Vets enjoy Honor Flight reception

By Brian Sanders

Vietnam War veteran Leo Wessel remembers the homecoming he received after his U.S. Air Force service in that war.

"We came home, and there was a line of people booing and spitting on us," said Wessel, a resident of Goff. "Nowadays, you don't see it, but it still bothers me."

Lawrence resident Mickey Bradshaw, who served as a military police officer in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War, remembered experiencing a similar feeling upon returning home.

"We landed in Oakland, and I went to San Francisco to fly back. People were protesting there," Bradshaw said. "It was like you didn't really want people to know that you were in the service."

It was not a good time."

But last Wednesday, Wessel, Bradshaw and other veterans of the Vietnam War from northeast Kansas stepped off a Southwest Airlines plane at Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI) to a different kind of reception — one that included cheering and clapping.

"I didn't expect that," Wessel said. "It's nice to be recognized, because for so many years, we weren't."

The warm welcome was for the 27 veterans of the Korean and Vietnam wars participating in the seventh Jackson Heights High School Honor Flight, the voluntarily-funded trip to Washington, D.C. that the school has been offering since 2009.

But in a way, the welcome was also for the 21 JHHS students who served as the veterans' "guardians" for the trip — students who got more than just an airplane flight to the nation's capital for a day.

"The best thing was getting to meet the veterans and talking to all of them, hearing about what they all did, and seeing them all smile," said JHHS junior Kylie Dohl, serving as a guardian to Netawaka resident Larry Schumann, who served on a Navy submarine during the Vietnam War.

The day began at about 4 a.m., when veterans, guardians and support staff boarded a charter bus at the Veterans Club in Holton and rode to Kansas City International Airport, stopping in Topeka to pick up a few more veterans along the way.

A few hours after taking off from Kansas City, veterans landed at BWI and were greeted by a national Honor Flight "ground crew," a welcoming committee led by Joseph Short and Bill Veatch.

"It's great to see the veterans and the kids working together," Veatch said as the Jackson Heights crew walked down the gangway. "The kids blow us away with how respectful they are."

Veterans were also greeted by Fred Taylor, decked out in American Revolution-era "squire" gear and ringing the bell as the "Official Annapolis Towne Crier" — something that participants

Alleged threat prompts lockdown at RV schools

An alleged threat made on the internet towards a group of Royal Valley students last Wednesday resulted in the arrest of a 19-year-old Topeka man that same day and caused two schools in the district to be placed in a "modified lockdown" for several hours, it was reported.

At 11 a.m. that day, Royal Valley administrators reported that the high school and elementary school, which are both located in Hoyt, had been placed on a modified lockdown, "keeping all students inside for precautionary measures." Classes remained in session, but students and personnel were asked to remain in the school buildings.

"The safety of our students is important, and we are working with Jackson County Sheriff's Department to make sure all students remain safe," school administrators wrote in a press release.

Shortly after the lockdown was announced, Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse said that his department was seeking information on the whereabouts of Braden Charles Crowder, 19, of Topeka, who was wanted for alleged criminal threat and telephone harassment.

A description of Crowder and his vehicle, a white Ford passenger car, were released to the public by Morse and Crowder was arrested shortly thereafter.

Morse said that his office received a tip that Crowder was at a manufacturing plant in northwest Topeka, and he was arrested on a Jackson County District Court warrant on charges of criminal threat and telephone harassment shortly before 1:30 p.m. by detectives from the sheriff's office and Kansas State Troopers.

Crowder was transported to the Jackson County Jail where bond was set at $25,000.

Sheriff's office deputies were stationed outside the schools in Hoyt for precautionary purposes during the lockdown, Morse said, which was lifted at 1:30 p.m.

Caldwell favors legalizing marijuana

By Ali Holcomb

Jeff Caldwell, 31, of Leawood is a Libertarian candidate for governor whose platform includes legalizing medicinal and recreational marijuana and opening up the free market on hemp in order to fund public schools.

"I had a lot of people from outside the political process come to me and tell me that they wanted to vote for me in November," Caldwell said in a recent interview at The Holton Recorder office. "People are sick and tired of the corruption and the non-representation in Topeka. So I decided to step in and run."

Caldwell has never held an elected office but has been an executive member of the Libertarian Party of Kansas since 2010. He previously ran for a position in the Kansas State House of Representatives.

He has lived in Kansas for 20 years and graduated from Rockhurst High School in Kansas City.

"I am the only candidate on the ballot that supports the full legalization of cannabis (marijuana) in Kansas and will actively work to bring legislation to my desk," he said. "I also support a free market on hemp. Earlier this year, the state passed a school funding increase of $535 million by 2022. They haven't told us how they are going to pay for it. I am proposing we use revenues from cannabis, hemp and legalized sports betting to fund the school funding increase."

Last year, 50 percent of Kansans surveyed as part of the Kansas Speaks poll by Fort Hays State University reported that they support the full legalization of cannabis, he said.

"Seventy-six percent support medicinal cannabis. To me, that means that the people in Topeka are disconnected with the citizens of Kansas," he said.

He said the legalization of marijuana will also benefit other areas of government.

"Our foster care and group homes are overburdened, and there's so much corruption there right now," he said. "A lot of these children have parents who have tested positive for THC (the active chemical in cannabis). So if we legalize cannabis, that will help cut down on the overpopulation of children in these types of homes."

County budget approved

By Ali Holcomb

The Jackson County Commissioners approved the 2019 county budget yesterday as presented, which is funded by 75.939 mills.

The budget includes a .898 mill decrease from last year's budget.

Despite the mill levy decrease, the county is expected to levy more local taxes than last year because the county's assessed valuation has increased by $5.5 million.

With new budget, the county expects to collect $9,057,513 in local taxes, which is up $317,554 over the $8,739,959 collected last year.

Austin to serve as head librarian

By Brian Sanders
Visitors to Beck-Bookman Library in Holton are noticing a new face behind the librarian's desk this week.

It's Amy Austin, a six-year resident of Holton who recently signed on to take over for head librarian Candee Jacobs, who is retiring after nearly a quarter of a century.

"When I heard that Candee was retiring, I was surprised," Austin said. "I have dreamed of this position for several decades, and the opportunity presented itself at a perfect time."

Austin is currently working through the transition period with Jacobs, working to "glean all the knowledge I can" before Jacobs takes her final leave later this month.

"She says she won't be far, but I know she will be missed every day in the library," Austin said of Jacobs.

A native of Berryton, Austin moved with her family to the Salina area where she became a medical assistant and worked in various positions. She later moved to Topeka, earning a bachelor's degree in psychology from Washburn University.

"I worked basically as a case manager in venues ranging from corrections and mental health to geriatrics," she said.

After earning her master of liberal arts degree from Baker University, Austin, living in the Kansas City area at the time, made plans along with husband Adrian and daughter Tess to relocate.

"During a visit with my adult son, we decided Holton would be a great place to raise Tess," she said. "Also, our parents live in Topeka, so we could be close to them."

The Austins moved to Holton about six years ago, and since then, she's been active in church activities and has helped coach softball.

"When I'm not busy with

my daughter's activities," she said, "I can be found buried in a book, talking about a book or suggesting a book via social media."

Austin noted that the changing of the guard at Beck-Bookman comes at an important time in the library's history, adding that she has ideas she'd like to pursue for the construction of an addition to the library.

"I have some fund-raising plans to cultivate to get the addition built," she said. "I'd also like to see some workshops put into place for our community."

For now, she said, she hopes to pass her enthusiasm for her new job and everything the library has to offer on to future generations.

"Being able to lead by example for my daughter and granddaughter while they are growing up is very important to me," Austin said. "I am also excited to be a part of this community in such a big way, nurturing the seeds that have been planted for growth in our library while preserving its history."

Documentary to be shown on reservation

MAYETTA – A billion-dollar class action lawsuit is the subject of the documentary "100 Years," which will be shown on the Prairie Band Potawatomi Reservation on Monday.

In the film, Elouise Cobell, a modern-day hero, takes on the U.S. government in the largest class action lawsuit ever battled.

"100 Years" was produced and directed by Melinda Janko, who will screen the documentary on Monday, Sept. 10, at the Prairie Band Casino & Resort Convention Center in Mayetta. Screenings are being held at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation invites the public to attend the free screenings and meet with Janko for a question and answer session following each screening.

After 15 years in the courts, more than a century of gross mismanagement of mineral-rich Indian lands is brought to justice by a petite Blackfeet Indian, Elouise Cobell.

The massive lawsuit filed against the Departments of the Interior and Treasury, with intense resistance from two presidential administrations, finally led to a victorious $3.4 billion settlement for 300,000 beneficiaries of the Indian Trust Fund. It is the largest settlement award in U.S. history, it was reported.

For 30 years, Cobell, the lead plaintiff, tirelessly pressed the U.S. government to account for funds owed to Native Americans. After all attempts failed, she said, "Enough is enough," and filed a massive lawsuit.

No one believed she could win. Cobell's unrelenting fight for justice causes many to consider her a new generation's Rosa Parks.

Director Janko was moved by Elouise Cobell's hard-fought battle to right a historic wrong.

"She never, ever quit, despite the massive obstacles created by the U.S. government," Janko said. Cobell trusted Janko in telling her story to the world in order to give a voice to all indigenous people.

Janko is the head of independent production company Fire In The Belly Productions, Inc. based in Southern California. Fire In The Belly Productions, Inc. specializes in creating documentary films that seek to entertain and enlighten the public on a variety of issues. Its name symbolizes passion and commitment with the common goal of "making films that make a difference."

Officers directed traffic at the intersection of U.S. Highway 75 and Kansas Highway 16 in Holton as a runaway bull prepared to cross the street. The bull escaped its owner's trailer by jumping over the stock racks at about 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 1. The incident kept local law officials busy for more than an hour. No injuries were reported.

PBP pow wow's grand entry very impressive, as always

Traveling home from the Prairie Band Potawatomi 2018 Pow Wow on Saturday evening, driving past the buffalo herd visible along 150th Road on the reservation, I made plans to send photos and video from the pow wow activities that I had just attended to friends and relatives.

That's not something I normally do after a newspaper-related assignment, but that's how impressed I was with the pow wow grand entry ceremony that evening featuring drum music by the Northern Cree group from Canada and the spectacularly-colorful regalia of all the dance contest participants in all age groups.

I sent photos and video of the pow wow to friends and relatives because I knew they would be just as impressed as I was.

Like a lot of things in our daily lives, we sometimes take our close proximity and close relationship with the PBP Nation for granted.

Events like the pow wow, however, remind us how very fortunate we are in northeast Kansas to be able to observe, share and participate in the proud culture of the PBP, Sac & Fox and Kickapoo Nations at events like the pow wows.

Prior to the grand entry ceremony, I photographed some of the dancers getting ready. In many cases, grandparents were helping their grandchildren put on their colorful and culturally-significant dance costumes.

Rarely have I seen more brightly-colored costumes than I saw at Saturday evening's grand entry. Congratulations to all those responsible for the success of this year's PBP pow wow.

Go to holtonrecorder.net to see a short video from the pow wow. David Powls

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear editor,
Other than the 40 Republicans referenced in a political ad who believe that Paul Davis, Second U.S. Congressional district candidate, is an honorable, capable individual, Republicans represented by the superpacs seem to be ignorant lemmings who follow the current U.S. president in believing that an individual — Democrat or other — cannot think or vote for himself nor be consistent to his word.

Some Republicans are now flipping to support a congressional candidate that they deemed "unfit for the nomination" prior to the Aug. 7 primary, according to the Topeka newspaper. What are his and their standards?

Paul Davis has clearly stated his lack of support for Nancy Pelosi, as he desires to work in Congress for Kansans, contrasting our elected D.C. officials, Sens. Roberts and Moran and Rep. Jenkins, who continue to support "pure" Republican positions, including eliminating immigration, reducing Medicare and aid, widening taxation fairness, jeopardizing Social Security, underfunding and endangering our public schools, destroying natural parks/resources, bullying and disregarding human rights based on ethnicity, gender, and choices allowed by law, as they cower to Trump's intimidating, egotistical powers.

Due to his moral character and his experiences in law and representing Kansans with common-sense solutions, Davis has garnered the support of diverse, bipartisan voters; he will do the same in Washington. He has voted more than two times in his life, unlike his opponent — if Watkins bothered to vote in this year's primary.

Also, Davis has not had his superpac father buy his win in any election. Davis's 91-percent Democratic Kansas House record is better than Watkins' failure to preserve our democracy by not participating in the election process at all for years.

I would rather have a Congress member who uses his brain and logic than one who sports a gun, his loyalty to Trump and the far right's ideology as his chief attributes. Vote Paul Davis for U.S. Congress, District 2.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear editor,
I believe you are right. What a disgrace in voter turnout. What happened?

I could have sworn that I saw ads and signs and heard speeches, etc., only to have less than 3,000 of the 9,000 registered voters in the county actually vote.

What happened, voters? Would you have voted for impeachment?

I studied American history in high school. We were told to read, listen, ponder and re-read before voting. We were given the task to find a few laws or amendments that many voters don't know.

Guess what? I found one that passed. A war-time president can serve and not leave his job if he chooses.

Welcome to dictatorship. No thank you!

Remember to vote or you will be giving up your rights!

Wildcats edged by Jeff West 14-12 in football home opener

By David Powls
In a hard-fought Big Seven League football game here last Friday, the Jeff West Tigers edged the Holton Wildcats.

"I thought we played hard for the most part," head coach Brooks Barta said afterwards. "I liked the way we finished the game. That is a real step forward for this group. We have to overcome a few bad breaks and mistakes."

The Wildcats were on offense to start the game and were forced to punt from their own 28-yard line on fourth down. Jeff West, on its first offensive possession, had a 25-yard run by quarterback Caden Ross but ultimately had to punt the football back to Holton.

The Wildcats picked up a first down on their second offensive series and at the end of the first quarter of play there was no score. Holton had the ball for 11 minutes of the first quarter but their biggest run was a six-yarder by quarterback Zane Moylan who shared the position with teammate Parker Gilliland.

The Wildcats picked up their second first down of the game, gambling on a fourth down and five yards to go situation, with Moylan running the ball to keep the drive going.

Both teams were called for five-yard offside penalties and on a fourth down and two yards to go situation, at the Jeff West five-yard line, the visiting Tigers held the line and regained control of the ball.

From there, the Tigers completed a 12-yard pass to get a first down. A two-yard run, an incomplete pass and then another incomplete pass later put the Tigers in the fourth down and eight yards to go situation.

With 7:25 left in the second quarter, the Tigers punted to the Wildcats and the home team took over possession of the ball on their own 42-yard line.

The Wildcats then picked up two first downs, moving the ball to the Tigers' 19-yard line with 4:21 left in the quarter.

A six-yard run by Gilliland took the ball to the Tigers' nine-yard line and on fourth down and inches with 2:55 left, Gilliland carried the ball again but the Wildcats were called for holding, setting up a fourth down and 11 yards to go situation.

With 2:40 left, Moylan completed a pass to Richard Aguirre moving the ball to the Jeff-West three-yard line and giving the Wildcats another first down.

On the next play, Konnor Tannahill scored a touchdown on a three-yard line. The Wildcats went for two-points on the conversion and failed, leaving the score 6-0 in their favor.

The scoring drive went 11 plays and 63 yards in eight minutes.

The Tigers, at that point in the game, had only run eight offensive plays.

Starting at their own 42-yard line, the Tigers completed a 20-yard pass to Zeth Unruh and then gained nine more yards on a screen pass to Joseph Anderson.

An offside penalty on Holton gave Jeff West another first down at the Wildcats' 22-yard line with 1:19 still on the clock.

Holton sacked the Jeff West QB on the next play, backing the Tigers up eight yards and then allowed a six-yard gain, bringing up a third down and 12 yards to go situation.

With 35 seconds left, the Tigers faked a dive play and then passed to Unruh for a 26-yard TD strike. Joshua Broxterman kicked the PAT for the Tigers and at halftime the visitors led 7-6 in what was shaping up to be a real defensive battle.

First half stats had Holton with 106 yards rushing on 36 plays, 14 passing yards, three penalties for 20 yards and a dominant time-of-possession advantage.

The Tigers had 14 yards rushing in the first half on six carries and 60 passing yards, all on just three offensive possessions.

"I thought our defense played well, however we made some mistakes on some things that we had worked pretty hard on last week," coach Barta said. "We have to be much better at the little things. This group has to improve its regard to detail."

To start the second half, both teams were forced to punt on their first three offensive possessions. The Tigers blocked the Wildcats' third punt and recovered it on the Holton seven-yard line with 2:53 left in the third quarter.

An errant snap of the ball sailing over the JW quarterback's head, however, moved the ball backwards to the Holton 30-yard line. On fourth down and goal at the Holton 30, the Tigers completed a 26-yard pass but it was not enough for a first down and the Wildcats got the ball back as the third quarter ended. Holton had one first down in the third quarter and JW had two.

The Wildcats handed the ball to the visitors inside their own 10-yard line for the second time of the game when a Holton runner fumbled on third down and the Tigers recovered it at the Wildcat eight-yard line.

On second down and five yards to go, the Tigers scored a

TD on a shovel pass to Anderson but the TD was nullified due to an offside penalty on the Tigers.

The Tigers then tried three pass plays from the Holton 10-yard line and could not complete any of them against the stubborn Holton defense. With 9:58 left in the third quarter, Holton regained possession of the ball.

The Wildcats picked up one first down before having to punt with 7:54 left to play. The Tigers then picked up a first down of their own, moving the ball to the Holton 30. From there, the Tigers completed a 29-yard pass to Anderson. On first and goal from the one-yard line, the Tigers punched it in for their second TD of the game and Broxterman kicked the PAT to bring the score to 14-6 with 5:46 left to play.

Holton started their next drive from their own 12-yard line. On third down and 18, Moylan completed a 17-yard pass to Aguirre and on fourth and one Kolby Roush gained four yards for the first down with 4:33 left.

An 11-yard run by Trey Wright gave Holton a first down with 3:30 left.

Three plays later, facing a third down and 19 situation, Moylan completed a 32-yard pass to Jayger Carson, moving the ball to the JW 28.

Carson picked up a five-yard gain and then Holton threw an incomplete pass. On third and five, Moylan gained 10 yards to the JW 19. On a third and three, with 46.6 seconds left, Tannahill picked up two yards. And on fourth and one, Moylan completed a TD pass to Roush out in the flat. The two-point conversion attempt was no good and with 20 seconds left to play Holton's inside kick attempt was unsuccessful and the Tigers ran out the rest of the game clock.

Unofficially, Holton rushed 69 times for 185 and completed 5 of 10 passes for 76 yards and had three penalties for 20 yards.

Jeff West completed 9 of 24 passes for 166 yards and had less than 10 yards overall rushing.

"It is hard to imagine we would lose after running 80 offensive plays," Barta said. "We need to break more big plays by finishing blocks and breaking a tackle now and again. We also need to improve our backfield speed of execution."

This Friday, the Wildcats play at league foe Perry-Lecompton, a 68-0 winner over Royal Valley last Friday.

"We will have to play with leverage in space (against Perry)," Barta said. "They have a lot of speed. We will also be challenged by their inside run game. Offensively, it is about improving us."

Lady Wildcats beat Cyclones, fall to Jeff West Lady Tigers

By Ali Holcomb
The Holton High School volleyball team started its season 1-1 last Thursday in the Big Seven League with a win against Riverside after falling to Jefferson West in a triangular in Wathena.

In the first match, the Lady Wildcats lost in two straight sets, 26-24 and 25-21, against the Lady Tigers.

"We've played together all summer so I was surprised that we came out so rusty," said Holton head coach Janelle Noel. "We didn't look like ourselves. In the first set, we had six net errors and some missed serves. There was probably 10 points we just gave them."

Coach Noel said once Jeff West had the momentum, they were hard to stop.

"We let them control the game," she said.

In their second match, the Wildcats played Riverside and took the first set 25-18.

"It was a rough win," Noel said. "We were still trying to get out all the kinks."

Holton won the match by winning the next set 25-12.

This year, Big Seven League teams are hosting triangulars, as opposed to double duals where teams would play each other twice in one evening.

"Since we no longer have second chances with these teams that night, we can't let one opponent dictate the next game," Coach Noel said. "It's just about being ready right from the beginning."

The varsity Wildcats play in a Riley County tournament on Saturday, Sept. 8, while the JV team will host a tournament here that day. The freshmen team will play at a tournament at Marysville Saturday. All tournaments begin at 9 a.m.

Scoring Varsity:

Jeff West def. Riverside: 25-11 and 25-17.

Jeff West def. Holton: 26-24 and 25-21.

Holton def. Riverside: 25-18 and 25-12.

Panthers look to improve in week two at Jeff West

The Royal Valley Panthers football team is regrouping in preparation for this Friday night's game at Meriden versus Big Seven League foe Jeff-West, after a 68-0 loss to another league foe, Perry-Lecompton, last Friday in their first game of the season.

"We have a lot to improve upon in week two," said head coach Jake Lott said. "We have to get better in protecting the football and executing plays on offense. We didn't help our defense out at all on Friday night with six turnovers and a majority of them inside our own 20-yard line."

The Kaws took a 7-0 lead after the first quarter and then punted 41 points on the scoreboard in the second quarter to lead 48-0 at halftime.

In the second half, the Panthers were outscored 20-0.

"Special teams have got to be better, also," coach Lott said, "as we gave up a punt return touchdown and a punt block. Improvement can happen this week if we increase our effort and attention to detail."

The Panthers rushed for 150 yards in the game and passed for 38, netting 188 yards in total offense. The six turnovers by the team included five lost fumbles.

Meanwhile, Perry-Lecompton had 250 yards rushing and 70 yards passing, coach Lott reported, for 320 yards of total offense.

This Friday, the Panthers face a Tiger team that edged Holton last Friday, 14-12.

"Jeff West will be a very good team that is athletic and physical," Lott said. "We have to be able to give ourselves a chance in the ball game by not shooting ourselves in the foot. If we can execute plays, and play with effort, then we will be just fine as the season moves along."

Nemaha Central def. RV: 25-14 and 25-7.

Nemaha Central def. Hiawatha: 25-4 and 25-5.

First cross country meet in the books for several schools

By Michael Powls

The first varsity high school cross country meet of the season for Holton, Royal Valley, ACCHS and Wetmore was held on Thursday, Aug. 30 at the Shawnee North Community Center in north Topeka where the Jeff West Tigers hold their home meet every year.

HHS head coach Darin Stous said unofficial results for the cross country meet have been released.

"These are the results from last week. They had trouble and a few of our races and other teams didn't get registered after the race concluded," coach Stous said. "It doesn't look like we will know for sure where they finished or times, but this is what was sent out."

Brandon Giltner, assistant high school principal and athletic director at Jeff West said afterwards that "apparently there were some issues with the scanning of bar codes as kids were going through the chute. There were about 30 boys that did not get placed."

Here's the results as reported. The winners of the varsity races are listed along with the top three placers from area schools and their times. The top 40 runners in each division were medaled.

In the high school varsity girls race, there were 87 runners. Abigail Zitter from Christ Prep Academy took first place with a time of 20:03.

For the ACCHS Lady Tigers, Victoria Caplinger took 12th place with a time of 22:48, Madison Appel took 30th place with a time of 25:31 and Ashton Appel took 32nd place with a time of 25:33.

For the Holton Lady Wildcats, Hannah Ent took 13th place with a time of 22:49, Paige Paxton took 33rd place with a time of 25:33 and Taygen Altenburg took 38th place with a time of 26:44.

For the Royal Valley Lady Panthers, Chloe Richter took 24th place with a time of 24:28, Lilly Cannon took 35th place with a time of 25:50 and Emily Albright took 46th place with a time of 27:53.

For the Wetmore Lady Cardinals, Clairissa Bottom took 56th place with a time of 28:44.

For the high school girls team scores, Sabetha took first place with 47 points, Christ Prep Academy took second place with 54 points, Hiawatha took third place with 57 points, Perry-Lecompton took fourth place with 91 points, Holton took fifth place with 129 points, Royal Valley took sixth place with 153 points and McLouth took seventh place with 179 points.

In the varsity high school boys race, there were 120 runners. Justin Hodge from Hiawatha took first place with a time of 17:27.

For the Royal Valley Panthers, Nue Tinajero took ninth place with a time of 18:33, Calvin Ogden took 43rd place with a time of 20:30 and Holden Mundy took 48th place with a time of 21:00.

For the Holton Wildcats, Reec Robinson took 22nd place with a time of 19:27, Wyatt Marriott took 44th place with a time of 20:31 and Marquez Conley took 53rd place with a time of 21:12.

For the Wetmore Cardinals, Jonathan Hladky-Bailey took 36th place with a time of 20:01, Austin Smith took 63rd place with a time of 21:31 and Colby Hanzlicek took 80th place with a time of 22:20.

For the ACCHS Tigers, Marcus Hetherington took 57th place with a time of 21:16 and Mason Hawk took 58th place with a time of 21:17.

For the high school boys team scores, Hiawatha took first place with 40 points, Perry-Lecompton took second place with 82 points, Christ Prep Academy took third place with 84 points, Sabetha took fourth place with 86 points, McLouth took fifth place with 150 points, Northern Heights took sixth place with 173 points, Valley Falls took seventh place with 189 points, Royal Valley took eighth place with 212 points, KC East took ninth place with 214 points, Holton took 10th place with 230 points and Jeff West took 11th place with 292 points.

"Overall, it was nice to get out and run against other teams," said coach Stous. "On the boys race, we were down three runners who have varsity experience due to injury and illness. We look to have everyone back for our home meet this week. The boys competed well and spread themselves out throughout the race. We started a bit slow possibly due to the amount of runners but we were able to find our pace. The girls worked well together and improved the goals they had set forth before the first meet. As a whole, we have work to do to get better as a team and as individuals."

The Holton Wildcats will be back in action this Thursday for their home meet, which will include competitors from Royal Valley, Jackson Heights, ACCHS and Wetmore.

JH Cobras win first football game, 42-0, over Horton

By Brian Sanders

Jackson Heights High School's varsity football team opened up its 2018 season with a 42-0 road win over Horton, but Cobra Head Coach Caleb Wick said the game was much tougher than the game's final score showed.

"This win was not indicative of the final score," Coach Wick said of last Friday's Northeast Kansas League game between the Cobras and the Chargers. "We didn't have a lot of big touchdown runs, even though we ran 73 rushing plays for more than 500 yards."

Led by 151 rushing yards from junior Cooper Williams and three short TD runs from senior Kolby Rethman, who racked up a total of 144 rushing yards, the Cobras made enough of an impact in the first three quarters that Wick was able to let the junior varsity team hit the field in the fourth.

The Cobras got off to a slow start in the first quarter, with the first score of the year coming from a three-yard TD run from senior Conlan Bruggeman with little more than two minutes to go in the first quarter.

In the second frame, however, the Cobras struck three times, first on a 30-yard run from Williams in the first play of the quarter, then on a pair of two-yard TD runs from Rethman to crank up the score to 26-0 at halftime.

Rethman added his third TD of the night, a run from seven yards out, about halfway through the third quarter, and with seconds to go in that frame, sophomore Dylan Thompson posted six on a two-yard run. Both third-quarter TDs were accompanied by successful two-point conversions from Williams and freshman Grant Amon, respectively, to bring the score to 42-0 going into the fourth.

That last quarter, Wick said, was a back-and-forth battle with neither team capitalizing on any scoring opportunities, but it did give the JV Cobras a chance to show what they could do.

For the Cobras, junior quarterback Cable Wareham went 1-2 in the air attack for 13 yards. But Heights was more successful on the ground, running 503 yards and picking up 25 first downs.

Defensively, Wick said it was truly a team effort that held

Horton scoreless on the night. "It's kind of hard to pick out one man on defense," he said. "Our guys were able to hold Horton to nine plays in the whole first half."

The Cobras will have their first home game of 2018 this Friday against new NEK League member Atchison County, which beat Oskaloosa 46-0 this past Friday to pick up their first win in more than two seasons.

"First of all, I have to congratulate the Tigers, getting the win after 19 losses in a row," Wick said of ACCHS. "They've been playing Big Seven League teams for so long. But we're going to do our best to be ready for them."

Scoring - Jackson Heights 6-20-16-0=42. Horton 0-0-0-0=0.

Lady Cobras beat Ravens, fall to Oskaloosa Bears

By Brian Sanders

The first of two trips to Atchison's Maur Hill-Mount Academy High School this week for the Jackson Heights High School Cobra volleyball teams ended in a split, with the Cobras taking the hosting Ravens in straight sets but losing a tough three-set match to Oskaloosa on Tuesday.

Tuesday's games left the Lady Cobras with an overall 3-3 record, but head coach Denise Visovsky said she is still proud of the team for its efforts.

"We came out and refocused from last week, and we started to do the things we knew we were capable of doing," coach Visovsky said.

The Cobras started the evening with a straight-set win over MH-MA, 25-13 and 25-17, with Visovsky attributing the win to her team being able to capitalize on mistakes that the Ravens were making on the court. Key players in the match were sophomores Sarah Marshall and Amaya Marlatt.

"Sarah played really well out of the middle," Visovsky said. "Amaya also played really well and backed us up."

In the nightcap with the Oskaloosa Bears, the Cobras won the first set of the match 25-18 but fell behind in the second set to finish 21-25, forcing a third set that Visovsky said featured

"a battle back and forth" that nevertheless ended in a 28-26 win for the Bears.

"We just weren't able to push through," she said. "We made some silly mistakes that cost us in the end, so we're going to have to regroup and start focusing more on those three-game sets."

Visovsky cited Marshall again as a key player in the Oskaloosa match, along with junior Kylie Dohl.

The Cobras will now prepare for their second trip to MH-MA this week, set for Thursday, where they will go up against the Ravens, the Atchison Redmen and the Doniphan West Mustangs.

"We've just got to be finishing sets at the end, instead of making silly mistakes," Visovsky said of the team's efforts to prepare for Thursday. "We've got to play to win, instead of finishing a little scared, which is what I think happened with Oskaloosa."

Circleville news

By Jeannie Arnold

Ralph Vanderkolk traveled to Michigan from Aug. 16-26. He attended his annual school reunion. There were about 65 people that showed up, and for a couple, it was their first time. He also helped his sister-in-law go through a lot of his brother's things, helping her have some idea of what they are worth. He drove each way in a good downpour for a number of miles. Everything was nice and green from the middle of Missouri and their crops look good.

Kenny Wykert visited his brother, Bob Wykert, in Topeka on Thursday, Aug. 30. They enjoyed having lunch together.

Roy and Beverly Kranz spent the afternoon on Saturday, Sept. 1, at the home of Brock and Shawna Blackwood in Hoyt. They celebrated the birthdays of Brandon and Jessica DeVader and of one-year-old Lincoln DeVader. Other activities were swimming and fishing. They had a very good meal followed by cupcakes and gifts. Others attending were Deb and John Kennedy, Brooke Johnson with her children, Brynley and Tate, and Paul Wilcox.

Doug Hutchinson spent some time with Dennis and Barbara Hutchinson over the Labor Day weekend. On Sunday evening, he prepared a delicious salmon supper for them that they all enjoyed.

Circleville Christian

By Jeannie Arnold

Carol Fenton served as greeter at the door for the cowboy/traditional service at Circleville Christian Church on Sept. 2. Brody Bliss gave the welcome to the congregation. Music was provided by the praise team of David Allen, Johnny Lynch, Shelly Will and Paul and Sue Davault.

Blair Wagner gave the communion meditation and prayer. Communion servers were Donald Askren, Mike Cochren, Jeremy Kennedy and John Ray. David Allen gave the prayer for the offering. Kay Hallauer provided the lovely piano music as communion was served and the offering received.

Brody Bliss used text from Ecclesiastes 8:2-17 as he gave the morning sermon titled "The Principles Of Submission." His message reflected on the submission to authority, how to submit and when to submit.

Submission to earthly authority has boundaries. Inequities will continue until the return of Christ. The presence of life's injustices does not mean that God lacks control. There is a lot of bad in this life, but there are also a lot of blessings. We just need to trust that God is in control and submit to His teachings.

At the close of the service, the congregation was blessed to witness the baptism on Micah Moore. Congratulations to Micah on her decision and commitment to follow Christ.

Honor Flight...

in previous Jackson Heights Honor Flights hadn't seen but considered "a nice touch," it was noted.

As on previous Honor Flights, participants were taken by charter bus to the World War II Memorial near the National Mall, situated between the U.S. Capitol and the Lincoln Memorial.

Veterans and guardians alike said they enjoyed visiting the monuments, but could have done without the heat and humidity that day in Washington, which was under a heat advisory that day.

"It could have been a little nicer," Wessel said. "Maybe about 10 degrees cooler."

Others waved off the heat, however.

"It could have been worse," Schumann said. "It could have been raining and blowing."

After their visit and a group photo at the World War II Memorial, veterans and guardians made their way around the area where the Lincoln Memorial and the memorials for the Korean and Vietnam wars were located for about an hour, while others retreated to the charter bus to beat the heat.

"I didn't care so much for the heat, or not having as much time to look at more stuff, just because it's all so fascinating," said JHHS senior and guardian Faith Little.

Following a quick stop at the Marine Corps War Memorial — a monument depicting the planting of the U.S. flag at Iwo Jima — the group then observed the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery before taking the bus back to BWI.

That trip back to the airport, preceded by a stop for dinner, marked another first for the JHHS Honor Flight crew — an escort from the United States Park Police that cleared traffic along the crowded highway corridor from Arlington to Baltimore.

"That police escort getting out of town — that was super awesome," Schumann said.

Schumann's brother-in-law, Larry Beam, a former Netawaka resident now living in Topeka and an Army veteran of the Vietnam War, agreed that the police escort was a highlight.

"I think we'd probably still be at Arlington right now without it," Beam joked after the group arrived at BWI for the return trip to Kansas City.

The trip was a memorable experience for all involved, whether they considered the memorials, the heat, the police escort or the camaraderie — the latter a surprising element for some veterans.

"I saw a lot of people I didn't realize were in the service," Wessel said. "I knew these guys most all my life, but I'm surprised at how many people I knew on this flight."

For some student guardians, the learning experience made the trip an event to remember.

"I enjoyed how you could walk around and experience everything individually with your veteran, and they could tell you stuff at certain memorials about what they did," said JHHS sophomore Jodi White, who served as a guardian for Bradshaw.

And for those who remembered the negative reception they'd gotten after coming home from Vietnam, the best part was arriving at BWI and the response that, as some of them noted, canceled out that negative reception.

"The best thing about it was feeling appreciated," Bradshaw said. "It was nice to get off the plane and receive a welcome like that."

Jeff Caldwell

Caldwell...

If elected, he said he will also pardon all non-violent marijuana offenders, which he said will save the state $20 million.

Caldwell said he fully supports the second amendment to allow Kansans the right to keep and bear arms.

If elected, he said he'd bring unity to the state because many of the issues he wants to address, such as eliminating the sales tax on food and water and abolishing civil asset forfeiture, are bi-partisan issues.

"Kansas ranks in the top five percent of tax collected on food and water in the United States," he said. "It hurts everybody, and it's a very regressive tax. It needs to be abolished."

Caldwell said he is in favor of lowering private property taxes.

"The housing boom right now is tremendously affecting Kansans' pocketbooks when they have to pay property taxes every year," he said. "It's a local issue, and power to change the mill levy needs to be given back to city and county officials so the state isn't holding them back."

In 2016, the state passed a tax lid that doesn't allow county and city officials to levy property tax dollars beyond the rate of inflation without voter approval.

"The state has too much power," he said. "I believe in local government. I would like to see the state government out of as many city issues as possible."

Caldwell said he sees the need to cut regulations placed on farmers and ranchers, too.

"Tariffs are really hurting our farmers, and it's going to start affecting our economy in a year or two," he said.

If elected, Caldwell said he wants to enact the 10th amendment in order to bring all Kansas National Guard service members currently overseas back home.

"The governor is supposed to have complete control over the National Guard, but in World War I, the federal government passed legislation giving dual power to the president and the governor," he said. "I believe we need to return the power back to the governor and allow the servicemen and women to volunteer to serve overseas if they choose to instead of having the president dictate to the governor."

Caldwell wants to eliminate "cronyism and pork barrel spending," which includes corporate bailouts and "kickbacks" for pushing certain bills through.

"I will also issue an executive order that prevents the state of Kansas from discriminating against the LGBTQ community," he said. "I don't believe the government should have the power to dictate to anyone how to live their life."

County Budget...

During the hearing on the budget, county resident Gale Liggatt expressed his concern with the taxes on his property, including ag land values, increasing.

"I look in The Holton Recorder, and there's page after page of delinquent taxes," Liggatt said. "It's driving people out of business. We're struggling."

The commissioners clarified to Liggatt that it's the state division of property valuation that sets agricultural land values annually and not the county.

"We have no control over what land is valued," Commissioner Bill Elmer said. "I own land so I know what you're going through."

Commissioner Janet Zwonitzer said that legislation needs to be passed at the state level to provide relief on land values, and they have tried to make local lawmakers Sen. Dennis Pyle and Reps. Francis Awerkamp and Randy Garber understand.

The appraised value of agricultural land is based on the productive potential directly attributed to the natural capabilities of the land, not the fair market value, it was reported.

The lack of industry in the county and numerous properties in tribal trust and off the tax roll also affect the county's budget, the commissioners said.

"You guys control the mill levy so you have some control over the taxes," Liggatt said.

Zwonitzer said the commissioners and others in the community are looking at ways to grow economic development.

"We have a very bare bones budget," Zwonitzer said.

Total maximum expenditures in the budget total $14,420,640, which includes $6,398,799 for the general fund, $3,569,651 for the road and bridge department and $2,608,498 for the sheriff's office.

The county has no outstanding debt, it was reported.

The Power is in Our Hands

Suicide takes tens of thousands of lives each year, and affects thousands more who are left behind. Oftentimes, the stigma surrounding suicide prevents people from talking about it and seeking the help they need to survive and recover. That's why suicide prevention starts with each of us. Participating in awareness activities, volunteering or reaching out to somebody who you think may be depressed are all ways you can help during Suicide Prevention Day and every day.

On September 10th Light a Candle near a Window at 8 p.m. to show your support for Suicide Prevention, to remember a lost loved one, and for the survivors of suicide.

Potawatomi United Methodist

By Ilene Dick

Sunday, Sept. 2, was a rainy day, and the drought is thankfully improving. Showers are being predicted throughout the coming week. Although we are being blessed with moisture, prayers are with people in other areas having floods and other disasters caused by weather.

Pastor Howard opened the service at Potawatomi United Methodist Church with scripture and prayer followed by announcements, joys and concerns. It was announced that the Sing-Spiration will be performing at Hoyt Baptist Church on Oct. 21.

Potawatomi UMC will be celebrating its 100 years from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Oct. 20 with a potato bar and music by the Classic Country Band.

It was a joy to have Loretta Roush and her friend, Kelly, and Kolby Roush and his friend, Emma, present for worship. Added to the prayer list were Lily Hall's sister, who is suffering from liver cancer, and Marilee Bernart Shenk's mother-in-law from France, who is quite ill. Marilee and Lionel have flown to France for a few days to be with his mother.

Acolyte for the service was Lily Hall. Tina Pugh provided the music. Hymns were "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," "Fill My Cup Lord" and "My Faith Looks Up To Thee." Leon Daugherty gave the special, sharing a prayer from Dr.

Charles Stanley. The birthday song was sung to Jim Meeks and Kolby Roush's friend, Emma. Offertory ushers were Jim Meeks and Jim Shenk.

Pastor Howard's message was titled "Raised To New Heights," with the text coming from Acts 1:11. Luke says that the disciples were eye witnesses to all that happened to Jesus Christ — His life before crucifixion and the 40 days after the resurrection as he taught them more about the kingdom of God.

God knows the plans He has for us, and He will see us through our journey.

Pastor Howard served Holy Communion, assisted by Betty Bowser.

Marjean Shenk enjoyed a girl's day out in Sabetha with her two sisters. Jim and Marjean attended McKenzie's first volleyball game of the season. They are pleased that McKenzie has improved so much.

Jim and LeAnna Meeks visited Ann Wilkening and the Rev. Floyd Nolin in Topeka one day last week. They enjoyed each of their visits.

Jin and LeAnna's granddaughter, Kassy Meeks, in her freshman year achieved an Academic Award, one of three freshmen and one upperclassman, at Illinois University. The Meeks' children treated Jim and LeAnna to an 80th birthday for Jim in Topeka last week.

Pam and Leon Daugherty attended the Holton football game on Friday, Aug. 31, to watch their grandson, Kolby Roush, play football, and also to watch Konnor Tannahill play. Holton lost the game, but the boys played a good game. Martha Roush also attended the game to see her great-grandson, Kolby Roush, play.

All of the Warren Pugh children and their families helped celebrate Warren's 69th birthday on Sunday, Sept. 2, with a family dinner at the Warren Pugh home. Tina's brother, Rodney Heinsohn, and Nadine Reifschneider also attended.

Earline Pugh is enjoying her beautiful flowers in the yard, and also the numerous hummingbirds that visit all day long.

Immanuel Lutheran

By Esther L. Ideker

The 15th Sunday after Pentecost worship service at Immanuel Lutheran Church on Sept. 2 followed Divine Service 3 with Holy Communion. "Happy Birthday" was sung for Inga Klahr's birthday.

The opening hymn was "Father, We Praise Thee." Psalm 119:129-136 was read responsively. Elder Topher Dohl read the Old Testament lesson from Deuteronomy chapter 4 and the Epistle reading from Ephesians 6. The Rev. Michael Van Velzer read the Holy Gospel from Mark 7:14-23. The congregation professed the Nicene Creed. The sermon hymn was the first four verses of "Abide, O Dearest Jesus."

Pastor Van Velzer's sermon based on the gospel lesson was entitled "God's Way To Be Ready." It is easy to skip over God's instruction trusting in past encounters with God. However, the Lord wants us to daily be prepared so that we can stand against the devil and his cunning.

God has seen first-hand how His people, His own creation, have skipped His only plan of salvation, simply so they can do their own thing. There are people risking eternal life by rejecting Jesus.

In fact, we have all followed our own list of do's and don'ts; rights and wrongs over and above God's own word because of our foolish way of thinking.

This is all the more reason why our Lord speaks to us through St. Paul and warns us to put on the full armor of God. He wants to make it quite clear that we Christians are in for one heavy battle.

First, we are to stand firm with the belt of truth. When you wear this belt of truth, God's word can remind you of the Father's love for you and that that love is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Next we have the breastplate - one of righteousness - pointing out that we are holy in God's sight. Your feet are to be fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. The helmet of salvation restores you to the promises of eternal life won for you.

And the last piece is the sword of the spirit. With God's word, we will stand, for we can do no other. It is safe to say that when the Lord God Almighty offers us His armor for protection, we need it all. We are wise in Christ to know we should not take any shortcuts with God's word and that daily His armor should be upon us, so that in the end, we will continually be strengthened, and be ready for all attacks as we stand our ground. Be encouraged, therefore, to pray in the Spirit on all occasions, especially asking God to make sure His armor is upon us so we remain faithful to stay in God's holy word.

The offertory piece was "He Touched Me." Offering ushers were Tex Manuel II and Topher Dohl.

In the prayers of the church, remembered were those who are called to preach God's word, giving them grace to proclaim among us the whole counsel of Christ Jesus, raising up new workers for the harvest fields; for all those who bear public office in our land, giving them wisdom, courage and integrity; thanksgiving for the gift of work in our many callings; prosper the instruction of young people that they may grow to lead lives of faith and courage; for all servants who are passing through difficult times, making them strong in God and in the strength of His might; and arm us with the full armor of God to stand firm. The congregation joined in The Lord's Prayer.

Elders Topher Dohl and Tex Manuel assisted Pastor Van Velzer with the distribution of Holy Communion. "Your Table I Approach" was the distribution hymn. Following the Nunc Dimittis and benediction, the service closed with verses 4-6 of "Abide, O Dearest Jesus."

Those assisting with ministry were Topher Dohl, elder; Garrett Klahr, acolyte; Joyce Peterson, organist; and Deanna McAllister and Jackie Amon, altar committee.

Marcia Coufal led choir practice following the service. Adult Bible class met with Pastor Van Velzer.

Food pantry items gathered during the month will be taken to the Ministerial Alliance Food Pantry location.

Next Sunday, Sept. 9, the 125th Anniversary Committee will meet at noon at the church.

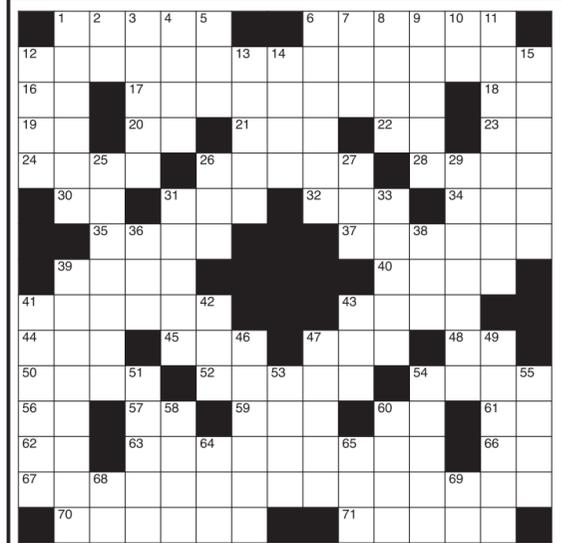

In order to promote awareness for responsible seat belt use, local State Farm agent Gus Suarez teamed up with the Kansas Department of Transportation and Safe Kids Kansas for "Bucks For Buckles" last week, plus Holton Rotary and the Holton High School SAFE Chapter. As part of the campaign, drivers around the Holton Square received a $1 if they were found wearing their seat belt. In the top photo, Holton Superintendent Bob Davies (left) received a dollar from HHS student Abigail Hundley. In the photo above, Austin Taylor (left) is shown with Holton Police Chief Gale Gakle, who also volunteered to hand out dollars during the event. Photos courtesy of Gus Suarez

Delinquent tax totals of other counties listed

Delinquent taxes in Jackson County in 2017 are up from the previous year, which is a similar story for some area counties as delinquent tax lists have been published in northeast Kansas newspapers, it was reported.

During the first week of publication in The Holton Recorder, the Jackson County delinquent tax list totaled $336,659.16, according to the Jackson County Treasurer's Office.

This amount is up $71,659.16 from the $265,000 listed last year. Two years ago, a total of $281,159 in back taxes was sought.

Other counties have published their delinquent tax lists in August, and in Jefferson County, the 2017 list included $1,062,449.96 in back taxes on 1,607 parcels, according to Lisa Buerman, county treasurer.

Last year, Buerman said the county sought $1,042,847.96 in taxes on 1,527 parcels.

In Nemaha County, the delinquent tax list recently printed included an estimated $150,000 on 228 tracts, it was reported, while Brown County's delinquent taxes totaled $361,214.17.

Shawnee County Treasurer Larry Mah reported that Shawnee County averages about 2.3 percent delinquency during the initial year and falls to about 1.3 percent by the following year after delinquent notices are sent.

Shawnee County currently has about $2.6 million in outstanding real estate and personal property taxes for 2016 and $5.2 million for 2017, which Mah said is "close to the historical norm."

Delinquent tax lists must be printed three consecutive weeks in the county's official newspaper, and as property owners pay their back taxes and penalty fees, their names are removed from the list.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS
 Presented by
Kanza Mental Health & Guidance Center

Kari Reeves, LMSW

ADHD LINKED WITH DEPRESSION
 "Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder" (ADHD), a brain disorder that can be diagnosed in children from 3-6 years of age, is characterized by an ongoing pattern of inattention and/or hyperactivity-impulsivity that interferes with functioning or development. The CDC reports that approximately 11% of American children aged 4-17 years live with ADHD, while the Anxiety and Depression Association of America (ADAA) estimates that 50% of children with ADHD in this country still have the condition as adults. It should be noted that people with ADHD are prone to have another type of anxiety or mental illness, such as depression, more than other individuals. Because the symptoms of ADHD and depression can be similar, it is important to get a correct diagnosis.
P.S. The use of medication for ADHD can make a diagnosis of depression more difficult.
 Whether you're dealing with ADHD or depression, you deserve help. Our counselors are here for you. We will work with you so that we can understand what you are dealing with. Then we will provide a safe space and proven techniques to help you feel healthier. If you're interested, please call our office for an appointment. available grant money. FEMA recommended purchasing a generator to use in the gym in case of emergencies. Dohrman spoke about the possibility of purchasing new cabinets and a fridge for the cafeteria with the remaining funds.

Dohrman said that Perry Electric sent a bill in the amount of $4,061 for installing gymnasium lights. FEMA will not pay the bill until the project is complete. Delia Pride has agreed to pay half of the bill and be reimbursed once the project is complete.

Robb moved to adjourn the meeting at 8:58 p.m. Meltz seconded, the motion carried and the meeting adjourned.
