By Ali Holcomb

Applications for the annual Jackson County Ministerial Alliance Christmas Store are now available for families, senior citizens and adults with disabilities who need extra help this Christmas.

Last year's store, which provides free gifts, food and essential items for qualified families and individuals, served 320 children and 76 seniors and disabled adults, according to Jennifer Ingels, event organizer.

The annual event will be held on Friday, Dec. 13, at the First Baptist Church, 404 Juniper Dr. in Holton.

Applications for the store are available at the First Baptist Church, the Holton Post Office, the Jackson County Health Department, the Jackson County Senior Citizens Center, the JCMA Food Pantry and NEK-CAP.

"Most locations will also have Spanish-language applications available," Ingels said.

People can also contact her to request an application by mail or email. Ingels can be reached by calling (785) 851-1011 or emailing heratjherringj@hotmail.com. Completed applications must be returned by Friday, Nov. 15, to the church or to Ingels at the post office.

Residents filling out a family application must also attach a copy of a proof of income eligibility, such as a current Women Infants and Children receipt or a current free or reduced school lunch form.

Seniors 65 and older and disabled adults seeking assistance will also need to complete a similar application, Ingels said. Besides a copy of their photo ID, individuals must also submit proof of income eligibility, such as Food Stamp verification, a bank statement or a Social Security monthly statement.

Once the applications have been received and processed, Ingels said participants will be notified of the time they've been assigned to "shop" the Christmas Store on Dec. 13.

Donations of food, essential items and toys are now being accepted for the event, and items can be dropped off at the church or the post office, it was reported.

New toys are needed for children age 18 and under, as well as gift cards for teenagers.

Canvas or fabric bags with handles filled with essential items are also needed. Bags should be packed with laundry soap and dryer sheets, shampoo and conditioner, bath soap, dish soap, deodorant, razors, liquid hand soap, a four-pack of toilet paper, Kleenex, toothbrushes, toothpaste, kitchen towels, paper towels and similar items.

After several years as the small engine repairman at Holton Farm and Home, Sam Schumaker has opened his own business, Sam's Equipment Sales and Service, north of Holton, where he continues to provide expert service on small engines, such as the chainsaw he was working on Friday morning.

Schumaker keeps engine repair biz going

By Brian Sanders

"I focus on service." Those are the words of Sam Schumaker, who recently opened Sam's Equipment Service and Sales north of Holton on U.S. Highway 75 after spending several years repairing small engines at Holton Farm and Home.

Schumaker, whose area of expertise is repairing small engines — lawnmowers, chainsaws and the like — said he has been interested in small engine repair ever since he was a kid.

"I worked with my dad on motorcycles and stuff at home," he said.

After graduating from Jackson Heights High School in 2001, Schumaker finished his training in small engine repair at the former Kaw Area Vocational Technical School in Topeka, now Washburn Tech, and went to work at Holton Farm and Home.

"I was at Farm and Home for basically the whole time," Schumaker said.

He developed a good reputation for small engine repair while at Farm and Home, he said. The store closed earlier this year after more than 40 years of business.

"It hit pretty quickly," Schumaker said of Farm and Home closing its doors. "I didn't have any idea that anything was going to happen, especially that fast."

Not wanting to waste any time, Schumaker began looking for somewhere else to ply his services. He didn't have to look for very long, as his friend Rick Arnold, owner of Arnold's Refrigeration, offered him a spot in his building north of Holton.

"I've known Rick for years," Schumaker said of Arnold. "I mowed for him, and he's always treated me good."

Schumaker said the opportunity to rent the space in Arnold's building fulfilled a long-time goal.

"I've always wanted to have my own shop, so I just kind of found a spot and went with it quickly," he said. "Plus, I figured it was a good location on the highway."

RVHS to host mental health education event

By Ali Holcomb

A special community education event on mental health issues will be held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 5, at Royal Valley High School in Hoyt.

USD 337 parents and patrons are invited to the Mental Health Matters event that evening, which will also include a free meal of chili and cinnamon rolls for the first 200 people who attend.

"This event will be geared towards high school and middle school students and their parents and guardians," said Ashley Wick, RVHS counselor.

"There is a stigma that our mental health doesn't matter, and if you have a mental health problem, something is wrong with you. However, that isn't the case at all and we want to end the stigma."

Starting at 6:30 p.m., students and parents will be able to attend various mental health sessions every 30 minutes until 8 p.m.

Presenters and their topics planned for Mental Health Matters include:

Wick said that the event is a collaborative effort with Heather Hundley, RVMS principal, Laura Douglas, RVMS Counselor, and Monique Litherland, RVHS Family And Consumer Sciences teacher, along with the RVHS FCCLA and Resist students.

Holton High School seniors Savanna Booth (left) and Aaran McAllister were named the school's homecoming queen and king for 2019, just prior to the kickoff of Friday night's football game between the Wildcats and Sabetha High School's Bluejays. The coronation capped a full week of activities for HHS students, including a parade around Holton's Town Square earlier in the day. The Wildcats lost the homecoming game, however; see today's sports pages for more information.

Kansas Honor Scholars named for 2019-20

By Brian Sanders

Twenty-five Jackson County-area high school seniors are among the more than 3,600 from across Kansas who will be honored for their academic excellence and achievement, The University of Kansas Alumni Association has reported.

The Kansas Honor Scholar Program, a long-standing tradition of the KU Alumni Association and KU Endowment, will honor the top 10 percent of the state's high school seniors from all 105 Kansas counties at 13 different ceremonies to be held across the state — a different manner from the regional programs previously held in Holton and elsewhere prior to the 2017-18 school year.

"KU now encourages students and families to attend any of the programs that fit their schedule," Holton High School Principal Rod Wittmer said of the format change. "Students RSVP to KU, not our local schools."

Of this year's 13 scheduled ceremonies, the three nearest to Jackson County are scheduled for tonight at Manhattan High School; Monday, Nov. 11 at Lied Center in Lawrence on the KU campus; and Tuesday, Nov. 12 at Washburn Rural High School in Topeka.

Jackson, Shawnee sheriff's officers cross-deputized

The Jackson County Sheriff's Office and the Shawnee County Sheriff's Office have teamed up in a collaborative effort to "solve crimes and catch criminals," Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse reported last week. Investigators and command staff from both counties have been cross-deputized. "Cross-deputization is common across the nation for law enforcement agencies to share resources and manpower," Sheriff Morse said. "I have desired for some time to enter into a such a cross-deputization program with Shawnee County." Sheriff Morse and Shawnee County Sheriff Brian Hill worked out the details for this program on a recent visit to Washington, D.C. together, it was reported. "Criminals and criminal activity don't necessarily stop at the county line," Morse said. "Since Shawnee County is more populated, it is the source of many of the suspects and fugitives being sought by Jackson County. Likewise, since Jackson County is a destination county, it is a location in which fugitives from Shawnee County can be found." Morse said that relationships between law enforcement agencies are essential in reducing crime and capturing criminals. "It is important for law enforcement to be able to use the resources it has been entrusted with to protect the public," he said. Morse and Hill said the program will benefit residents of both counties in various ways. Law enforcement personnel will continue to share intelligence information and work together against those that are trafficking narcotics between counties. Other crimes, such as burglaries and thefts, can be greatly reduced with agencies "partnering together and by simply doing good police work," Morse said. "There is no limit to what can be accomplished when the channels of cooperation between agencies are opened up," Sheriff Morse said. "We are dealing with many of the same criminals who are committing crimes in both counties."

Limited Civil Dispositions

Rural Health Resources of Jackson County vs. Randy Vaughan, sought judgment of $101 plus interest and court costs; dismissed.
 Community HealthCare System Inc. vs. Crystal M. Correll, sought judgment of $2,203.81

Members of the Whiting City Council listed

Correction

The names of the current Whiting city council members were incorrectly reported in a recent election profile in The Holton Recorder. The names obtained from the Kansas League of Municipalities had not been updated.

Current council members include Matt Watkins, Ashley Brown, Richard Archer, Larry Eubanks (who were all elected to the positions in 2017) and Sam Schumaker, who was appointed to the position. The current mayor is Loren Lind, who was also elected in 2017.

Robin McConnell is running for mayor and was the only candidate to officially file for the position. Kristin Watkins, Whiting city clerk, has reported that everyone on the current council, including the mayor, is running as write-in candidates in the Nov. 5 election. The Recorder apologizes for the error.

If you would like to join them, they will be meeting beginning in January 2020 at the church.

The children's story was given by Brian Smith. He had a small plate with a few M&M candies on it.

He asked the children, "Does this red M&M taste like a cherry? Does this yellow M&M taste like a lemon? Does this orange M&M taste like an orange? These M&M's are all chocolate, so they taste like chocolate."

Everyone sang "Jesus Loves The Little Children." We are all children of God, no matter what color we are. God loves each one of us.

Linda Smith read the scripture, 2 Timothy 1:1-14. The sermon, "The Broken Bread," was given by the Rev. Hyun-Jin Cho.

For World Communion Sunday, Oct. 6, the universal and inclusive nature of the church will be symbolized using an international communion bread. Everywhere around the world, people are celebrating World Communion. We share our faith with our ancestors.

Timothy's grandfather, father and mother taught Timothy to know and shape his faith. We all need to practice our faith. We thank Jesus for setting a table with space enough for us all and we ask for eyes to recognize His reflection in the eyes of Christians everywhere.

The communion elements were served by Pastor Jin, Darryl and Joy Jepson, Kay Jones-Ray, Linda Lanning, Marty Ransdell and Camille Schoettlin. Lord, take our bread, take our hearts, take our lives. We are yours and we love you.

The closing hymn was "Take Our Bread." Those assisting with the service were Linda Smith, liturgist; Marjorie O'Konski; Matt Mannell, sound system; Megan Strobel, acolyte; Betty Domer, song leader; and Gary Domer, Ron Griffiths, Larry Miles and Brian Smith, usher team.

On Sept. 29, Gladys Law; Pete and Dee Deppe; Steve, Dee and Darian Sanner; and Gary and Barbara Slimmer ate lunch at Boomers' restaurant in Holton.

On Oct. 3, Rick and Mary Colton, Larry and Barbara Hanson, John and Dorothy Holt, Clifford Hurst, Daryl and Joy Jepson, Gladys Law, Jim and Sharon Miller, Nick and Karen Nicolay, Bill and Shirley Slimmer, Gary and Barbara Slimmer and Carol Stout attended the Pleasant Hill coffee group breakfast at Perkins restaurant in Topeka.

On Oct. 6, Betty Ann Anderson, Leah Brown, Diana Clark-Keith, Jamie Kleinklein, Beverly Newell, Garrie Oppitz, Sallyann Strawn, Susan Welborn and Sharon Wellman attended Sharon Monhollon's 80th birthday at Meriden United Methodist Church in Meriden. Everyone enjoyed finger food, birthday cupcakes, iced tea, lemonade and great fellowship. It was a fun party.

White serving as DSB assistant general counsel

Kennedy White, a third-generation Holton lawyer, has begun employment at Denison State Bank as assistant general counsel and is continuing to work as a newly-practicing attorney at his family's White Law Office.

White was sworn in as a Kansas attorney before the Kansas Supreme Court and U.S. District Court on Sept. 27 after passing the Kansas bar exam in July.

White received his juris doctorate from Washburn University School of Law in May with certificates in business and transactional law and tax law.

While in school, he worked as a law clerk for Advisors Excel in Topeka and White Law Office in Holton and served as president of the Business Law Society. He received his bachelor's degree from Washburn with dual majors in business administration in finance and entrepreneurship and innovation.

White's father, Dennis White, is a Holton lawyer, and his paternal grandfather, the late Marlin White, was a Holton lawyer. For several years, both Dennis and Marlin had offices in the upstairs of Denison State Bank on New York Avenue, where Kennedy White now works.

White is a permanent part-time employee at the bank. He is taking clients on an appointment-only basis at White Law Office, and he continues to serve as CEO of his business, SmartSave, a utility tax advisory firm.

White and his fiancée, Cassidy Merriman, plan to marry on Nov. 2.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear editor,
Just four years after completing a very expensive MBA (master of business administration) degree, I was working in a high stress environment when I became ill.

In a "corporate" type setting, when people find out you are sick, their first thoughts are how quickly they can convince the board to fire you so they can take your position.

It wasn't long before this very thing happened. Needing to find a low-stress job that would allow me the freedom of going to frequent doctor visits at KU Medical Center, I spoke to my Whiting mayor and council about giving me the "city man" job.

I figured time outside would be good for me and it was definitely good for me to be able to keep moving for as long as I could.

They knew that my husband would help me if I needed it, and I had already been their clerk for the previous five years, so they knew I was a good employee, and they voted to give me a job.

Two years and thousands of dollars worth of testing later, we are finally nearing a differential diagnosis of some sort of degenerative, progressive, autoimmune disease.

In fact, I will undergo two tests the day of this writing and then, depending upon the outcome, possibly one more.

The Whiting council and mayor know I have developed pain and weakness, numbness on both sides of my body, and occasionally I walk with a limp.

However, rather than wondering about how soon they need to let me go, they see that I am still working. They see me climbing up ladders to paint light poles. They see me working hard to read the meters and implement the new billing software.

They always check in on me and offer to help, but at the same time know that it's important to give me my space because I take pride in being able to do things on my own. They also know that sometimes I need accommodations, like having my husband help me with certain tasks that are painful or difficult for me.

They never give me any grief over this. The truth is, between the council, mayor, community building coordinator and me, we have managed to accomplish a lot.

We have efficient, productive city council meetings. We have worked on the streets, mainly filling the potholes, solved multiple issues correcting and bringing up to date the aging water and wastewater systems, and we have stayed under budget and never had to raise taxes or water rates.

Also, in the last year, I managed to obtain my certification in small systems water and wastewater. Every new accomplishment, even just painting the old concrete bathroom at the park, makes me feel like I still have value.

What has mattered most to me, though, is how kind and supportive everyone has been.

The mayor and council and our local people ask me how I am doing. They never walk around saying they are good Christian people: their actions show that they are.

If I make a mistake, they ask me if I need help. They accept that I'm human. If it turns out I haven't made a mistake, they apologize for having wrongly accused me. And it's all okay. We move forward. We work together as a small community to make life pleasant for everyone, no matter what their circumstances may be.

As they have in the past, Loren (Lind) is running as a write-in for mayor and Sam (Schumaker), Ashley (Brown), Richard (Archer) and Matt (Watkins) and maybe Larry (Eubanks) will accept write-in votes for council.

They make a well-rounded team full of knowledge and experience so I hope to see them back again. They have some very good plans for the future. And as far as bosses go, I think it's very rare in this day and age to have people with so much integrity and who show so much compassion for humanity. I have been very blessed to work for them.

Deloris Beam and Dianna Wilson left for Branson, Mo. on Sept. 28 for their annual week-long sister trip. Their aunt, Evelyn Strough, from Sabatha rode with them to Branson and spent a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Frank and Becky Hoefling. They all had a wonderful time and Deloris and Dianna enjoyed a few shows in Branson while they were there.

On Friday, Oct. 4, Barbara Hutchinson attended the Northeast Kansas Agency on Aging Inc. meeting in Hiawatha. Minutes were approved for previous meetings.

Two members were voted on unanimously. One was for a tribal position and the other was an at-large position. A member from Nemaha County resigned. The newly hired Matt Hawks, financial manager, was introduced and attended the meeting.

A discussion was held about public transportation. The transportation grant is being worked on. It was discussed about having a combined meeting in December of the aging board and advisory council. The aging board is currently meeting monthly.

Doug Hutchinson and Thersa Wade were dinner guests of Dennis and Barbara Hutchinson on Sunday, Oct. 6. The menu was smoked pork chops and baked butternut squash. Doug had grown the squash in his garden and they were delicious.

The AYLI Club met on at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at the home of Thersa Wade with seven members and two guests, Daisy Wright and Evelyn Colhouer. Three rounds of bridge were played with Thersa Wade getting high score and Barbara Hutchinson getting second high score. Roll call was favorite activity to do in the fall. Thersa served a delicious cherry cake with cool whip, coffee, cider and water. The Nov. 12 meeting will be held at Evelyn Spencer's home.

The United Methodist Women meeting was held at 5:30 p.m. on Oct. 9 at the home of David and Evelyn Allen. Everyone brought something for the meal to go along with grilled hot dogs and hamburgers. The program was viewing a YouTube video of "50 Years Anniversary Of Jackson Heights School District" and also "Highlights Of 150 years in UMW." A special thanks to David for using their electronics to see these. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at the church with Evelyn Spencer and Thelma Dick as hosts.

Steve and Leota Wilkerson, Merlin and Judy Arnold and Bob and I all visited with Maxine Lewis on Thursday, Oct. 10, at Vintage Park for the coffee with friends event. Judy brought some pawpaw bread that she had made so everyone got to have some. I'd never had pawpaw bread before and it was good. Merlin and Judy have the pawpaw trees growing in their backyard.

The Circleville High School Class of 1956 had a potluck meal and gathering at Southern Heights on Saturday, Oct. 12. Those attending were: Keith and Joyce Parrett, Bud and Shirley Stauffer, Jerry and Almetta Bottom, Norman and Freda Smith, Bonnie Rouse, Roy Kranz and his grandson Tate, Sue Ann Jackman, Virginia Farrier and her friend, Dale, and Dennis and Barbara Hutchinson. The next class get-together will be held in March 2020 and soup will be on the menu.

The Circleville Senior Executives will meet on Monday, Oct. 21, at noon at the Lodge Hall. Members are asked to bring different kinds of soup and also relishes and desserts for the meal.

The Jackson Heights football team busts through a "Go, Cobras!" paper banner prior to the recent Homecoming football game, flanked by lots of team boosters. The Cobras beat Troy last Friday night and will play at Winchester versus JCN next Friday.

Cobras hang 54 points on Trojans for win

By Brian Sanders

Jackson Heights High School's Cobra varsity football team exploded for 22 points in the second quarter of last Friday's home game against Troy on their way to a 54-24 victory over the Trojans in the first round of Class 1A district play.

The win boosted the Cobras' overall record to 4-2 and dropped the Trojans' overall record to 2-4 as both teams prepare for the second of three weeks of district play this Friday — the Cobras against Jefferson County North and the Trojans against Lyndon.

The Cobras struck first with a one-yard touchdown run from Dylan Thompson for a 6-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Troy answered with one second left in the quarter with a strip-sack and fumble in the end zone, where Cale Hamilton picked up the ball for a TD to tie the game. Trojan quarterback Kipp Jasper ran the ball into the end zone for the conversion, and Troy took an 8-6 lead at the end of the frame.

The second quarter, however, was all Cobras. Cooper Williams led off with a four-yard TD run and two-point conversion to put the Cobras up 14-8, then Carson Williams recovered a Troy fumble that led to a two-yard Thompson TD run and a Cooper Williams conversion, extending the Cobras' lead to 22-8 little more than halfway through the quarter.

But Cooper Williams wasn't done yet. With less than a minute to go and with the Cobra offense deep in its own territory, he broke free for a 71-yard sprint into the Trojan end zone, bringing the halftime score to 28-8 after a failed conversion effort.

The Cobras came out of the lockers at halftime eager to put more points on the board, with Grant Amon running in a five-yard TD to extend the Cobra lead to 34-8. Troy cut into that lead later in the quarter with a Jasper pass to Jacob Moore for the TD and another pass to Blaine Shellenberger for the conversion, bringing the score to 34-16.

Brantley Dohl added another six points for the Cobras before the end of the third quarter with a four-yard TD run, making the score 40-16. With less than two minutes of the fourth quarter gone, Troy cut into the lead again on a 12-yard pass from Jasper to Griffin Webber and a Tate Smith conversion run, bringing the score to 40-24.

But that was it for the Trojans, as the Cobras posted two more touchdowns — a two-yard run from Carson Williams and an 11-yard run from Cable Wareham, both accompanied by successful PAT kicks from Cooper Williams — for the 54-24 final score.

District play continues for the Cobras this Friday as they travel to Winchester to take on Northeast Kansas League rival JCN, now at 4-2 overall after a 22-12 loss to Lyndon in district play last Friday.

JH Girls climb to 27-3 overall

■ Home matches Tuesday and Thursday

By Brian Sanders

Jackson Heights High School's Lady Cobra varsity volleyball team added three more victories to their 2019 season tally on Thursday as the team works its way toward post-season play.

With wins against Northeast Kansas League foes Valley Falls and Horton, as well as against Troy of the Twin Valley League, at a quadrangular meet that evening at Horton, the Lady Cobras ran up their overall season record to an impressive 27-3 in preparation for a pair of triangular meets this week on their home court.

"We have a big week this week with Oskaloosa and Jefferson County North on Tuesday, and then on Thursday we're hosting Pleasant Ridge and Valley Falls," Head Coach Denise Visocsky said Friday. "We are hoping for a big crowd as we make a push for the league title."

The Lady Cobras' current NEK League record is 10-2, which puts them in a tie with Pleasant Ridge for second place behind Oskaloosa (11-1).

Up first for the Lady Cobras on Thursday was Valley Falls, a team that Jackson Heights had already defeated twice this season. The Cobras added a third defeat with a 25-16, 25-14 win over the Dragons.

Coach Visocsky was pleased to note the progress that freshman Kaylee Thompson made in the win against Valley Falls.

"We just brought Kaylee up from junior varsity last week, and she is starting to play a big role for us," the coach said.

Senior Kylie Dohl picked up eight kills and 10 digs in this match, while junior Sarah Marshall "also played very well out of the middle," Visocsky added.

Next up for the Lady Cobras was a 25-16, 25-21 defeat of the hosting Chargers. Visocsky said senior Jodi White had "a big night" against the host team with several digs from the back row, while Dohl picked up 10 kills and seven digs.

In the nightcap, the Lady Cobras made quick work of Troy with a straight-set, 25-8 and 25-4 win. Visocsky said White picked up 10 serves in a row during the first game, while senior Abby Brey made 13 serves in a row in the second game, enabling Jackson Heights to "really push points" and get the win.

The home matches on Tuesday and Thursday of this week are the last regular-season matches for the Lady Cobras. After that, the team will participate in the Class 2A sub-state tournament at JCN on Saturday, Oct. 26; that tournament will also involve Horton, JCN, Kansas City Christian, Maranatha Christian Academy, McLouth, Oskaloosa and Riverside.

Wildcats on short end of score versus state-ranked Jays

The score was 0-0 between Big Seven League foes Holton and the visiting Sabetha Bluejays here last Friday night until about four minutes left to play in the second quarter.

After that, the Class 3A state-ranked Bluejays (ranked No. 5) erupted for two touchdowns to take a 13-0 lead, which they never relinquished.

The final score between the two good teams was 35-13 with Sabetha improving to 5-1 and Holton moving to 4-2.

Next Friday, the Wildcats travel to 6-0 Marysville, while Sabetha travels to 6-1 Wamego.

In the Holton, Sabetha game, the Wildcats fumbled the ball to the Bluejays with 1:52 left in the first quarter, on their third first offensive possession of the game.

On their first offensive possession of the game, the Bluejays started at midfield and moved the ball to the Holton 26-yard line. From there, on a fourth down and three yards to go play, the Bluejays were unable to complete a pass in the end zone due to a good defensive play by senior Karsen Brandt who knocked the ball out of the receiver's hands to deny what would have been the first score of the game.

Holton took over on downs and proceeded to march the ball downfield picking up four first downs along the way. With about nine minutes left in the second quarter, Holton attempted a field goal, but it was blocked by Sabetha.

On Holton's next offensive possession, the team fumbled the ball to Sabetha, giving the Bluejays the ball at the Wildcat 39.

From there, Sabetha used a steady dose of running by senior quarterback Gabe Garber (a 10-yard run) and passing by Garber (a 34-yard completed pass) to move the ball down the field.

With 3:39 left in the second quarter, Garber completed a 28-yard TD pass to senior Braden Argabright. The PAT was good and the Bluejays led 7-0.

Holton was forced to punt on its next possession and Sabetha started its next drive at its own 33-yard line with 41 seconds left on the first half clock.

What followed was a seven-yard pass completion and then a 35-yard run by Garber to the five-yard line. Garber scored on a five-yard plunger on the next play. The PAT was no good and at halftime, it was 13-0.

Garber completed 12 of 13 passes in the first half to five different receivers for 124 yards. He also rushed six times for 90 yards in the first half. As it turns out, Garber was equally effective in the second half.

Holton kicked to Sabetha to start the third quarter. On the fifth play of the drive, Garber completed a 53-yard TD pass to Argabright. Garber passed to junior Drew Schmelze for the two-point conversion, making the score 21-0.

Some of Holton's best runs from scrimmage occurred on the team's next drive as junior Canon Karn gained 10 on a nice run and junior Konnor Tannahill followed that up on the next play with 23.

A penalty against the Wildcats slowed down this drive, however, and when forced to punt, the ball was bobbled and the best the Wildcats could do was fall on the ball, surrendering it to the Bluejays at midfield.

Two plays later, Garber hit Schmelze for a 44-yard TD pass.

The Wildcats scored a TD on their next possession on a 10-yard run by Karn as the third quarter ended. The PAT was no good, bringing the score to 28-6.

This drive started at the Holton 22. The Wildcats picked up three straight first downs on some nice runs by senior Taygen Fletcher, junior QB Kale Purcell and junior Tannahill. Fletcher had a 31-yard gain on this drive.

The Bluejays got the ball back and continued a steady dose of five to eight-yard pass receptions, picking up three straight first downs and using up a lot of time on the clock. Garber passed to Schmelze for an eight-yard TD to complete a 12-play, 76-yard drive. The PAT was good, bringing the score to 35-6.

The Wildcats' second score of the game came with just 31 seconds left to play on a 10-yard TD run by Purcell, which capped a 66-yard drive. The PAT was good, resulting in the final score, 35-13.

The Wildcats finished the game with 251 yards rushing. The Bluejays finished the game with 122 yards rushing and 264 yards passing.

The Wildcats had 13 first downs in the game to 14 for Sabetha. Holton lost two fumbles in the game and had four penalties for 23 yards while Sabetha had six penalties for 49 yards.

Tannahill rushed 19 times for 86 yards. Fletcher rushed nine times for 61 yards. Karn rushed eight times for 59 yards and Purcell rushed eight times for 39 yards.

For Sabetha, unofficially, Garber completed 20 of 22 passes for 268 yards to six different receivers for four TDs and rushed for 93 yards.

Defensively for Holton, senior Trey Wright had 20 points, including a huge hit and 13 tackles. Karn had 16 points, including a tackle for loss, and Connor Collins had 15 points, including a tackle for loss.

JHHS cross country coach comments on Sabetha races

Jackson Heights sophomore Daniel Little continued to run faster than the competition at Sabetha, where he won his fourth straight cross-country race on Thursday in what Head Coach Brad Alley said was Little's "biggest test."

"With Daniel, I have to keep reminding myself that he's only a sophomore," Coach Alley said of Little's performance at Thursday's meet. "He runs with a lot of maturity. He prepares and practices as good as anyone I've ever had."

Alley said he expects Little to continue his winning ways at the Cobra runners' next outing, the Northeast Kansas League meet, which Jackson Heights is hosting this Thursday.

"We have a couple of really talented runners in our league that I think will challenge him," Alley said of Little. "But at this point in the season, you don't expect anything different."

Little's tape-breaking time at Sabetha was 17:07.62, more than 24 seconds ahead of Wamego junior Jacob White in second place. White and four other Wamego runners rounded out the top five to take first in the boys team standings at Thursday's meet.

The top three Cobra boys runners "performed really strong," Alley said, noting that senior Drew Holliday finished 22nd with a time of 19:18 and freshman Alex Browning finished 25th with a 19:24.18 run.

"It was cold, windy and wet, and we were running against some really talented teams," Alley said of the Cobra boys' seventh-place team finish. "Alex and Drew really ran a competitive race."

Also running for the Cobra boys were juniors Noah Hill (72nd place, 22 minutes even) and Ben Rostetter (86th place, 27:26).

On the girls' side, Alley said the Cobras had trouble establishing their footing at the start of the race, and the team finished ninth as a result.

"We are dealing with several injuries on the girls' side, but we are working to get everyone back by the league meet," he said.

Senior Skyla Howe led the Cobra girls, finishing in 28th place with a 24:00.96 time, followed by junior Shelby Phillips in 30th place with a 24:22.87 finish.

"Skyla and Shelby did a really nice job of working themselves back into medal contention," Alley said. "Skyla has had a really good month for us. I was happy for her to run as well as she did in such tough conditions."

Also running for the Cobra girls were junior Kati Woltje (59th place, 26:38.58), senior Jill Buck (70th place, 28:22.84) and junior Paige Deneault (71st place, 28:26.17).

Fall lawn care gets you outside

Spring and summer may be the seasons most often associated with landscaping and lawn care, but tending to lawns and gardens is a year-round job.

If lawn and garden responsibilities dip considerably in winter, then fall is the last significant chance before the new year that homeowners will have to address the landscaping around their homes.

Fall lawn care differs from spring and summer lawn care, even if the warm temperatures of summer linger into autumn. Homeowners who want their lawns to thrive year-round can take advantage of the welcoming weather of fall to address any existing or potential issues.

*Keep mowing, but adjust how you mow. It's important that homeowners continue to mow their lawns so long as grass is growing. But as fall transitions into winter, lower the blades so the grass is cut shorter while remaining mindful that no blade of grass should ever be trimmed by more than one-third. Lowering the blades will allow more sunlight to reach the grass in the months ahead.

*Remove leaves as they fall. Much like apple-picking and foliage, raking leaves is synonymous with fall. Some homeowners may wait to pick up a rake until all of the trees on their properties are bare. However, allowing fallen leaves to sit on the ground for extended periods of time can have an adverse effect on grass.

Leaves left to sit on the lawn may ultimately suffocate the grass by forming an impenetrable wall that deprives the lawn of sunlight and oxygen. The result is dead grass and possibly even fungal disease. Leaves may not need to be raked every day, but homeowners should periodically rake and remove leaves from their grass, even if there are plenty left to fall still hanging on the trees.

*Repair bald spots. Summer exacts a toll on lawns in various ways, and even homeowners with green thumbs may end up with a lawn filled with bald spots come September. Autumn is a great time to repair these bald spots.

Some lawn repair mixes contain mulch, seed and fertilizer to repair bald spots, which can begin to recover in as little as seven days. Before applying such products, remove dead grass and loosen the top few inches of soil. Follow any additional manufacturer instructions as well.

*Aerate the turf. Aerating reduces soil compacting, facilitating the delivery of fertilizer and water to a lawn's roots. While many homeowners, and particularly those who take pride in tending to their own lawns, can successfully aerate their own turf, it's best to first have soil tested so you know which amendments to add after the ground has been aerated.

Gardening centers and home improvement stores sell soil testing kits that measure the pH of soil, but homeowners who want to test for nutrients or heavy metals in their soil may need to send their samples to a lab for further testing.

Fall lawn care provides a great reason to spend some time in the yard before the arrival of winter.

Five energy savings tips shared

As temperatures decrease during the fall and winter months, energy usage and costs tend to climb. These five energy-saving tips for your home will ensure the comfort of your family and your wallet.

1. Adjust your thermostat. Lower the heat on your thermostat while you are away from home and before you go to bed.

Better yet, invest in a programmable thermostat so you don't have to give it a second thought.

2. Seal gaps around windows and doors. Cracks and gaps around windows and doors can let cold drafts into your home.

Weather-stripping or caulking will seal these problem areas and keep your home warmer, without having to turn up the heat.

3. Insulate well to protect your home from the cold. Add insulation to your basement walls, headers or attic to make a noticeable difference in the temperature of your home and its energy consumption.

A mineral wool product specifically designed for thermal performance is ideal. This type of batt insulation will also provide protection from fire, moisture and unwanted noise. Adding insulation is one of the simplest and most-cost effective ways to increase home energy efficiency.

4. Make use of natural sources of heat. Pull back your curtains to let natural light in.

The sun can help to warm a room with its rays on a bright fall or winter day. If there are any large windows in your home that don't receive much sunlight, keep the curtains closed to form a barrier from the cold.

5. Use ceiling fans to your advantage. In the winter, set the fan to rotate clockwise.

The blades will pull the air up and around, redirecting warm air that rises back down into the living space. The effect can help you lower your thermostat by two degrees in the winter.

While cutting back on energy may seem more challenging as the weather gets colder, it doesn't have to be. There are many no- or low-cost methods to conserve energy that can provide consistent savings over time.

HOME Everything Fall.

Get ready for winter

Freezing temperatures may be good for ice skating or building snowmen, but sub-freezing temperatures can be dangerous for the average person and his or her home.

Cold weather often leaves people scurrying to do whatever is necessary to safeguard themselves from the big chill. But it's important homeowners also protect their homes in cold weather.

Plumbing and pipes may be vulnerable to cold weather. Frozen pipes may burst and cause substantial damage to a home, potentially causing flooding and structural damage.

Homeowners should disconnect and drain garden hoses before winter arrives. Water to outdoor hose bibs should be turned off, though the valves on these outdoor faucets should be left open to drain. Also, outdoor faucets can be covered with insulating foam covers.

The Red Cross says pipes that freeze most frequently include pipes in unheated areas, such as basements, attics, garages, and crawl spaces. Close vents to the outside in areas like attics and basements to limit the amount of cold air that gets indoors. Think about insulating unheated areas, as well as using pipe sleeves, heat tape or wraps on exposed pipes.

By opening kitchen and bathroom cabinet doors, homeowners can allow warm air from a home to reach pipes under the sink. During extreme freezes, keep cold water dripping from a sink to prevent pipes from freezing.

Service HVAC systems before it's too late. It's important to ensure that heating systems are working properly prior to the cold-weather season. It may only take hours for the interior of a home to reach dangerously low temperatures without adequate heat.

Homeowners should schedule annual checkups of furnaces and hot water heaters. Inspect the heat exchanger for cracks, install a clean air filter and make sure all thermostats are working properly.

Have plenty of fuel ready. Homeowners who heat their homes with oil, wood or coal should make sure they have plenty of fuel on hand in advance of winter. Shortages can occur, and it may take some time for new fuel to arrive in the midst of a cold snap.

As a precaution, homeowners can rely on portable space heaters to fill in the heating gaps during freezing temperatures. Exercise extreme caution with these devices, turning them off when leaving the room and remembering to avoid overloading outlets.

Outside protection work is important, too. Drain birdbaths, clean out downspouts and remove water from other items where water can freeze and cause damage. Inspect roofing prior to the snowy season, but stay off roofs during freezing weather.

Remove snow shovels and other winter gear from storage and make sure the items are easily accessible during snowstorms.

Winter's bite can be severe. Homeowners can protect themselves and their properties when the freeze sets in.

Protect hardwood floors

Wood floors are a worthwhile investment that can improve the beauty and function of just about any room in a home. Even though wood floors are durable, and new protective treatments help seal out many of the things that may have damaged floors in the past, homeowners still need to prioritize protecting their hardwood floors.

Certain seasons of the year can be more harsh on wood floors than others. For example, seasons characterized by moisture and precipitation, particularly the early spring, winter and fall, can be hard on wood floors.

Homeowners need not give up on hardwood if they live in an area that sees all four seasons. They just need to take a few steps to keep floors looking beautiful.

•Clean up the salt. Salt that keeps sidewalks and streets clear of snow and ice inadvertently gets tracked inside a home. Hard chunks of salt can scratch wood floors, and, if left to sit, that salt can eventually cause white marks and other stains. Routinely vacuuming and sweeping up salt is necessary to protect wood floors.

•Invest in shoe storage. Wet or snowy boots can create puddles around the house. Have a special mat or tray by the front door where wet shoes can be kept. A nice bench in the entryway makes it easy for residents and guests to remove their shoes until it's time to go back outside.

•Use water-wicking mats. Homeowners will probably need a few extra mats around to tame errant drips and wipe shoes. Any entrance that might be used by people or pets should be protected. Try to avoid petroleum-based, rubber-backed mats, as they could discolor the wood floor.

•Control humidity indoors. Cool, dry air in a home can be problematic because the moisture in the wood can eventually evaporate into the air. The heat will suck that moisture from the flooring, causing it to shrink, creak and splinter and become more brittle.

Think about investing in an in-line humidifier for the home's HVAC system that can keep a moderate amount of humidity in the home. Hardwood floorboards are installed to accommodate minor temperature and humidity fluctuations. This is typically a range of between 60 and 80 degrees F with a relative humidity range of 35 to 55 percent, it has been reported.

•Use the right cleaning products. Avoid excessive water to clean wood floors, and select soaps that are specially designed for wood flooring. Consult with the flooring manufacturer for a list of detergents that are safe to use.

With proper care, hardwood flooring can survive rain, snow and cold weather.

Careful saving key to home dream

Home ownership is a dream for people across the globe. Many people save for years before buying their first homes, saving every dollar they can with the hopes they can one day become homeowners.

But thanks to factors beyond their control, even the most devoted savers can sometimes feel like their dream of home ownership might never come true.

According to the Pew Research Center, American workers' paychecks are larger than they were 40 years ago, but their purchasing power is essentially the same.

Various challenges can make it difficult to buy a home. However, some simple strategies can help prospective home buyers build their savings as they move closer to the day when they can call themselves "homeowners."

•Determine where your money is going. If you're finding it hard to grow your savings, audit your monthly expenses to determine where your money is going. Using exclusively debit or credit cards can simplify this process, as all you need to do is log into your accounts and see how your money was spent over a given period.

If you routinely use cash to pay for items, even just to buy coffee on the way to work, keep a notepad handy so you can jot down each expense. Do this for a month and then examine how you spent your money. Chances are you will see various ways to save, and you can then redirect that money into your savings account.

•Become a more savvy grocery shopper. Another great way to save more money is to alter something you already do each month: grocery shopping. If you haven't already, sign up for discount clubs at your local grocer, if they are offered.

This is a largely effortless way for shoppers, especially those buying food for families, to save considerable amounts of money. Shopping sales at competing grocery stores also can save money.

•Dine in more often. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says that Americans spend, on average, 6 percent of their household budgets on food. However, the USDA also notes that Americans spend 5 percent of their disposable income on dining out.

If these figures mirror your spending habits, you can nearly cut your food spending in half by dining out less frequently. That might be a sacrifice for foodies, but it can get you that much closer to buying your own home.

Saving enough money to purchase your first home is a worthy effort that can be made easier by employing a few budget-friendly strategies.

Noises can adversely affect home's feel

Many people want their homes to be comfortable, relaxing retreats. While much thought will be given to layout and decor, the noises in and around a house also can affect how enjoyable a space is or isn't.

Certain offenders are driving up the noise levels in homes. New building materials that are lighter than those used in the past can make it easier for noise to travel between rooms.

In addition, open floor plans make it easy for noise to travel from room to room, while handheld personal devices can make rooms noisy. Homeowners who want more peace and quiet in their home can take the following steps.

Add more drywall. Homeowners may not be able to add walls of sturdy brick to block sounds, but they can add more drywall in noisy rooms. Consider adding more drywall to a library or reading nook.

Beef up dense materials. Heavy curtains, fluffy furniture and thick carpets can make rooms quieter because they help absorb sound waves. Such items and materials also can help prevent echoes. Bare walls and floors will only make sounds bounce around.

Seal holes and cracks. Noises from outside can sneak around gaps in windows, doors and siding. Making sure gaps are sealed will not only make a home more energy efficient, but also help block out some exterior noises.

Fix squeaky floors - Wood floors can shrink and expand, leading to movement and the development of squeaky areas. By fixing squeaky floors, homeowners can reduce noise created when people walk through their homes.
