recently opened at a location just off the south side of the Holton Square in hopes of connecting local meat producers directly to area customers.

Located at 321 Pennsylvania Ave. just south of Kellerman's Real Estate, across the street from the post office, the business is owned by Holton High School alumni David Tinney and Matt McCauley.

At the first of the year, Tinney, McCauley and Chad Bontrager, all of Holton, purchased Bowser Meat Processing in Meriden.

"We have a lot of customers from Holton and Jackson County and received a lot of requests for bringing the meat to town to sell," Tinney said. "We thought it would be easier just to have a small location here for people to pick up their product or to buy some of the products we make in Meriden."

Tinney said the products that will be stocked at the Holton location will include ground pork, pork sausage, ground beef, pork chops, pork roast, pork steak, brisket, chuck roast, rump roast, stew meat and a variety of steaks.

"We can get just about any product upon request," he said. "We buy local pigs and beef in the area. It's raised locally and processed locally. It's all natural, and it's a fresh product. There are no growth hormones added and there's no antibiotics."

Tinney said the meat comes frozen so that no preservatives have to be added. The market also offers weekly specials.

Heartland Meat Market, which opened two weeks ago, also offers jerky and jerky sticks that have been processed in Meriden.

"It's a thicker, whole muscle jerky. It's actually KC strip," he said. "The jerky sticks are pretty conventional. We have four flavors. The have the casings on them and are prepared like they would have made them 50 years ago."

Locally sourced bacon is also available.

Stolen items identified after manhunt

A Topeka man arrested after a Sunday morning manhunt in southern Jackson County was in possession of items stolen from at least 39 different individuals, Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse said Tuesday.

Benjamin W. Braden, 42, remains at the Jackson County Detention Center on $15,000 bond on charges from Sunday morning's incident, which occurred at around 9 a.m. near 134th and P4 roads, in Jackson County.

Braden has been charged with criminal threat, possession of stolen property and interference with law enforcement, and Morse said it is possible that he may be facing more charges.

Braden is also wanted on five different warrants from jurisdictions across Kansas, the sheriff added.

Sheriff's officers initially responded to a report of a Sunday morning altercation between a man and a woman, which ended when the woman reportedly fled on foot to get help, Morse said. Braden was later captured and found hiding in a hay barn shortly after noon that day.

Morse said Braden allegedly fled from law enforcement on foot after getting out of a Dodge Intrepid that had reportedly been stolen from Nemaha County.

Braden was captured with the help of a K-9 officer, and he was taken to Holton Community Hospital for treatment of injuries received from the K-9 officer.

After Braden's booking on a charge of possession of stolen property, detectives recovered identification cards, driver's licenses and credit cards from 39 different individuals from inside the car, Morse said.

The sheriff also noted that additional items reportedly stolen from at least 34 different locations in Kansas were recovered after Sunday's manhunt. Those items included televisions, computers, car stereos, cellular telephones, speakers, iPads, miscellaneous tools, designer purses, backpacks, DVDs and CDs.

Judge blocks sealing of documents in Ewing cases

A motion to seal court files in the case of a Holton man facing six sexually-related criminal proceedings has been denied by a Jackson County District Court judge, it was reported.

District Judge Norbert Marek on Monday issued an order denying a motion filed by Topeka attorney Kathleen Ambrosio, who is representing Jacob Ewing in the six separate cases, to "file under seal" affidavits in the six cases. Ambrosio had filed her motion on Monday, Sept. 19.

Marek's order cited a Kansas law that allows judges to seal court proceedings and records for certain reasons, such as public disclosure of information that would jeopardize the safety of or reveal confidential information about a party to a court proceeding, the identification of a confidential source or the destruction of evidence.

According to the law, an order of the court is required before affidavits or sworn testimony supporting a complaint can be made available to anyone other than the defendant in a case or the defendant's counsel for examination.

However, Marek said Ambrosio's request did not meet the specifics of that law.

"The Court is mindful that additional pretrial publicity may result from the release of these records which can make the task of jury selection more difficult for the parties, but that is not a reason to allow sealing of the documents under the statute," he said in the order denying Ambrosio's request.

"The legislative wisdom was that the people and the press should be allowed to view the affidavits under proper request," he continued. "However, redactions will be made to the affidavits prior to them being released to the requesting party."

As a result, redactions — edits to court documents that prevent the general public from seeing what was edited, although the edited information may still be available for viewing by attorneys and court personnel — were made in all but one of the six cases against Ewing, according to court records.

Ewing is next scheduled to appear in court on Thursday, Oct. 27 for a preliminary hearing in the sixth case filed against him. He will then face arraignment in all six cases on Thursday, Nov. 10.

Defendants in all criminal cases are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in a court of law.

Ag Week Recap

A wild end-of-week ride for cattle futures

By Matt Hines

It was a wild end to the week for cattle futures. Futures were higher early in the week, pulled back on Thursday, opened Friday lower and went almost to the limit lower during the session to close back at near steady. The free-fall during the sessions, though, caused feedlot panic and $3 lower fed cash cattle trade.

After the close, cattle on feed was at the expected 101 percent vs. a year ago. Both placements and marketings were a little higher than expectations at 115 percent and 118 percent, respectively, but this is with two more business days this past August vs. a year ago.

Compared to last week, feeder steers and heifers sold mostly $3 to $5 higher, with instances of $7 to $10 higher. Calves trended steady to $4 higher this period.

With a little less volatility on the futures board, buyers were more focused on condition and willing to step up on thin to average flesh, long-time weaned calves. Some of the highest cattle in the country sold on Wednesday at the St. Joseph Stockyards with a string of steers weighing 773 pounds selling at $154.75.

For the week, Friday, Sept. 16, to Friday, Sept. 23, October live cattle were down $.60, December was down $1.20, September feeders were up $1.32, October was down $.57, October lean hogs were down $1.47 and December was down $1.05. Boxed Beef, Choice was up $.61 at $186.81, Select was up $.43 at $178.81 and Pork Carcass Cutout was down $3.42 at $76.92.

Cattle slaughter from Friday was estimated at 107,000 head, down 2,000 from a week ago and down 4,000 compared to a year ago. For the week, the total was 592,000 head, down 12,000 compared to the week previous but up 18,000 compared to a year ago. Beef production was at 492 million pounds last week vs. 500.3 million in the week previous and 485.9 million last year.

Hog slaughter from Friday was estimated at 433,000 head, up 34,000 from a week ago and up 12,000 compared to a year ago. For the week, the total was 2,466,000 head, up 113,000 compared to the week previous and up 183,000 compared to a year ago. This was the third largest weekly total ever.

Livestock Futures Settlements Monday, Sept. 26

- October live cattle down $.45 at $106.82, December down $.72 at $106.12.
- September feeders down $.77 at $136.05, October down $1.32 at $131.05.
- October lean hogs down $.95 at $53.05, December down $.30 at $48.60.

October live cattle broke lower through the 10 and 20-day moving averages, stopping just shy of the $3 limit on Friday. We should see some support in the $104 area, and resistance is clear up at last week's high as it is at $109.22. September feeders will expire later this week and look just fine with trading the $135 to $136 area.

All other contracts dropped below support lines and within striking distance of testing the contract lows from earlier this month. October lean hogs punched below $54 for a new contract low at $52.95. On the weekly chart, $51.80 was the nearby low from this past November.

Over in the grains, corn and wheat continued to stay flat, but soybeans opened lower and continued to push lower throughout the day. Early bean yields are impressive from the Delta up into the Great Lakes with most looking for USDA to continue to raise their yield estimates this year.

For the week, Friday, Sept. 16, to Friday, Sept. 23, December corn was down $.00½, March was down $.01, November soybeans were down $.11, January was down $.10½, December KC wheat was up $.04½, March was up $.04½, December Chicago wheat was up $.01½ and March was up $.03.

USDA announced a private sale of 240,000 metric tons, or 8.8 million bushels (MBU), of soybeans sold for unknown destinations. It was rumored over the weekend that China may have purchased two to three cargoes of beans from the U.S.

Overall, the pressure to start this week is coming from harvest activity, big soybean yields and average to very good corn yields. Throw in a weather forecast this week that is drier for most, and activity should pick up from just trying to get up to full speed to

By Jill Henry
WHS Correspondent

Wetmore High School's Homecoming 2016, the first one since 1986, was considered a success by both the student body and the Wetmore/Goff communities at large.

"It was great to see a new tradition being started," said Staci Honas, a teacher at WAC.

The week before homecoming started, students all voted for the homecoming court for 2016. The female candidates for Homecoming 2016 were Dakota McQueen, Rachel Bloom and Desiree Fund; male candidates were Alex Potter, Trenton Rowland and Kyle Bloom.

On Sunday, Sept. 11, high school students gathered on Wetmore's Main Street to take part in a tradition formally done by Wetmore cheerleaders. Each class was assigned a window to decorate as part of a competition. Teachers in the high school judged each class's window and voted for those they liked best. The winners would be awarded a free seminar or an open lunch.

Monday, Sept. 12, kicked off spirit week with "PJ Day." Each student wore their coziest or craziest pair of pajamas and rocked them all day.

"I love seeing all the little kids in their cute PJs running around school all day," said Laurn Scott.

On Tuesday, Sept. 13, the students were introduced to a new spirit day called "Sharpie Day." Students wore a T-shirt or a hat that every student could sign with a Sharpie.

"Sharpie Day was something that I did when I was in high school, so it was a major throw-back for me," said Bridget Davis, secretary at WAC.

Students showed their American pride on Wednesday's "Merica" day sporting all red, white and blue. This was most of the students' favorite day of spirit week; with almost 100 percent student and teacher participation. Also on Wednesday, Sept. 14, students voted for their homecoming queen and king to be announced before Friday's home football game.

Thursday, Sept. 15, brought out all the students' white sheets and Egyptian sandals for "Toga Day." On Thursday night, the whole community gathered for a "bonfire" that unfortunately never happened due to rain. The cheerleaders improvised with a bonfire poster instead. At the pep rally, the candidates all participated in three different skits throughout the night and won points depending on how well each candidate performed during the skit.

The first game was called "Mystery Feel and Feed." Each team of candidates was given two mystery foods mashed together, and the blindfolded girl was hand-fed the mystery combination by the boy. Desiree Fund and Kyle Bloom came in first followed by Dakota McQueen and Alex Potter, with Rachel Bloom and Trenton Rowland finishing last.

The second skit was the "Balloon Task." Desiree Fund and Kyle Bloom were named queen and king of the pep rally.

Finally, on Friday, Sept. 16, the students went all out in red and white to show pride in their school's colors for "Far out Red and White Day." It was announced during the day that the sophomore class was chosen as the winner for the window competition on Sunday.

On Friday evening, Wetmore's boys of fall took on the Linn Bulldogs to end Wetmore's first homecoming week in 30 years. Right before the game began, Rachel Bloom and Trenton Rowland were crowned homecoming queen and king.

Students noted that the person they believed worthy for the most credit for all the hard work she put into this event was Wetmore's very own Anissa Bloom.

"This is the most participation we've had in all the years that I've been cheer sponsor. It was absolutely wonderful to see all the students dressed up and having fun with all the events we had going on," Bloom stated.

Real emergencies in life are scary enough

Proclaiming October "Zombie Preparedness Month" is stupid

They're creepy. They're ugly. They're dangerous, the news release read. (They're fictitious, I said.) Kansas emergency management officials say they're coming for us! At least in October. (But not really. They're just kidding.)

During the month, the Kansas Division of Emergency Management wants to remind Kansans to be prepared for zombies, because "if you're prepared for that, you're prepared for any emergency!"

Zombies are defined as corpses without souls which people believe have been brought back to life by witchcraft, voodoo or other supernatural means.

Oh, brother. Give me a break.

To highlight the need for emergency preparedness, and to stay with the zombie theme, our Gov. Sam Brownback will sign an official proclamation marking October as "Zombie Preparedness Month" in Kansas.

Gov. Brownback will sign the proclamation on Friday, Sept. 30, at 9:30 a.m. in the Governor's Ceremonial Office on the second floor of the Kansas Capitol.

The governor will be joined by personnel from the Kansas Division of Emergency Management and other preparedness partners.

"Tornadoes, floods and other disasters are real and I've seen the destruction they can cause," Gov. Brownback said in a news release. "I encourage all Kansans to take time to make an emergency kit for your home and car and have a plan to reach family in the event of an emergency."

During Kansas' "Zombie Preparedness Month," KDEM plans to partner with other public safety agencies to provide information on emergency preparedness, including zombie preparedness challenges throughout the month.

"The zombie approach is just a fun way to make people aware of a serious subject," said Devan Tucking, KDEM Human Services Officer.

I get it. Devan. It's true that most people do not spend enough time preparing for emergency situations.

But in the future, may I suggest that real emergencies in life are scary enough and that we don't need to make up anything?

This Zombie stuff is kind of stupid and embarrassing even if it does sort of explain the governor's voodoo economic plans.

The origin of Independence's Neewollah

By Tom Isern

In 1914, the Ward County Independent newspaper in North Dakota, reported that someone was getting fed up with the over-the-top routine of Halloween pranks that had plagued prairie towns from frontier times.

The paper reported, "Ten smart alecks at Westhope were arrested upon complaint of Mrs. Minnie Campbell, charged with creating a disturbance Halloween night. Two pleaded guilty, and four were found guilty, all being fined."

A review of historical documentation shows that about this time, up and down the plains, communities were taking steps to stop Halloween mischief.

It was sort of like the transition that had taken place in the old cattle towns like Dodge City or Ogallala. Citizens decided enough was enough. This time the change took place in the context of the Progressive Era, when every town wanted to be seen as modern and orderly.

Towns on the northern plains took a hard line: these kids had to be brought to heel, by the law.

In Devils Lake in 1911, for instance, a business owner caught two boys "old enough to know better" marking up his store front with chalk - a rather mild offense, it would seem. Nevertheless, he "grabbed the boys by the collars of their little coats and marched them to the city jail" to cool their heels for a few hours and be "severely lectured."

In Surrey in 1915, citizens were incensed when some "thoughtless young bloods" stole a bunch of chickens and put them into the schoolhouse. As the local correspondent observed, "Actions like this cannot be condemned too greatly."

Newspapers reported that across the northern plains, police chiefs and constables, assisted by volunteers and sometimes Boy Scouts, exerted themselves to control the streets.

Another development that tended to reduce Halloween damages, however, was that young men grew up with the country. The critical mass of male youth interested in mischief had diminished.

In 1907, the mayor of Norfolk, Nebraska, noted that pranksters had taken the buggy from his barn, but that overall, Halloween was becoming less stressful.

"Halloween is still on the calendar," wrote the local editor, "but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be when Norfolk business men were young."

Progressive businessmen now reminisced shamelessly about the ornery stuff they had done in their, and the town's, younger days.

"It isn't the small boy who is getting better," observed the editor. "It's progress and nothing else that is pushing the old time Halloween spirit aside in Norfolk."

In many communities to the south, particularly in Kansas, citizens moved to control Halloween by using diversionary tactics such as staging community events to replace frontier mischief.

The most famous community campaign to divert young folks from Halloween mischief originated in the town of Independence, Kansas, in 1919.

There, community leaders created an Oct. 31 celebration called Neewollah - Halloween spelled backwards, because the event was intended to reverse the destructive habits of the past.

Wholesome activities such as parades, carnivals, and picnics were supposed to keep the young folks busy.

Independence was the home town of playwright William Inge, who put the Neewollah celebration into the play, Picnic, which became the 1955 film from Columbia Pictures with the same title.

There is irony in the film if you recognize the purpose of Neewollah.

Its stars, William Holden and Kim Novak, heat up the screen with their sex appeal as they play out the everlasting story of youthful frustration and rebellion.

This is mischief beyond the fondest dreams of the out-house toppers of previous generations.

LETTER

At the election, vote for change

Dear editor,

I've been stopped in the street, in parking lots, at church, at parties, at stores and at the post office by people wanting to thank me for writing a letter to the editor a while back about the county commissioners raising the mill levy by 3.78 mills.

There were many concerned citizens at the meeting held at the Courthouse giving very legitimate arguments against the increase, and as usual, on a vote of 2 to 1, the increase was adopted anyway.

Now it is your turn to make your feelings known. When you cast your election ballot on election day, a vote for new county commissioners will hopefully change the way our tax dollars are being wasted in Jackson County.

Pick your poison: Trump or Clinton

Like millions of other U.S. citizens, I watched the first presidential debate on television between Republican Party candidate Donald Trump and Democratic Party candidate Hillary Clinton Monday evening.

It was historic in that it was the first time that either of the two major political parties was represented by a female presidential candidate in this country.

One of these two people (Trump or Clinton) will be elected as our next president - a position often referred to as the most powerful office in the world.

For me, the election is coming down to the following simple question: Do I want to vote for change in government (that would be candidate Trump) or do I want to vote for more of the same in government (that would be Clinton).

I can't decide definitely between these two candidates, just yet, but I am leaning toward the Donald. Here's why.

I'm somewhat convinced that if Clinton is elected, there will be federal tax increases coming for the middle class while, with Trump, I believe there's a chance that federal taxes could be decreased for the middle class.

I am a "secure-the-border-for-heaven's-sake" kind of voter (a Trumpster in that regard) who also believes we need to do a much better job of keeping machine gun-type weapons out of the hands of the mentally unstable (clearly a Clintonian here).

But, so far, neither candidate has totally earned my confidence. I fear that Clinton is too easily influenced by power greed and wealth and that while Trump stands more independently and more decisively, he's also clearly unpredictable.

I am old enough now to realize that you can't believe much of anything that presidential candidates will say to get elected.

Who are you going to vote for?

Consider this scenario: It's a normal day and you are strolling through the local Walmart with your wife and two young children after a tough day at work.

Suddenly, candidate Trump walks toward you.

And then candidate Clinton walks toward you, too.

Which candidate do you think will offer to shake your hand, befriend you and show kindness? And which one will walk right by you and easily dismiss you?

Buck's Grove

By Betty Bernitter

Even a cloudy morning could not keep people from worshipping at Buck's Grove on Sept. 25, 2016.

Josiah Hefty rang the bell to hurry along late comers.

As Sandy Hefty played the prelude, "Softly And Tenderly," Faith Hefty brought in the light of Christ.

Sandy also played hymns "God Will Take Care Of You," "On Eagles' Wings" and "Take My Life And Let It Be."

John Hefty asked for announcements and led the congregation in the call to worship, opening prayer and Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16.

John read scripture from Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15 and 1 Timothy 6:6-19.

John's children's message and the sermon were both related to how God wants us to be content with what we have.

Theresa Rieschick's special was a CD featuring Jake Hess, "Thanks For Sunshine."

The gospel reading was taken from Luke 16:19-31. John's message was "Find Contentment." Some people feel like they always have to have a bigger house or a newer car. They are never content with what they have. Being content is not something that comes natural; you have to seek it out.

Paul sometimes preached for no offerings and other times he had plenty. He learned to find contentment in whatever the situation was.

Let us look around at our many blessings. God calls us to be content with what we have.

"For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs," 1 Timothy 6:10.

After the offertory prayer, Don Boiling and Wayne Rieschick collected the offering.

The service closed by singing "Come Oh Lord."

Joyce Immenschuh led Bible study with input from John Hefty.

Holton First Baptist Church

By Shirley M. Cameron

On Sunday, Sept. 25, at Holton First Baptist Church, Pastor Tim shared a message from the third chapter of Philippians. The Apostle Paul shared in verse 20 that this world is our home, but, as Christians, our citizenship is in heaven. When we receive Christ, we immediately become citizens of heaven.

As heaven-bound persons, others are to see us living for Christ. Sometimes we dwell on our troubles rather than rest in the joy we can experience. Proverbs 17:22 tells us, "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones." Laughter is healing, reduces our pain level and exercises our heart and lungs. We look forward to eternal joy in heaven when we receive new bodies like Christ.

Philippians 4:1c tells us to "stand firm in the Lord." Pastor shared that we aren't to let the highs and lows of life sway us; grip on that eternal relationship we have with the Lord and don't let go. Seek a deep personal relationship with Christ and we can make a difference here on earth.

Circleville Christian

By Jeannie Arnold

Jay and Carol Buehler served as greeters at the door for Cowboy Church at Circleville Christian Church on Sept. 25. Blair Wagner gave the welcome and announcements and the opening prayer. Music was provided by the praise team of Gary Bell, Dale and Ilah Rose Askren, Max Lierz, Sandra Hurt and Sue Davault.

Max Lierz gave the prayer for concerns and praises. The communion meditation was given by Gary Bell. Communion servers were Matt McCauley, Mike Cochren, Jeremy Kennedy and John Ray. Max Lierz and Gary Bell provided the lovely communion music by playing their guitars. The offertory prayer was given by Dale Askren.

Brody Bliss used text from Revelation 2:12-17 as he gave his sermon titled "The Church At Pergamum." His message told how a church without discipline is lost.

We need to heed the words of Jesus and worship God alone. Do not compromise Christian discipline. We must honor God alone and apply our faith, for we are saved only by the grace of God.

If we don't follow scripture, we have no standards to build our life on. If we remain steadfast, there is a great substantial reward, so don't lose your focus for the reward.

The service closed with a congregational singing of "Happy Trails To You."

Trinity Lutheran

By Marcia Coufal

Who is Lazarus? To human eyes, he is the most unfortunate of men, covered in sores and surrounded by dogs. But in reality, he is an image of Jesus; a mortal image of the immortal Savior who came to save us.

For there once was a certain rich man who came down from heaven to be born in a barn; to have nowhere to lay head; to be surrounded by Roman and chief priestly dogs as He hung dying on the cross.

He thirsted on that cross so that you could drink from the River of Life in the Jerusalem above. He was stripped so that you could be clothed with the garments of salvation. He was tortured in the flames of His Father's wrath so that you might be embraced in the warmth of the Father's love. He was the Lazarus who traded places with all us rich men, so that we might not come to the place of torment.

The depth of the goodness and grace of God is staggering. He's the God who has loved you, who has befriended you, who has saved you. He has made you truly rich, and you too shall recline with Lazarus, and with all the saints, in the bosom of our father Abraham.

Clayton graduates from KHA Leadership Institute

The Kansas Hospital Association Leadership Institute graduated its 15th class of 32 students on Sept. 8 at the KHA Annual Convention and Trade Show in Overland Park. Students were nominated by their hospital's CEO to be part of this select group. They represent the future leaders of Kansas hospitals.

Among the graduating class of 2016 was Janet Clayton of Holton Community Hospital.

Helping to build future health care leaders is important to the Kansas Hospital Association.

"We are committed to strengthening and promoting the leadership capacity of hospital employees in Kansas," said Tom Bell, president and CEO, Kansas Hospital Association.

The KHA Leadership Institute was established to help hospitals provide professional development opportunities that accentuate the personal skills and abilities needed to facilitate positive change and innovation in Kansas hospitals.

The 2016 Leadership Institute class was diverse. They represented a wide geographic distribution of hospitals from Hill City to Leavenworth and Parsons to Elkhart – there was representation from all parts of the state. Students had been working in health care for as little as one year to more than 20 years.

Several students have been in management positions for more than 10 years, while others were brand new to management positions. Some students also are supervisors, supervising a range of employees from a few to more than 50 employees.

It is important to note that the students nominated to participate in this program were not selected because they needed to learn management skills.

They were nominated because their CEO recognized their potential to be future leaders and wanted to help cultivate that development. Each one of these students made a personal and professional commitment to expand their skills by attending all six courses of the Leadership Institute.

The curriculum was structured to enhance each student's leadership abilities. Course one focused on explaining the difference between leadership and management, identifying organizational values and creating a positive organizational climate.

Course two focused on enhancing communication skills and examining ethics.

Course three examined conflict and how to effectively manage it.

Course four focused on team building, including how to lead a team and how to be part of a team.

Courses five and six were at the KHA Annual Convention and Trade Show. Students learned about the challenges facing health care in the future.

The Kansas Hospital Association is a not-for-profit association of health care provider organizations and individuals that are committed to the health improvement of their communities. KHA membership includes 210 member facilities, of which 126 are full-service, community hospitals. Founded in 1910, KHA's vision is "Optimal Health for Kansans."

Holton to host RV Panthers Friday

By David Powls

Holton and Royal Valley will both be looking for their second wins of the football season when the two Jackson County teams clash at Holton on Friday for the Wildcats' homecoming game.

Holton is coming off of a big win at Riverside last Friday. Royal Valley also has beaten Riverside this season on their home field.

Holton head coach Brooks Barta said after the Riverside win that the Wildcats are continuing to improve their performance.

"Though we did not see the quality of skill players from the previous week, we made some strides in our aggressiveness in the secondary and had the defensive line make a few more plays," coach Barta said. "We have fewer missed opportunities due to playing in better position and properly reading our keys."

Coach Barta said he was pleased to be able to get more ball carriers involved in the offense.

"We spread the carries around offensively and we are putting more time into our passing game," he said. "We need to build balance with our passing and option game now that our inside run game has developed."

Barta says the bus ride home after a road game is always a little nicer, but really, he said the team does not talk a lot in terms of wins or losses.

"We do not talk a lot about wins and losses. I think the kids were pleased, but I don't think we ever lacked confidence," he said. "Playing quality opponents has exposed some of our weaknesses. We have moved some kids around to better play to the discovered strengths and we will spend the next three weeks working on our weaknesses to prepare for district play."

An added feature to the Wildcats last Friday was the emergence of point-after kicker Jackson Martin, a sophomore.

"We thought maybe we would be able to kick better late in the year," coach Barta said. "We had some injuries that slowed that progress."

Barta said that at practice this week the team is continuing to work on being more aggressive on defense and more balanced on offense.

"Royal Valley makes you play very disciplined football," coach Barta said. "We will have to tackle well."

Coach Barta also encouraged all the Wildcat fans to get out to a game to see the team play.

"We would like to see them in the stands this week for our county matchup," he said.

In the game against Riverside, Holton scored 14 points in the first quarter, six points in the second and 21 in the third to win big.

The Wildcats rushed for 521 yards in the game, 237 in the first half and 248 in the second.

Senior Miles McClintock-Strozier rushed 11 times for 174 yards in the game to lead Holton. Senior Spencer Baum rushed 11 times for 127 yards. Senior Bryson Patch rushed eight times for 69 yards.

Sophomore Zane Moylan rushed seven times for 47 yards and Sophomore Cael Jackson rushed one time for 30 yards. Junior AJ Haussler rushed five times for 27 yards. Sophomore Jackson Martin rushed four times for nine yards and sophomore Parker Gilliland rushed once for two yards.

Riverside was held to 158 yards rushing and 106 yards passing, completing nine of 23 passes.

Holton had 14 first downs in the game to 13 for Riverside.

Holton's Mason Strader, a junior, passed five times in the game, completing one to junior Dylan Aeschliman for 36 yards.

On defense, Haussler was credited with seven tackles (one for loss), three assists, two knocked down passes and a fumble recovery.

Aeschliman had eight tackles, two assists and a blocked kick.

Martin had five tackles and one assist and Tyler Price had six tackles and three assists.

A total of 25 Wildcats recorded either a tackle or an assisted tackle in the game.

Baum scored on TD runs of six and 68 yards. McClintock-Strozier scored on TD runs of 34 and 10 yards. Haussler scored on a TD run of eight yards and Price scored on a TD run of three yards.

Martin was successful on five of six point after attempts.

HHS earns split with league leading Kaws

By Ali Holcomb

Tuesday night was, essentially, a battle for first place in the Big Seven league, and the Holton High School volleyball team was hoping to take that top spot away from the Perry-Lecompton Kaws.

At the end of the night, however, the two teams ended up splitting the matches, leaving Perry tied for first in the league with Nemaha Central. Both teams only have two losses in the league while three teams - Holton, Hiawatha and Royal Valley - have just three losses.

Holton put up a fight and took the first match in two games, 25-20 and 25-8.

"We came out and played strong and intense," said coach Janelle Noel. "We hit the ball. We were playing really well."

The Lady Wildcats held their opponent to just eight points in the second game of the first match. At one point, Holton had a commanding 13-1 lead.

The second match was a different story, as the Lady Kaws rallied to take both games, 25-20 and 25-22.

"I knew the second match was going to be tough. Perry only had one league loss before last night, and I told the girls that they were going to come out and play," Noel said. "I knew that losing that first match was probably uncharacteristic of them. They came out on fire. We played timid and held back. By the time we decided to play, it was too late."

Noel said that a solid performance by back row player Shay Tanking helped the Lady Wildcats defend the Kaws.

"She made some really great defensive plays for us," Noel said.

Noel said that team needs to continue to practice their hitting game and building confidence in their abilities.

"Sometime they're afraid to make a mistake and we don't play aggressive and that hurts us in the end," she said.

The Lady Wildcats are now 7-3 in the league and will host the Sabetha Bluejays on Thursday with games starting at 5 p.m.

JH Cobras volleyball team beats McLouth, bows to the Bears

By Brian Sanders

Jackson Heights High School's varsity volleyball team went one for two during a Tuesday evening triangular meet at Oskaloosa, falling to the host team before going on to beat McLouth.

"We just started out a little sluggish against Oskaloosa, and we were having a few problems adapting to one of their hitters," Head Coach Denise Visocky said about Tuesday's matches. "But we were able to bounce back against McLouth and take care of business there."

The Lady Cobras' varsity play opened with a tough, two-game loss to the Oskaloosa Bears, 25-19 and 25-18. In the nightcap, Heights made easy work of the McLouth Bulldogs, 25-16 and 25-22.

The JHHS junior varsity team continued to roll over the opposition, taking a hard-won match from Oskaloosa before dismantling McLouth in the nightcap.

Up next for the Cobras, now 7-13 for the season, is a varsity volleyball tournament starting at 9 a.m. Saturday at Valley Falls; scheduled matches for the day were not available at press time. The Cobras will return to the court at JHHS for a Tuesday, Oct. 4 triangular with Valley Falls and Pleasant Ridge.

"We've got to work on being able to read the ball a little bit better and cover the ball, in addition to being able to adapt to different hitters," Visocky said of the team's practice goals for the week.

HHS golfers compete Monday

By Brian Sanders

Monday's Jefferson West Invitational at the Village Greens golf course near Ozawie provided Holton High School's girls varsity golf team with the opportunity to improve on its scores from the week before at matches hosted by Spring Hill and Council Grove.

The Lady Cats came away with a fifth-place finish in the 10-team, 50-player invitational, with sophomore Sarah Holaday putting her way into seventh place for the day. Piper High School emerged from the invitational as the winning team.

"We played much better golf," Head Coach Dennis Tegethoff said in comparing Monday's play with the previous week's two invitationals.

Holaday's performance and the overall team score was augmented by three other Lady Cat golfers, including sophomore Taylor Stevens, who finished 12th with a score of 102 on the 18-hole invitational. Tegethoff also noted good play from sophomore Faith Holaday and senior Cali Smith.

Up next, the Lady Cats will return to the Village Greens on Thursday for a JV invitational with at least three team members, Tegethoff said. Then, on Monday, Oct. 3, the varsity girls will head to Topeka's Western Hills golf course for an invitational hosted by Silver Lake.

"At this point in the season, it's about shaving the little strokes on chipping and putting," Tegethoff said. "Hopefully, we can still improve on all facets, but those two will be the key."

Commissioners consider adding sidewalk to south side of courtyard

By Ali Holcomb
As work continues to progress on renovating the circle drive on the east side of the Jackson County Courthouse, the county commissioners are looking at bids to install a sidewalk on that side of the grounds, also.

In recent weeks, the commissioners have met with Chad Phillips, head custodian, to seek bids for an eight-foot wide by four-inch deep sidewalk on either side of the south end of the circle drive.

At this time, the commissioners are only interested in installing a sidewalk to half of the south side of the courtyard along the street.

A six-foot wide sidewalk was also discussed, but with vehicles parked closely to the curb, the commissioners agreed to look into the cost of a sidewalk two inches wider.

Funds for the proposed sidewalk would be paid for out of the county's parks and recreation fund. This fund is generated through tax on alcohol sales within the county.

According to the state, a third of the money must be used for parks and recreation, a third for alcohol prevention and the remaining third is put into county general.

The county currently has $141,000 in its parks and recreation fund, it was reported.

In other business, according to the minutes from Monday, Sept. 12, the commission:

* Heard a weekly report John Kennedy, Banner Creek Reservoir director, that revenue for the week of Aug. 28 - Sept. 3 totaled $1,108.

* Learned from Kennedy that Raymond Korte and Scott Allen were hired to work the remainder of the mowing season.

* Denied a request for funds from Julie Keehn for an after school program at Rhino Fitness.

* Met with Mixie Schafer, director of noxious weed and environmental services, who reported that someone renting the county's 200-gallon sprayer recently flipped the sprayer upside down and into water.

Schafer said that residents who rent the sprayer are required to sign a waiver stating that they will pay damages incurred to the machine that are outside normal wear and tear of general use.

Schafer said she would also like to increase the sprayer rental fee and start requesting a deposit. The weed department has two, 200-gallon sprayers, and Schafer would like to increase the sprayer rental fee to $35 a day and $50 for a weekend. No action was taken on the issue.

* Learned from Schafer that, when the center is closed, sometimes recycling materials are placed outside the gates, which creates a mess.

The commissioners agreed that Schafer should place a sign at the center that stated anyone caught dumping would be forced to pay a fine and that surveillance cameras are used in the area at all times.

* Met with resident Goldie Vance, who expressed her concern with the condition of 270th Road between B and C Roads. Vance said the road isn't wide enough to allow for two lanes of traffic and that it gets very muddy.

* Signed a contract to hire Fisher, Patterson, Saylor & Smith to represent the county on two pending legal cases.

* Signed a request and petition to allow Centurylink to occupy a county right-of-way to bury a fiber cable.

* Signed a request and petition to allow the city of Mayetta to occupy a county right-of-way to bore under a creek bed on R Road.

* Signed payroll increases for Taarna Patterson (jail employee) and Todd Robbins (bridge department employee).

* Adjourned the meeting at 4 p.m. All three commissioners were present.

Fire Safety Awareness Fair set

The Holton Volunteer Fire Department will host a fire safety awareness fair next week at the Holton Fire Department, 301 W. Fourth St. in Holton, it has been reported.

The fair will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily from Monday, Oct. 3 to Friday, Oct. 7, and from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Monday to Thursday. An open house will also be held on Friday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. There is no sign-up necessary.

Instruction on the proper use of a home fire extinguisher will be featured, including a live demonstration and training in grease and trash fire scenarios.

Patrons may also sign up to have their smoke detector batteries changed and sign up for the Kansas Fire Marshal Free Smoke Detector Program.

Home fire safety plans and fire and safety issues will also be discussed.

Wetmore hosts grandparents for lunch

By Alena Pfrang
WHS Student Correspondent

On Sept. 12, Wetmore Elementary School had its annual Grandparents' Day. This event gave the opportunity for the grade schoolers to invite their grandparent(s) to join them in the cafeteria for school lunch. A total of 55 seniors attended the event.

First-grade teacher Keri Strathman primarily hosted this event. With the help of other elementary teachers, Grandparents' Day was a success. Almost every student had at least one person come to be their grandparent for the day.

One grandmother read a story to her granddaughter's class. The children had the chance to show their grandpas and grandmas their educational creations.

Grandparents' Day began at Wetmore about five years ago. The event was created to celebrate the importance of grandparents and how much they affect the lives of their grandchildren.

The only conflict with Grandparents' Day is lunch count. Some grade schoolers have trouble turning in their permission slips on time. If Strathman is unable to receive these slips, the cooks are unable to know the correct amount of attendees for lunch.

"I appreciate the cooks' hard work and preparation," Strathman said. "Even though accounting can be a little problem, it's all worth it. The grandparents enjoy it."

Netawaka UMC

By Mary E. Edwards
Sept. 25 was a dark, cloudy morning. Jack and Verona Granell were the greeters at Netawaka United Methodist Church. Jack lighted the altar candles as "We Gather Together" recorded music played. Verona was in charge of recorded music.

Marilyn Banaka gave the welcome and announcements. Joys and concerns were shared. It was a joy, as always, to have little Abigail Mullins here with her grandparents. Marilyn Banaka, Mary Edwards and Helen Edwards went to Theater Atchison Friday night for the performance of "Mary Poppins." Most on our prayer list are doing well. The hymns were "Morning Has Broken," "Surely The Presence Of The Lord" and "Jesus is All The World To Me."

Marilyn led the responsive call to worship and the reading of Psalm 91:1-10.

Pastor Young Won asked Abigail to come for the children's message, which was about paying attention. He also led the unison congregational prayer. He then offered a pastoral prayer and led the Lord's Prayer and response, "Glory Be To The Father."

Jack collected the offering. The scripture lesson was 1 Timothy 6:6-12, which states that Godliness with contentment is great gain, and the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Pastor Young's message was "Hoping For Eternal Life." God is our faithful shepherd and calls us to be His faithful servants by His grace. God is love. He pays attention to us; we should pay attention to Him. That is why we have daily devotional time and take time for prayers of thanksgiving.

We all need money for our needs of living our lives. Money should be used wisely. Don't fall in love with it or other interests or hobbies or anything that takes us away from God's will. Stay in the faith.

Immanuel Lutheran Church

By Esther L. Ideker
Summarizing the readings for the 19th Sunday after Pentecost, we do well to listen throughout our lives. Parents try their best to teach this to children at an early age. The ability to listen is a quality that affects relationships, vocations and general communication.

The same goes in our relationship with the Lord. We do well to listen to Him. The people of Amos's time learned this as the Lord spoke through him many "woes" and warnings. This is why Paul writes clear directions for the noble task of overseers, through whom people are to listen to the Lord.

Even Jesus' parable of the rich man and Lazarus reminds us that a day is coming when it will be too late. The word of God teaches us that now is the time to listen, to repent and to believe.

The early morning worship at Immanuel Lutheran on Sept. 25 opened with the hymn "Blessed Jesus At Your Word." The order of matins with psalmody and venite. Mike Keehn, elder, read the Old Testament lesson from Amos chapter 6 and Epistle lesson from 1 Timothy chapter 3. Pastor Jeffrey Geske read the holy gospel from Luke 16:19-31.

In the children's message, Pastor Geske sang "This Is The Day That The Lord Has Made," with second verse, "Jesus is the way that the Lord has made." He spoke of the urgency of spreading the word of God, the message of salvation to a dying world. We live joyously sharing that the love of Jesus.

The sermon hymn was "For All The Saints." Pastor Geske's sermon was titled "The Urgency," based on the gospel lesson of the day. For Christians called by the Holy Spirit, we are called to the urgency of swift action in proclaiming Christ to a hurting and dying world that seems so content on focusing on everything of this life and forgetting the eternal life that awaits

Einstein is quoted as saying, "The world will not be destroyed by those who do evil, but by those who watch them without doing anything." And Aristotle: "Tolerance and apathy are the last virtues of a dying society."

The congregation sang "The Te Deum." The offering ushers were Terry Handke and Kevin Strube. "There Is A Redeemer" was sung as the offertory.

In the prayers of the church, thanks and praise were offered to our gracious God and asked that our response to His love be with urgency in our times to share the good news. Remembered were Pastor Geske, Tricia and Jacob, our congregation, the extended church, missionaries and pastors. We lifted up the congregation at Trinity Lutheran in Atchison with Pastors Ziegler and Ockree.

The gift of healing was asked for all those who are ill or hospitalized and for the birthday of Larry Leck. Our government leaders, both state and national, were remembered as well as all our community leaders. The congregation joined in The Lord's Prayer.

Following the benedicamus and the benediction, the service closed with the hymn "I Love To Tell The Story." Serving Sunday were Mike Keehn, elder; Mackenzie McMahon, acolyte; Joyce Peterson, organist; and on the altar committee, Heather Amon and Inga Klahr.

Carter and Conrad Carlson, cousins of Grant and Austin Amon, were welcomed to the service.

Table of Six was to take place at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 27, at Trails Café. Men's breakfast will be held at 7:30 a.m. on Oct. 1 at the church with devotion and Bible study following.

Next Sunday, Oct. 2, Immanuel's service will observe Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sunday with the theme "Come And See."

Circleville

By Jeannie Arnold
Kenny Wykert was in Topeka on Thursday, Sept. 15, to visit his brother, Gerald Wykert. Their brother, Bob, also joined them in the afternoon for some card games.

Sept. 19 was the meeting at the Circleville Lodge Hall of the senior executives. Kenny Wykert, president, called the meeting to order with the saying of the flag salute and the reciting of the Lords prayer.

The secretary's minutes were read and the treasurer's report was given. Old business was information about the stage curtains to be put up in the Circleville gym at a later date. New business was about the upcoming Oct. 29 Trunk or Treat at the Circleville gym, sponsored by the City of Circleville.

The program consisted of three speakers: The first was superintendent of schools at Jackson Heights, Adrienne Walsh, giving an update about the school year and added staff and improvements.

She told about the district goals and priorities. One of the things was about the Washburn Tech program, where students go in the mornings and attend school in Topeka. There are 13 going down there this year. In previous years, there have only been two or three students participating.

Two Jackson Heights track meets are scheduled in the spring of 2017, and that is a benefit to the school, as none have been able to be held for more than 15 years, because of the deteriorated track. Many commented on the new press box that is now in use.

The second speaker was Amanda Spalding from the Holton Senior Meal Site, who gave an informative talk about the programs and new staff at the center. Amanda encouraged seniors to come and eat at the center and passed out a menu schedule of meals in October.

The third speaker, Mayor Ed Rostetter, gave an informative talk about the city of Circleville and the happenings. The city is in the process of purchasing a new international tractor to push snow and do other jobs. All of the fire equipment is now moved to the newly built fire station.

Evelyn Allen, our Silver Haired Legislature Representative, was unable to attend but sent a flyer to distribute to the members. She will be attending the SHS as the delegate from Jackson County on Oct. 4-6 in Topeka. The meeting was adjourned at 1:25 p.m.

Many from this area attended the visitation and funeral in Topeka of Darrell Carr, 88, former popular teacher and coach at the Circleville High School in 1956 and 1957. He was married to Mary Burns, a Circleville High School graduate.

Two of Don and Deloris Beam's little great-grandchildren spent Friday night and Saturday morning with them. They were Drake and McKenzie Wheeler, children of Casy and Kelsee Wheeler.

Dennis and Barbara Hutchinson went on the Jackson County Barn Tour on Saturday, Sept. 24, in the Hoyt area of the country and enjoyed seeing the barns around Muddy Creek. The double arch stone bridge was interesting. A delicious roast beef meal prepared and served by Donna Wege Catering was at the Royal Valley High School. It was well organized and informative.

On Saturday, Oct. 1, the Circleville Saddle Club will present Ned LeDoux. The event will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight at the Circleville gym. Bring the whole family; kids five and under are free.

Potawatomi United Methodist Church

By Ilene Dick
Sunday, Sept. 25, was a cool day following the heavy rains. We had 3.1 inches in our gauge, and some reported more than four inches in the area.

Pastor Howard opened the service at Potawatomi United Methodist Church by sharing Psalm 117 and prayer.

Announcements included a reminder of upcoming election of officers; the date of charge conference to be held Nov. 20 at Mayetta U.M.C.; and that a sign-up sheet will soon be passed around for the annual soup supper to be held Oct. 22.

Pastor Howard had the joy of a good vacation to Texas. He enjoyed several tourist attractions in and around San Antonio, and also visited relatives in Dallas.

Darlene Rawlings gave an open invitation to the congregation to her 80th birthday celebration on Oct. 15 from noon to 2 p.m. at the Mayetta Christian Church fellowship hall.

Judy Thoman was acolyte. Ronald Dick read the scripture from Psalms 119:77. Hymns were "In The Garden," "He Touched Me" and "Leaning On The Everlasting Arms." Music was provided by Tina, Ilene and Ann.

Betty Bowser gave the special. She shared a clever story titled "Family Values," from the book "Front Porch Tales." A little humor along with a valuable message is a good lesson for all.

Keith Bell was offertory usher. Pastor Howard's message was "God's Great Mercy" with the text from Luke 18:9-14. Most people have the desire to be recognized.

In the scripture, Jesus explained the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector. He states, "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

We will never be what God wants us to be. God gave His Son because by ourselves we cannot gain favor on the same level as God. He made us alive in Christ. By grace, we are saved.

Next Sunday's message will be titled "We Are Grateful People."

Judy and Donnie Thoman traveled by car to Massachusetts, where they enjoyed a visit with their daughter, Jessie, who now lives there and began a new job recently. The Thomans were gone from Sept. 10 to 21 and had a nice trip.

The day after returning home from Massachusetts, Judy went on a three-day quilt bus tour. The tour left from Quilting on the Square in Holton, traveling and stopping at quilt shops in Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota, and returned to Holton on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 25.

Betty Bowser accompanied Grace Bowser to St. Marys on Friday, Sept. 24, to attend Grandparents' Day at the school with Peyton, Hunter and Taylee Poppelreiter. The children came home with them to spend the weekend with their grandparents, Grace and Mike Bowser.

Zachary and Lauren Bowser of Overland Park called on Cecil and Betty Bowser on Friday evening, Sept. 23.

Steve and Laura Schreiber enjoyed visiting and spending time with Steve's mother, Peggy Schreiber. She spent the weekend of Sept. 24 and 25 with them.

Betty Bowser was a Sunday lunch guest on Sept. 25 of Nicholas and Jessica Bowser, Hazel and Henry.

Mayetta Methodist Church

By Shirley Stauffer
Church services at Mayetta Methodist Church on Sept. 25, the 19th Sunday after Pentecost, began with Pastor Sudduth reading from Psalms 117, followed by prayer.

Announcements included the date of the charge conference, which will be Nov. 20 at our church at 1 p.m. The birthday song was sung to Todd Stauffer and Tim Smith.

Cory Smith lighted the candles and Tim and Cody Smith were the bell ringers. Call to worship came from Psalms 145:17-18, 21. Pastor read the living word of God from Psalms 119:77.

Hymns sung were "In The Garden," "He Touched Me" and "Leaning On The Everlasting Arms."

The special was "Tell Me The Old, Old Story." The children's message was titled "By Heart."

Tim Smith and Bud Stauffer took up the offerings. Pastor Sudduth's message was titled "God's Great Mercy," based on text from Luke 18:9-14.

The congregation wishes to thank David Oakley for his wonderful message about church music origins, and we enjoyed singing along last Sunday.

Mary Anderson went to Pea Ridge, Ark., on Sunday, Sept. 18, to visit her son, Jon, and his wife, Beth. While there, she also got to see her granddaughter, Asha Talbart, and the great-grandson, Zadik. He is now 3½ months old.

On Wednesday, she went to Tulsa to see her sister, Bonita, and her husband, John Watts. On the way, she stopped in Gentry, Ark. for coffee with her cousin, Tommy Hopper. She came home on Friday in time to go to Sabetha with Kevin Smith for the Royal Valley-Sabetha football game.

Mary was in Topeka to attend the monthly meeting of the 21 Book Club. She is president for the coming year.

Shirley Stauffer attended the Silver Lake football game on Friday, Sept. 16. Her granddaughters, Aidan and Brenna Stauffer, did a dance routine with the Silver Lake cheerleaders at halftime. Shirley and Bud have been attending soccer games in Topeka on Saturdays to watch the girls.

On Sunday, Sept. 25, a birthday party was held in honor of Bud and Shirley Stauffer's great-grandson, Finn Whitten, for his third birthday. The party was held at Bud and Shirley's home. Several family members were in attendance.

June Schlodder, Darrell and Mary Morgan and Bud and Shirley Stauffer enjoyed pizza at the Roy Kranz home in Circleville on Friday evening.

Denison Bible Church

By Esther L. Hall
On Sept. 25, Pastor Tom's message at Denison Bible Church, "It Ain't Over Until It's Over," was based on Ecclesiastes 9:1-5. As long as we're still alive, we still have the opportunity to accept Jesus as our Savior and spend all eternity with Him. But once we're dead, we've lost that opportunity.

In Ecclesiastes, what changed Solomon's life was that he finally saw how much evil there was in the world. Solomon had seen and experienced everything "under the sun," without looking at it as God saw it.

We have an assignment to help others to see the evils in life and how they can battle it.

This also includes our children. We raise our children and then set them loose in the world full of evil. If we haven't prepared or taught them to seek the Lord, they too will succumb to evil.

Solomon realized that he could be eternally blessed when he developed a relationship with God. That he could have eternal life. So can we. When we seek Jesus Christ we will be eternally blessed to spend eternal life with Him, where evil and death will be destroyed.

Marshall Persinger (right) of KC Concrete of Delia used a pavement saw to cut into the concrete drive at the east side of the Jackson County Courthouse on Tuesday, with assistance from Ken Bailey. The new concrete driveway should be ready for traffic in the coming weeks, while county crews work on a sidewalk to be built on the inside of the Square, Bailey said.

Horticulture: Planting trees in the fall

By David G. Hallauer
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent

Crops & Soils/Horticulture
While spring is typically thought of as "planting season" for most of our lawn and garden plants, trees are definitely one of those that can thrive when planted in the fall.

Unlike fall, when soils could be cold and saturated (resulting in oxygen levels so low that root growth is inhibited), the warm and moist soils associated with fall actually encourage root growth. That means that the tree becomes established well before a spring-planted tree, making it better able to withstand summer stresses.

Because we are planting into drier soils, some special care is required for fall plantings. Tree roots are actively growing even though the top is dormant, so make sure the soil stays moist but not soggy. This may require watering not only in the fall but also during the winter months if we experience warm spells that dry the soil.

Consider a mulch layer as well to help minimize moisture loss and slow soil cooling so root growth continues as long as possible. If planting evergreens, do so as early in the fall as you can since they need at least six weeks before the ground freezes for the roots to become established.

Fall planting isn't for every species! Some trees do not produce significant root growth during the fall and are better planted in the spring. These include beech, birch, redbud, magnolia, tulip poplar, willow oak, scarlet oak, black oak, willows and dogwood.

If you are considering a fall planting, don't forget to consider seedlings from the Kansas Forest Service Conservation Tree Planting Program. The fall ordering season runs through Oct. 14. Pick up an order form and price list from your District Extension Office or visit www.kansasforests.org.

Elmer...

added expense has limited the rock available for roads. More legal cases filed in the county has also necessitated more attorneys (in the county attorney's office) to handle those cases.

"And to add to the problem, the state has passed many unfunded mandates that have negatively impacted our budgets. None of us like taxes, but this increase is necessary to maintain our level of services to the members of our communities.

"The mill levy approved will allow more rock for our roads, more employees to keep us safe and to prosecute those who put us in danger and many other services currently with strained budgets."

What concerns do you have regarding the county budget?

"My first concern with the current budget is the condition of the state's budget," he said. "If they continue to pass legislation to balance their budgets by taking money away from counties, we will be forced to find alternative ways to fund our county."

What would you do if elected?

"I believe the biggest area in need of improvement is our roads," he said. "Our bridge department ranks as one of the best out of 105 counties in the state. Since we've lost our quarry in the county, we've been forced to locate and haul rock from outside the county. One of my goals is to locate rock within our boundaries to eliminate that expense.

"We have recently made some changes to that department in hopes of improving our roads. My main focus, if re-elected, will be our roads and identifying ways to better maintain them. I would like to continue serving the people in the third district to see these improvements implemented."

Why do you believe you are qualified for this position?

"Serving as your county commissioner the past four years has been a learning experience. There is so much to know about all aspects of operating an entity such as an entire county," Elmer said. "It's so much different than running a company, which I have done.

"I have worked with other counties in our state to better understand their issues and how their policies may be beneficial to our county. I have attended many meetings and training seminars across the state to keep our county successfully operating under current laws, as well as new laws being implemented by our state government.

"This is not a part-time job. It requires your full attention and availability. Having other responsibilities would definitely limit your effectiveness in this position.

"My wife of 35 years and I have lived in Jackson County for our entire marriage. My children and a grandchild attended and graduated from Royal Valley school district. All my tax dollars have been and will continue to be paid in Jackson County.

"Jackson County is my number one priority. I worked for five years as a county road foreman in Jackson County. This experience has proved invaluable when making decisions regarding the needs of our road and bridge department. This experience has been called upon many times as I'm the only commissioner with this experience.

"Having been self employed, buying and selling farm equipment for two years, has also been an asset in many aspects of buying equipment or repairing that same equipment.

"With this understanding of mechanics, I have been able to positively influence decisions we make regarding our equipment.

"I also worked for 12 years for Hamm Quarries. In this position, I gained experience in all aspects of road construction, working with quarries, laying asphalt and trash service. This experience also has been used to better work with the local quarries on rock purchases.

"Working at Georgia Pacific for 17 years, I gained experience in many areas of warehousing and transportation. I started as a truck driver and worked my way up to warehouse supervisor. I was instrumental in the building of a new warehouse in Topeka and was responsible for all aspects of a start-up business.

"Some of those responsibilities included overseeing the actual building of the 45,000 square-foot building, stocking that building with millions of dollars of building materials, buying equipment to operate that facility, negotiating multi-million dollar contracts and hiring staff.

"It takes time to identify and implement positive change. With the experience I have gained over the last four years, I feel I can continue to lead this county into the future."

Elmer is a member of American Legion Post 423, the Northeast Kansas Area of Aging and the Mayetta chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

Market...

"The reason our bacon is so good is because it sits and cures for a week," he said. "That's probably what we're best known for."

Tinney also owns Community Assisted Living, which serves people with disabilities, and the meat locker and market help provide job opportunities for the clients.

"They assist in the packaging and the local delivery of the products. So it gives them some meaningful employment," he said.

The hours of the meat market are 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays. Delivery is available. For more information, call 785-364-7288.

"It's nice to kind of incorporate the locker here, as well as provide work for people with disabilities," he said.

Flu...

two "A" viruses (those capable of affecting animals as well as people and are generally more responsible for flu epidemics) and one "B" virus (those that do not mutate as quickly as "A" viruses and are found only in humans).

All of the 2015-16 influenza vaccine is being made to protect against an A/California/7/2009 (H1N1)pdm09-like virus, an A/Hong Kong/4801/2014 (H3N2)-like virus and a B/Brisbane/60/2008-like virus (B/Victoria lineage). Some of the 2016-17 flu vaccine is "quadrivalent" and also protects against an additional B virus (B/Phuket/3073/2013-like virus), with viruses generally named after their point of origin.

The California virus was also used in last year's vaccine, as were the B viruses, it was noted, although the Brisbane virus was used in the quadrivalent vaccine and the Phuket virus was used in the trivalent vaccine. Each year's vaccine is the result of "educated estimates" of the flu viruses expected to be prevalent during that year's flu season, it was reported. Reith echoed the CDC's recommendation that all persons six months of age and older get vaccinated, and the shot is especially recommended for those at higher risk of severe influenza and their close contacts, including health care personnel and children younger than six months of age who normally come into contact with them.

Adults and older children only need one vaccine each season, although some children younger than nine years of age may need two, it was reported. Also, people undergoing chemotherapy treatments, having underlying health conditions or running a high fever are advised to contact their doctor before receiving the vaccine.

Reith said the Jackson County Health Department is looking at possible dates for future vaccination clinics in the county's smaller communities; one has already been scheduled from 11 a.m. to noon on Monday. Vaccines will also be available at the health department's office, located at 312 Pennsylvania Ave. in Holton.

Coleman...

"I have some concerns of my own and some that have been brought up to me from fellow taxpayers," Coleman said. "They include, but are not limited to, the road and bridge budget, including the new shop, and the disrepair of the county roads. I've also heard concerns regarding the spending on items at Banner Creek Reservoir. Also, there are concerns over the tax lid mill levy increase that was passed recently by the commissioners."

What would you do if elected?

"I don't have any specific changes at this time," he said. "My experience has been that when purchasing or taking over management of a business, the first step is to assess operations for a short period, maybe 30 to 90 days. I would like to see what works and leave those arreas alone. Then make changes to the areas that are not working.

"I think it is shortsighted to say we need to make changes just from what I observe from the outside. Once I have a full understanding of how things work, then I will start the change process.

"A couple of areas that I think need a new set of eyes is the road and bridge department. We all know how the roads are and how long they have been this way - years. Why don't we try something totally different with the roads? Another thing I would like to look at is economic development - what we have in place currently, what was in place and what we could have in place."

Why do you believe you are qualified for this position?

"I feel my 20 plus years of business ownership experience gives me a good understanding of budgeting and projecting the needs of a midsized organization," he said. "I will bring experience managing more than 100 employees and multi-million dollar budgets. I fully believe in allowing people to perform their jobs after giving them the proper training. We also have lots of smart people in the county. Let's consider tapping into some of this human capital to help find creative solutions to some of our concerns."

This is Coleman's first time running for public office. He has also served on the Grace Christian School executive board.

Bailey...

What would you do if elected?

"If elected, I will try to ensure that the county tax dollars are used in the most efficient manner possible," Bailey said. "I believe that trying to get the residents better roads to drive on is important. We need to improve the quality of life for the residents of Jackson County. The county could start by not penalizing those who care about the county and their own property and try to make improvements. The rules need to be enforced to those that don't seem to care."

Why do you believe you are qualified for this position?

"I have served on many boards successfully dealing with budgets, change in government rule, regulations and mandates and developing plans for expansion," Bailey said. "I have a working knowledge of the time, effort and involvement things like this take. I have operated my own business for more than 20 years and have operated a small farm/ranch operation as well for more than 25 years.

"I have and currently employ people and have the knowledge of business organization. I have dealt with many people through the good and bad times and have dealt with it all to the best of my ability. I believe this is a position I can successfully hold and help improve Jackson County for all."

Bailey served on the Royal Valley USD 337 Board of Education for eight years, the Jackson County Zoning Board for four years and the Jackson County Fair Board for 18 years.
