

Several different types of trick-or-treating costumes were on display around Holton's Town Square on Monday afternoon, when Holton Elementary School students took to the Square for the annual Halloween Parade. After school, children of all ages returned to the Square, where participating businesses invited youngsters to fill their Halloween bags or baskets.

Election includes question on judges

By Ali Holcomb

Kansas voters headed to the poll on Nov. 8 will be asked whether they want to retain several judges on the Kansas Supreme Court, the Kansas Court of Appeals and District Court.

Judges up for retention include:

■ Carol A. Beier, 58, of Topeka for position one on the Kansas Supreme Court. Beier was appointed to the Supreme Court on Sept. 5, 2003. She served as a judge on the Kansas Court of Appeals prior to that from Feb. 18, 2000.

■ Dan Biles, 64, of Shawnee for position two on the Kansas Supreme Court. Biles was appointed a justice in March 2009 after working in private practice for 24 years in Overland Park.

■ Lawton R. Nuss, 63, of Topeka for position three on the Kansas Supreme Court. Former Gov. Bill Graves appointed Nuss to the Supreme Court in August 2002. He began serving as Chief Justice in August 2010.

■ Marla Luckert, 61, of Topeka for position five on the Kansas Supreme Court. Luckert was appointed to the position on Jan. 13, 2003.

■ Caleb Stegall, 45, of Lawrence for position three on the Kansas Supreme Court. Stegall was appointed to the Supreme Court by Gov. Sam Brownback on Dec. 5, 2014, following his tenure on the Kansas Court of Appeals.

Jackson County officials unopposed in election

By Ali Holcomb

Four Jackson County officials are running unopposed during the Nov. 8 general election.

They include Republicans Shawna Miller (county attorney), Kathy Mick (county clerk) and Linda Gerhardt (treasurer) and Democrat Tammy Moulden (register of deeds).

Shawna Miller

Miller, 40, has served as the Jackson County Attorney since 2009.

She grew up in rural western Kansas where she graduated from a 1A high school. She attended Kansas State University and received her bachelor of science degree in social work.

She worked as a probation officer in the Fourth Judicial District for three years before starting law school at Washburn in 2000.

While in law school, she was a law clerk for the Kansas Attorney General's office and worked as a prosecuting intern at both the Wyandotte County District Attorney's office and the Shawnee County District Attorney's office.

She has practiced law in Jackson County since graduating from school in 2004.

This will be Miller's third term as county attorney. In January 2005, she began serving as the assistant county attorney prior to her election as county attorney.

"Some of the things that I am most proud to have accomplished as county attorney are the close working relationship with law enforcement and the great strides we have made as a county in our victim/witness assistance," Miller said.

She has resided in Holton with her husband, Jesse, and their two children since 2006.

Kathy Mick

Mick, 53, has served as county clerk for six, four-year terms since 1992.

Before being elected as county clerk, Mick worked in the clerk's office for 14 years, starting her sophomore year of high school.

She has worked with 21 different commissioners, two county clerks, three treasurers, three registers of deeds, six sheriffs and seven county attorneys.

In January, Mick will have served 24 years as an elected official for the county. Carol Bickford currently holds the record as the longest serving elected Jackson County official, serving 24 years, five months and 18 days as the register of deeds from 1975 to 1999.

Mick and her husband, Terry, have two grown daughters, Kristel and her husband, Johnathan Schlotter; and Tara Mick. She also has three grandchildren, Mickenzie, Breckon and Mason Schlotter.

Linda Gerhardt

Gerhardt, 57, has worked for Jackson County for 32 years, serving 17 of those as the county treasurer.

She began her career with the county in 1984 in the county clerk's office. She worked in that office for 15 years prior to her appointment as treasurer in 1999. She was first elected to the treasurer's position in 2000.

Gerhardt said her office is responsible for motor vehicle business, printing, mailing and collecting property taxes and the distribution of taxes to the county's governing entities. The office also collects the daily receipts and conducts driver's license renewals.

Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday

It's time to "fall back." Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday, Nov. 6. Don't forget to set your clocks back an hour before going to bed on Saturday night, Nov. 5.

The time change will officially "fall back" at 2 a.m. on Sunday, creating darkness earlier in the evenings and more daylight during the early morning.

Purple Heart Profiles

Raymond Gardiner wounded in France

Editor's note: This is the 33rd in a series of stories about past and present Jackson County residents who earned the Purple Heart Medal, which is awarded to military personnel wounded or killed in the line of duty.

The names of those profiled in these stories will be among those placed on a special monument for Purple Heart Medal recipients to be placed in Holton's Linscott Park.

On Oct. 28, 1944, Raymond Gardiner was stationed in southern France, serving with the U.S. Army in Company G, 157th Infantry Regiment, 45th Infantry Division when he was reportedly called to join other soldiers on a truck.

The truck that Gardiner was riding in had encountered a truck full of German soldiers coming from the opposite direction. The American truck stopped and soldiers began diving into a nearby foxhole in a field across the road.

Gardiner — according to information provided by his son, historian Allen Gardiner — was the last one into his fox hole and took a bullet in the leg.

The incident earned Raymond Gardiner his Purple Heart, one of several awards the young man, then 27, would earn during World War II.

Born June 23, 1917, on the family farm west of Denison, the son of the Rev. George William and Etta C. Hedrick Gardiner, Raymond had graduated from Denison Rural High School in 1935 and was working as a farmer on his father's farm when he was called into service. He was inducted into the Army on May 20, 1942, at Fort Leavenworth.

RVMS kids pick Clinton for president

Rotary Club brings election to local schools

By David Powls

Democrat Hillary Clinton beat Republican Donald Trump by a vote of 105 to 86 for U.S. president in a mock election held Tuesday afternoon at Royal Valley Middle School in Hoyt.

Republican incumbent Jerry Moran, seeking re-election to his U.S. Senate seat, also won at the Royal Valley Middle School mock election provided by the Holton Rotary Club by a vote of 157 to 86 over Democrat challenger Patrick Wiesner.

Another Republican incumbent, Lynn Jenkins, seeking re-election to her U.S. House of Representatives seat, won the mock election by a 150 to 63 vote margin over Democrat Brittani Potter.

RVMS students — in grades five through eight — also favored Democrat Lauren Van Wagoner for the local Kansas House of Representatives seat by a 124 to 109 vote margin over Republican Francis Awerkamp.

In the local Kansas Senate race, incumbent Republican Dennis Pyle won out over Democrat challenger Jerry Henry by a 158-77 vote margin at RVMS.

The Holton Rotary Club will also be sponsoring mock elections for students in the Holton school district on Friday and on election day back at Royal Valley Elementary School.

Royal Valley High School students also will be participating in a Rotary-assisted mock election.

As a loyal Democrat, Jerry Henry has the Democrat Party's complete support.

Democrat Jerry Henry is endorsed by the Wind Coalition and Sierra Club because he supports their burdensome, job-killing regulations and agenda.

Democrat Jerry Henry is in line with his party, opposing important, pro 2nd amendment legislation, earning him a "C" rating by the NRA.

Democrat Jerry Henry supports his party and their candidates up and down the ballot, especially Brett Neibling who is running for his house seat.

Jerry Henry campaigns as a "conservative democrat" who agrees with Republicans on most issues.

But his record and actions reveal the truth: Jerry Henry is loyal to the Democrat party's principles and leadership.

HCH celebrates X-ray's impact on medicine

In 1895, Wilhelm Conrad Roentgen invented the X-ray. Its impact on the medical field grows with each passing year, and the X-ray remains the oldest and most common form of medical imaging.

Before the X-ray was discovered, doctors had to poke and prod patients to find the source of injuries such as bullet wounds and broken bones.

According to Cody Utz, director of radiology at Holton Community Hospital, the ability to diagnose injuries and illnesses wouldn't be what it is today without the X-ray.

"Diagnostic imaging allows physicians to more accurately detect, treat and diagnose patients," Utz said. "That means patients undergo fewer unnecessary and exploratory surgeries, avoid inappropriate treatments that inflate the costs of their care and experience better clinical outcomes."

X-rays help physicians determine the extent of bone and soft tissue damage in trauma patients, diagnose changes in various organs and diagnose or exclude diseases. In addition, X-rays are used to locate fractures and detect strokes, head injuries, herniated discs and abscesses.

During National Radiologic Technology Week, Nov. 6-12, 2016, Holton Community Hospital will celebrate the anniversary of the X-ray's discovery, and the hard work and dedication of its radiologic technologists.

"We look forward to recognizing our imaging staff's efforts to improve patients' lives," Utz said. "We also celebrate the science behind the X-ray, which has made a dramatic impact in the field of medicine and has provided the basis for ultrasound, nuclear medicine and other imaging technologies."

At Holton Community Hospital, the available medical imaging procedures include general X-ray, digital mammography, CT, ultrasound and echo, MRI and nuclear medicine. For more information about imaging and radiology at Holton Community Hospital, contact 785-364-9677 or visit www.holtonhospital.com

Candidates to file reports on campaigns

On Oct. 31, treasurers for candidates running for state office, county office, political action committees (PACs) and party committees were to file their pre-general election campaign reports.

In addition, on Nov. 3, a report of last minute contributions will also be filed by any state or county candidate who receives any contribution in the amount of $300 or more.

PACs and party committees will file daily reports starting Nov. 3 through Nov. 7 disclosing any contributions made to the committee and independent expenditures made by the committee in the amount of $300 or more.

All state candidates, PACs and party committee reports can be viewed on the Governmental Ethics Commission's website at www.kansas.gov/ethics.

County candidate reports are available for review during regular business hours in the county clerk/county election office in which the candidate is on the ballot, it was reported by the Kansas Governmental Ethics Commission.

TIM MORSE
Jackson County Sheriff

THE ONLY EXPERIENCED CANDIDATE

SHERIFF TIM MORSE has made many accomplishments since taking office as sheriff. He led the jail out of an economic catastrophe, and turned it into a revenue generating facility. He has reduced jail spending by 1.5 million dollars, and will have earned an estimated 1.8 million dollars by year's end. He balanced every budget from 2011-2015.

SHERIFF TIM MORSE has been tough on crime, and made Jackson County safer by establishing patrol zones and sub-stations. This move has reduced response times, and increased rural patrol, which has helped in reducing residential burglaries. Sheriff Morse has been proactive in pursuing those who prey on our children, which has resulted in a number of life-time sentences.

HIS OPPONENT is not even a certified Kansas law enforcement officer, and has never investigated a crime or even made a single arrest.

OPINION

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Vote Clinton for same song & dance, Trump for new beat

Either way, we're likely in trouble U.S. needs term limits for Congress

The United States of America is in trouble.

Even middle school age children sense it.

At a mock election held yesterday at Mayetta, featuring the two presidential frontrunners, Democrat Hillary Clinton and Republican Donald Trump fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade students at Royal Valley lamented that the country is headed for trouble no matter which one of those two candidates gets elected.

A couple of students standing in line waiting to vote even vocalized their fears that - with Clinton or Trump at the helm - the country was headed for "World War III."

A few other students asked, "Do we really have to vote for one of these people?"

I wasn't surprised by the kids' comments.

This is not an easy time to have faith in any of the presidential candidate to do a good job for the country over the next four years.

Four years seems like a long time to commit allegiance to either one of those two.

So for the first time ever, I am hesitant to endorse a candidate for president.

Not that I have picked the winning candidates with any great accuracy over the years. In the last eight presidential elections, I've only picked four winners.

In past election years, however, I was proud to endorse presidential candidates like Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, Bob Dole, George W. Bush, John McCain and even Mitt Romney.

One of the things I have learned is that - for the most part - we've ended up with decent people as leaders. While I'm not a big fan of President Barack Obama, I respect him and believe he is a good person. As spokesperson for our country, President Obama was fine.

This presidential election year is different.

I would like to suggest that Clinton has the transferrable political experience to lead this country, but I am afraid that she will do nothing to prevent health care costs from continuing to skyrocket.

Health care plans keep getting higher and what's covered in the health care plans keeps getting phased out or eliminated. There's nothing affordable about health care and that's wrong. Affordable health care is a major issue for me.

I would like to suggest that we can trust Clinton to be a strong foreign policy leader for our country but I'm not sure there's a foreign country that hasn't donated to the Clintons' Foundation. I have a strong suspicion that when we look up "pay to play" in the urban dictionaries of the future, we'll read that the term was coined by the Clintons.

If we can't trust our president to tell the truth to us and keep national security secrets, then who can we trust? I just don't trust the Clintons. I fear the worst possible political corruption - trading special considerations and special treatment for donating to the Clintons' foundation.

I would like to suggest that the two-for-one deal that the country would get if we elect Clinton (Hillary and Bill) would mean our economy would improve, but my fear is that our federal taxes will go up and controversy will continue to hound them (and our country) wherever they go. Isn't one Clinton as president enough?

I feel equally concerned with Trump for different reasons. While I admire the fact that he personally funded a big part of his own election campaign, and I admire how he isn't afraid to give a straight answer to questions, he also most certainly would continue to do a lot of embarrassing things to himself and our country, if elected.

I would like to suggest that with Trump as president we'll finally have better security at our borders. And I would like to suggest that with Trump as president we'll have more common sense law and order in this country. National security is a top issue for me.

I would like to suggest that with Trump - a business person - as president we'll have fairer trade deals with other countries and we'll bring back manufacturing and industry that we've lost overseas. And I would like to suggest that Trump would not mess up our agriculture trade deals, but you never know. By the same token, I'd be surprised if Clinton understands agriculture issues any better than Trump.

I believe now that we need to change election laws and stop allowing anonymous donations from anyone, any corporation or any country to pour into our elections and influence them.

At the same time, I believe we need to demand term limits be placed on our U.S. senators and U.S. representatives and our state senators and state representatives.

At the mock election yesterday, several students asked if they were required to sign their name to their election ballots. The answer, of course, is no. Your votes are made privately and anonymously.

If you're like me, you won't know for sure who you're going to vote for until you step into that voting booth.

Ask yourself before you vote, however, whether you're better off today than you were the last time you voted for president. If you are happy and content, the status-quo presidential pick is Clinton, in my opinion. If you desperately want change, Trump is the candidate for change, in my opinion.

Good luck, Americans.
David Powls

Lions view KSDS graduation

The Holton Lions Club members took a trip to Washington, Kan., for the graduation ceremonies of the KSDS Assistance Dogs Inc. program on Oct. 15, it was reported.

There were two service dogs graduating to new owners and one guide dog going to another owner.

During the graduation, the Holton Lions made their annual donation to the KSDS program. After the graduation and lunch, they toured the facility. Attending the graduation were Lions members George and Joyce Royer, Tom and Cheryl Robb, Bob McNicholas, Bob Layton, Gene and Anika Bergsten and Lynn and Barb Wilson.

Earlier in the month of October, Judy Strawn was recognized for 10 years as a member, Maurice Strawn was recognized for 15 years as a member and Ray White for 20 years as a member of the Holton Lions.

Ed LUTZ

Candidate for 2nd District
County Commissioner

Accountability for the Taxpayers - Commissioner Zwonitzer stated that taxpayers deserve it. I agree, but it should start with our 3 County Commissioners.

The commissioners were offered the building on a Thursday. They toured the building the next morning and that afternoon – after a one-hour meeting – they agreed to buy it at the asking price. There was no plan, there were no inspections, so it was unknown how much this decision was going to end up costing the taxpayers. But, just like the mill levy increase, this allowed the commissioners to bypass the taxpayers by not having to have an election for a bond issue.

'New' Shop building
-- Appraised value for 2015	$222,250
-- Purchase price	$380,726
-- Remodeling	$ 86,636
-- New Roof for existing bldg - bid at	$ 30,300
-- Asphalt Millings for the parking lot	$ 33,875
Total	$531,537

Unfinished - Lobby Area in front area of bldg
Unfinished - Office area for 2 Office personnel
No ADA bathroom

New Tire shop
--Concrete addition of 54' x 60' (paid for)	$35,634
--Framework for new tire shop est at	$ 9,720
-- Roof for tire shop bid at	$ 5,200

Work still needed:
--Electrical
-- Heating
-- Garage door and installation

However, the employee that repaired tires has retired. He was replaced with the Inventory Clerk/Custodian

After purchasing the bldg
-- It was found the well doesn't perform adequately
--Rural water was investigated and found to cost at least $32,000 to have it brought to the shop
-- It was found that the lateral lines for the sewer were collapsed, so a new lagoon is needed.

How much more money will be needed to complete the repairs and remodel of this building - and possibly put up a new building to house the equipment during the off season?

A MILLION dollar Road and Bridge shop will NOT make our roads any better!

Taxes
Appraised values (set by the state) have risen from 2015 to 2016
-- Cropland went up 17%
-- Grassland went up 7%
-- Real estate went up 4.9%

These increases alone will raise more money in taxes for the county, without a mill levy increase. We have a new Casey's in town and a bigger Wal-mart - these two businesses will generate more taxes for the county also. I am against raising the mill levy because I feel that the rise in the appraisals will generate the revenue we need.

Rock for our Roads
2016 Budget for Rock & Hauling	$450,000
Amt budgeted for hauling	$280,000
Actual amt spent for hauling	$282,000

Waiting until the election was near, the commissioners brought in a KAC engineer to view the roads. His assessment? Exactly what our road co-supervisors said they already knew.

If you have questions, please contact me at 785 364 8047 or ealutz63@gmail.com
I am asking you to vote for a change in our county commission. I would appreciate your vote on Nov. 8.

(Political ad paid for by Ed A Lutz for County Commissioner - Rochelle Falk, Treasurer)

Holton, Baldwin collide Thursday in 4A-DII prep football playoffs

By David Powls
The Baldwin Bulldogs of the Frontier League lost their first six football games of the season but now have won three straight as they get ready to host the Holton Wildcats at 7 p.m. Thursday evening in the regional round of the Class 4A-DII playoffs.

Baldwin lost to Eudora to start the season (22-6), then lost to Paola (38-16), Ottawa (42-21), Spring Hill (42-6), Louisburg (36-8) and then De Soto (43-0). In the last three games, the Bulldogs have defeated Bishop Ward (60-0), Osawatومية (49-21) and Prairie View (42-33).

Osawatومية is the other team advancing from Baldwin's same district. The Trojans will play Topeka-Hayden.

On the flip side, Holton, from the Big Seven League, lost its first three games - 24-14 to Atchison, 25-22 to Sabetha and 43-42 to Nemaha Central.

Since then, the Wildcats have won five of their last six games - a 41-7 win over Riverside, a 47-7 win over Royal Valley, a 66-26 win over Hiawatha, a 47-6 win over Jeff West, a 47-32 loss to Hayden and a 36-24 win over Santa Fe Trail.

In at least two of their losses earlier this season, Baldwin gave up a lot of rushing yards.

Spring Hill back Tyshaun Straw rushed for 152 yards and five touchdowns in his team's 42-6 win over Baldwin.

Louisburg's San Agustin ran for three touchdowns in his team's 36-8 win over Baldwin.

Holton head coach Brooks Barta says Baldwin is a program with a strong football tradition. This year, Barta said, the Bulldogs have an athletic quarterback and athletic running backs.

"Baldwin is a young team that played a tough early schedule," he said.

The Holton Wildcats, as a team, have rushed for more than 3,600 yards this season so far, averaging 400 yards rushing a game.

Following the big win over Santa Fe Trail last week, coach

Barta said he was pleased with how his team's defense continued to improve.

"They (SFT) did convert on the first 3 fourth and longs, which was not good," coach Barta said. "However, we stopped them on fourth down in the second half."

Coach Barta said the defensive strategy against SFT evolved during the game.

"We went back to focusing on our keys and doing a better job taking away the trap play," he said. "We gave them a few different looks on fourth down and that helped us."

Barta said the offensive MVP of the Santa Fe Trail game was Parker Zeller.

"We moved Parker to center due to an injury," the coach said. "He was probably our offensive MVP. We did not have any bad snaps and he did a great job blocking linebackers."

In the game against Santa Fe Trail, neither team was whistled for a penalty throughout the entire game. Coach Barta said low-penalty games usually favor the Wildcats.

"We like low penalty officials since we are usually the better short yardage offense," he said.

Coach Barta said the Wildcats are excited to play on the turf and at Baker University.

"We have had many players who have had good games at the Baker field," he said.

The Wildcats have qualified for the state football playoffs for the 19th straight season, a footnote not lost on this year's team.

"Our players did not want to end that streak," coach Barta said. "They wanted to be in the playoffs. We think it is a wide open contest in 4A-DII."

Holton vs. Santa Fe Trail stats:

First Downs - SFT 14 (12 by rushing, two by passing). Holton 12 (all by rushing).

Passing - SFT 3 of 9 for 52 yards.

Rushing - SFT - 48 for net 204. Holton 44 for net 389.

Total offense - SFT 356 yards - 6.2 yards per play. Holton 389 yards - 8.8 yards per play.

Kick-offs - SFT 5 for 33.2 yards per kick. Holton (Miles McClintock-Strozier) 6 for 43.2 yards per kick.

Kick-off returns - SFT 6 for 85 yards. Holton 5 for 49 yards.

Fumbles - SFT 1 and 1 lost. Holton 1 and 1 lost.

Penalties - SFT 0. Holton 0.

Cobras end gridiron season on high note

■ JH team tied for league crown

By Brian Sanders
Jackson Heights High School's Cobra varsity football team ended its 2016 season on a high note, beating a team it had not beaten since 2003.

The Cobras' hard-won 22-14 victory over Centralia at home recently marked the end of another year, but with a 6-3 record and an unbeaten record in the Northeast Kansas League, Head Coach Caleb Wick said his team had ample reason to be proud of its accomplishments this year.

"It was a good win," Wick said. "It got really intense in the last three minutes, when it seemed at times like we were playing against two teams."

Wick said Friday's win was closer than it seemed because of several penalties - the Cobras had 10, while the Panthers only had one - including a pass interference call that was "probably one of the worst I've seen since I've been here."

"A lot of things didn't happen our way in the fourth quarter, but the guys were sticking to the course and not getting their heads down," he added.

Friday was also senior night for the Cobras, and Mason Hamilton, with a pair of touchdown scores, was "definitely our MVP for the night," Wick said.

The scoring began in the first quarter with Jackson Heights picking up six on a 53-yard run by Mason Thomas, followed by Brady Holliday tacking on two more on the post-TD conversion. The Panthers tied it before the quarter expired on a 14-yard TD run and a conversion pass by Kamble Haverkamp.

The second quarter was all Hamilton and the Cobras, with Hamilton picking up a 36-yard TD run and a 44-yard TD run, taking the score to 22-0 at the half. The Panthers waited until the fourth quarter to add another six on another touchdown pass from Haverkamp.

In addition to Hamilton, who had 71 yards rushing on the night, Thomas carried the ball for 93 yards and Holliday rushed for 78, with the team totaling 297 rushing yards on 43 carries - not a bad average to close out the season, Wick said.

And even though the three non-league losses in the middle of the season were what kept the Cobras from a playoff spot, Wick said the fact that his team fought their best in those games - in addition to the NEK league title - are a fair trade-off.

"You look back and you hate to look at scores - we lost to Valley Heights by 4 and Washington County by 8 - but I think the kids know that we were right there with some of the toughest districts, top to bottom, in the state. I'm proud of them," Wick said.

The Cobras' defeat of the Panthers dropped Centralia to a final record of 1-8.

Wakefield proves tough to handle for Cards

By Michael Powls
The Wetmore Cardinals hosted Wakefield Thursday for their last eight-man football game of the 2016 season. The Cardinals lost 52-6.

After an 8-6 first quarter lead for Wakefield, the Bombers scored 30 points in the second quarter to take a 38-6 halftime lead.

Wetmore's only touchdown came on a fumble recovery that Ethan Osterhaus picked up and ran in during the first quarter.

"We played hard but Wakefield's size and speed was just too much to handle. The boys deserve credit for their efforts," Wetmore coach Rick Schnacker said. "We played with heart and determination. I am proud of these boys and their season. They deserve a lot of credit, as well as our community."

The Cardinals in the game had five first downs while Wakefield had 16.

Wetmore rushed the ball 22 times for net -1 yard. Joel Huffles rushed the ball seven times for -26 yards. Garret Evans rushed 13 times for 32 yards he also had one pass reception for 10 yards. Alex Potter rushed two times for -7 yards. He also had one pass reception for 26 yards. Tyler Vance had four pass receptions for 91 yards.

Wakefield rushed 42 times for 259 yards.

The Cardinals passed the ball 15 times for six catches and 127 yards while the Bombers passed 11 times for six catches and 168 yards.

Wetmore threw two interceptions while Wakefield threw one.

Wetmore had 106 punting yards. Wakefield had 24.

Wetmore did not fumble but Wakefield fumbled the ball twice and lost both.

The Cardinals had three penalties for 10 yards and Wakefield had nine penalties for 88 yards.

Defensively, Huffles had 16 tackles and one QB sack. Osterhaus had 12 tackles and a fumble recovery for a touchdown. Evans had eight tackles. Potter had 11 tackles. Vance had 10 tackles and one interception. Jonathan Hladkey-Bailey had five tackles. Kyle Bloom had eight tackles. Britton Myers had seven tackles and one QB sack.

Wakefield - 8-30-14-0 - 52
Wetmore - 6-0-0-0 - 6

RV coach proud of Panthers

Royal Valley head coach Jake Lott says he was proud of his football team's improvement over the season. The Panthers fell to the unbeaten and state-ranked Silver Lake Eagles recently, ending their hopes for a Class 3A football playoff berth.

After a scoreless first quarter, Silver Lake scored 14 points in the second quarter and led by that score at halftime.

The Panthers also kept the visiting Eagles off the scoreboard in the third quarter, but in the fourth the Eagles scored 36 points to win 50-0.

The Panthers finished with an overall record of 3-6.

"I thought we gave a really good effort in the first half of the ball game against Silver Lake," RV coach Lott said afterwards. "We played with great intensity. In the second half, Silver Lake got its passing game going and it was hard for us to stop a few routes with their athletes."

Coach Lott said the Panthers had their chances in the game.

"We had chances to make a few big plays to keep the game close but we just couldn't quite do it," he said. "The offense struggled to maintain drives or make a big play, which put pressure on our defense to bail us out of a few holes. In the second half, we had a few chances for interceptions that we let slip away and which Silver Lake turned into points."

Overall, coach Lott, the Panthers showed improvement.

"I thought the kids improved throughout the season and really stayed resilient throughout the year," he said. "We continued to practice hard and competed to get better every week. I appreciate the effort of our seniors this year even though they wanted a few more wins. I think with a year of hard work our young kids will be ready to come back next year with the goal of making the playoffs."

Royal Valley statistics vs. Silver Lake

Total Offense - 62 plays for 166 yards.

Rushing - 53 carries for 156 yards.

Passing - Nine completions for 10 yards.

First downs - 10.

Individual Rushing
Garrett Rodewald - 22 carries for 88 yards.

Kyle Stithem - 14 carries for 49 yards.

Noah Ensley - eight carries for 19 yards.

Dillon Smith - nine carries for 25 yards.

Defensive statistics - Tackles - Hayden Fenske 5, Ensley 4, Ninahii Frisby 4, Brian Shane 4, Jacob Box 6 (plus a sack and interception), Kenny Aitkens 5 and Blake Garrison 4.

Last night, Tuesday, in Class 3A playoff action involving area football teams, Nemaha Central blasted Pleasant Ridge 61-6 in Class 3A playoff action. Silver Lake beat Mission Valley 50-0. Sabetha beat Maur Hill 62-28. Rossville beat Perry-Leocompton 41-14.

Holton's Tanking excelling for Kansas State Wildcats football team

MANHATTAN – Tyler Lockett, Morgan Burns and now Byron Pringle. All kick return specialists at Kansas State, and all have garnered national attention from their success scoring on special teams that has unofficially deemed K-State as "Special Teams U" across the country.

It is not just those returners who do the work. Sure, they make nice moves to break long returns for touchdowns or establish good field position for the K-State offense, but it would not be possible without the 10 men up front blocking. It would not be possible without players such as Trent Tanking.

Tanking, a 6-2, 224-pound junior from Holton, is a linebacker for the Wildcats, but due to depth at the position, he has found his main contribution on special teams. It's a role he embraces.

"It wasn't too hard for me because I grew up a K-State fan and I just wanted to do anything and everything I could to help us win," Tanking said. "They told me my job was to go to be a play-maker on special teams."

"We've had great returners since I've been here between Lockett, Morgan and now Byron. Anytime they can make a play and go score or I can make a tackle, it's well worth it."

At Holton, Tanking was named the Class 4A Defensive Player of the Year in Kansas and was named to The Topeka Capital-Journal's All-State Top-11. He led the Wildcats to the 4A state championship in 2012 and was a Shrine Bowl selection in 2013.

Tanking needed help from his coaches to understand his new role at K-State. "Linebackers coach (Mike) Cox helps out with punt and kickoff, then obviously Sean (Snyder)," Tanking said. "He put me in there as a freshman to help me learn the ways of some guys that went before me, guys like Weston Hiebert and Jonathan Truman and all those guys who have played before me. He just kind of tried to show me some of the stuff they've done and I try to just emulate them and do the best I could."

Tanking quickly adapted to the role. He had nine total tackles as a redshirt freshman in 2014, including two tackles for loss. He had seven total last season and already has 10 this season.

While his numbers do not pop off the stat sheet, his hard work has not gone unnoticed. After arriving at K-State as a walk-on, Tanking was rewarded with a scholarship entering his third year. "It was amazing because you work so hard," he said. "All these guys that are walk-ons now, I just have the utmost respect for because I know what they go through having to pay and go through all the workouts and stuff."

"It was the greatest feeling. I couldn't wait to be able to call my parents and tell them I did it."

The process of working his way into a scholarship wasn't easy. The challenge of working just as hard as scholarship players while not having the guarantee of playing time can scare some people away from the program.

Once the light at the end of the tunnel showed itself, Tanking said all of the hard work was worth it.

"I feel like every walk-on has that point where you're wondering (if it's worth it)," he said. "You go to school and you see all these other students who are doing other things and you know you're paying for school just like they are while doing (football)."

"Being able to play on Saturdays makes it so much worth it. Being able to make a play, make a tackle and have 50,000 fans scream, getting to celebrate with your teammates makes it worth it."

"It definitely adds to the motivation to be able to come out and play well," Tanking said. "We want to beat everybody on our schedule."

Trent is the son of Andy and Karla Tanking.

Jessepe overall football pick 'em winner

By Michael Powls

Jessepe correctly picked the winners of the most games out of 162 possible games. He picked 97. He won $100 and a one-year subscription to The Recorder.

Earl Bahret came in second place with 95 total correct games out of 162. Jim Dodson and Rob Olmsted both tied for third place by picking 92 total games correct.

Joe Visocsy came in fourth place by picking 80 total games correct. Dan Pollock came in fifth place by picking 79 total games correct.

Thank you to all who participated and congratulations to all who won.

Crops and Soils

Start broadleaf control now

By David G. Hallauer
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent

Crops & Soils/Horticulture

As I walked across the lawn as the sun came up this morning, I saw them: cool season broadleaf weeds!

In particular, the white clover and dandelion caught my attention. I shouldn't have been surprised – it is that time of year!

Through early November is a great time to implement broadleaf weed control programs in lawns.

Dandelions likely started growth back in September with henbit and chickweed germinating in October. That means they should all be up and growing – yet are small and easily controlled with herbicides.

Even established dandelions are more easily controlled now than in the spring because they are actively moving materials from the top portion of the plant to the roots in the fall.

Products like 2, 4-D or combination products (Trimec, Weed-B-Gon, Weed-Out) that contain 2, 4-D, MCPP and Dicamba are all good options. Herbicides will translocate to the roots as well, killing plants from the roots up.

Choose a day that is 50 degrees or higher since the better the weed is growing, the more weed killer will be moved from the leaves to the roots. Cold temperatures will slow or stop this process.

Weed Free Zone (also sold under the name of Speed Zone) contains the three active ingredients mentioned above, plus carfentrazone. It will give a quicker response than the other products mentioned especially as temperatures approach 50 degrees.

Fall Tree Color

Fall means a change in leaf color from green to all kinds of shades of red, purple, yellow, orange and brown. It happens as the green color from chlorophyll is replaced by various other plant pigments. Sometimes, however, it doesn't happen quite as "vividly" as we'd like!

The reason we don't have

"New England colors" here is in part because we don't have the same trees they do in the east. Certain oaks and maples there produce good color that ours don't always mimic.

A second reason is weather. Warm, sunny days and cool nights are what makes for good color. Sunny days encourage photosynthesis and sugar accumulation in leaves. As fall progresses, each leaf develops an abscission layer at the base of the leaf that prevents these sugars from being transported down the trunk to the roots for storage.

If we can keep the leaf's sugar content high, we can get some intense colors! On the other hand, cloudy days and warm nights tend to prevent some of the sugar accumulation in the leaves and results in less vibrant colors.

Heavy rains in the early spring or hot, dry weather during the summer can both have a deleterious effect on fall color as well, even though those weather extremes are often long forgotten by fall.

Enjoy the colors while they last! Once frosts and freezes set in, the colors (other than brown!) will likely be short lived!

Fenceline: Consider protein costs

By Jody G. Holthaus
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent

Livestock-Natural Resources

Margins are tight for cattlemen and farmers this year. They are scrutinizing all purchases, and as good managers, they need to get the most bang for their buck!

When comparing costs, they need to consider the cost per pound of protein, not just the cost per ton. There can be wide gaps in the differences.

The first step is to get the feed converted to an as-fed basis. This is the way feed is purchased. To convert the protein content from a dry matter basis to an as-fed basis, just multiply the percent protein by the percent of dry matter in the feed.

For example: Calculate the protein content of corn gluten that is 25.6 percent protein on a dry basis to an as-fed basis. Assuming that corn gluten is 90 percent dry matter, multiply 25.6 percent by 90 percent. This will equal 23.04 percent on an as-fed basis.

Now compare the cost of two protein supplements. Compare 48 percent soybean meal selling for $352 per ton, and 25.6 percent corn gluten that sells for $170 per ton. The calculation to convert the corn gluten was done up above, so we can now compare the two.

First you need to know the pounds of protein in each feed. So you multiply the percent protein times 2,000 pounds (1 ton).

2,000 X .48 = 960 pounds crude protein in soybean meal.
2,000 X .23 = 460 pounds crude protein in corn gluten.

Next, calculate the cost per pound of crude protein. This is done by dividing the cost per ton by the pounds of protein in a ton of feed.

$352/960 = 36 cents per pound of crude protein in soybean meal.

$170/460 = 37 cents per pound of crude protein in corn gluten.

In this example, the lower cost per ton protein source (corn gluten) was actually the higher costs supplement when comparing on an actual cost per pound of protein.

Although it was only a penny, you can see the difference. Each time you are making a purchase, make this calculation.

If you need more information, give me a call at the Extension office.

Kientz Corner

On Oct. 23, the Pleasant Hill United Methodist Church congregation opened its worship service by singing "O Worship The King."

The announcements were: The annual church conference will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 9; the youth lock-in will be held at 5:30 p.m. on Nov. 11 to 10 a.m. on Nov. 12 (open to grades seven through 12); and Boy Scout Troop 193 is taking orders for trash bags (deadline is Nov. 6).

The birthdays for Oct. 23 through Oct. 29: Taylor Cartolano and Marty Ransdell, Oct. 23; Susie Forman, Oct. 25; and Patty Chilton, Oct. 29. The anniversary for the week was Michael and Angie Smith, Oct. 28.

The concerns were prayers for Tammy Brownfield, who will have surgery this week; Roberta Henley, who is having health problems; Annie McDowell's father, who was to have shoulder surgery on Oct. 24; the family of Clayton Cochran; the family of Helen Germann; the family of William Ray; and the family of Duane Reed.

The children's story was given by Kevin McDowell. He asked, "Have you played the tower game?" He placed a Lego block on top of each other after he said something good about himself. They were: "I go to church regularly," "I read my Bible regularly," "I give an offering regularly," "I say my prayers every day" and "I am kind to others." Then the tower of Legos fell over. Remember, if you brag, you may fall. Let us thank God every day for everything we have.

The adult bell choir played "Lead On, O King Eternal." Those playing bells were Susan Arnold, Kristy Beatty, Betty Domer, Kay Jones-Ray, Kyle Marakas, Danette Martin, Annie McDowell, Kelly Neiman, Barbara Slimmer and Val Warken-tine. They were directed by Greg Baldwin.

Judy Glasgow read the scriptures Numbers 14:1-10, 26-30 and Luke 17:11-19.

The sermon "Generosity Grounded In Gratitude" was given by the Rev. Hyun-Jin Cho. Has your gratitude been washed away? Let us be thankful for the many things we have: our family, our church, our friends, our health and our community.

Sometimes we complain because we do not have as much as we think we should have. What has God done for you? Let us give thanks to God for all that we have. God loves us and provides us.

There was a collection of "Leaves Of Gratitude." The closing hymn was "Here I Am, Lord."

Those assisting with the service were Judy Glasgow, liturgist; Greg Baldwin, organist; Deb Mannell, sound system; Betty Domer, song leader; Brayden and Hailee Gower, acolytes; and Gary Domer, Ron Griffiths, Mark Searles and Brian Smith, usher team.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5008

A PROPOSITION to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto, relating to the public right to hunt, fish and trap wildlife.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection. The bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 21. Right of public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife. The people have the right to hunt, fish and trap, including by the use of traditional methods, subject to reasonable laws and regulations that promote wildlife conservation and management and that preserve the future of hunting and fishing. Public hunting and fishing shall be a preferred means of managing and controlling wildlife. This section shall not be construed to modify any provision of law relating to trespass, eminent domain or any other private property rights."

Section 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment is to preserve constitutionally the right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife subject to reasonable laws and regulations. The right of the public to hunt, fish and trap shall not modify any provision of common law or statutes relating to trespass, eminent domain or any other private property rights."

"A vote for this proposition would constitutionally preserve the right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife that has traditionally been taken by hunters, trappers and anglers. This public right is subject to state laws and rules and regulations regarding the management of wildlife and does not change or diminish common law or statutory rights relating to trespass, eminent domain or private property."

"A vote against this proposition would provide for no constitutional right of the public to hunt, fish and trap wildlife. It would maintain existing state laws and rules and regulations governing hunting, fishing and trapping wildlife."

New Life Church

By Janice Kneisley

In his Sunday sermon at New Life Church of the Nazarene, Pastor Kevin Kneisley said, "God often works from the inside out. There are changes He wants to make in us before He changes the world through us. This inside-out way of Jesus can be hard to understand, frustrating, slow, and painful. But when Jesus works from the inside out, the end product is even better than we could have imagined."

In his series, "The Inside-Out Way of Jesus," Kneisley preached that when Jesus was on earth, there was a lot of directional confusion. People had confused up with down. They relied on their instincts and joined in the direction everyone else seemed to be going.

They spent incredible amounts of energy, effort, and resources trying to get to the top, to climb the ladder, to reach a certain status. But, he said, Jesus shows us that they, and we, have gotten turned around.

In children's church, children read a parable about a pumpkin and learned that no matter what size, or gooey mess a pumpkin entails, God loves us and accepts us. He wants His light to shine through us, just like a candle in a pumpkin.

Netawaka UMC

By Mary E. Edwards

Oct. 30 was cloudy and pretty on the drive to Netawaka United Methodist Church. Headlights had to be on to be seen on the road.

Sunday was Reformation Sunday. Doris Oxandale served as greeter, candle lighter and offertory usher. Marilyn Banaka was worship leader; Verona Grannell was in charge of recorded music.

Marilyn gave the welcome and announcements and invited the sharing of joys and concerns. Jim Banaka was happy to report none of his family is in any hospital. Prayers are in order for the upcoming election Nov. 8.

Pastor Young offered prayer for the concerns of the congregation and others who are in need, especially those in hospitals, nursing homes, or confined to their homes.

The responsive call to worship and the psalter were led by Marilyn.

The hymns were "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" (written by Martin Luther), "Open My Eyes That I May See" and "Grace Greater Than Our Sin."

The scripture lesson was Romans 1:16-17, which tells us the gospel is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes.

Pastor Young Won's sermon was "The Righteous Will Live By Faith." We observe Reformation Sunday in memory of Martin Luther, who saw things being promoted in the church which were not scriptural and did not serve God or people. The reason for the sale of indulgences was to build beautiful churches. Luther found answers in the scriptures and protested.

John Wesley, founder of Methodism, was also a reformer, as were many others in the history of churches who preached the gospel.

Christians are called to be reformers, to review our faith day by day as we read the scriptures. Know that salvation is a gift of God by His grace. The gospel wins everything. The spirit of reformation is in the power of the gospel. Pastor Young gave the benediction.

50th wedding anniversary

Jim and Thelma (Heiman) Bowhay, members of St. Dominic Parish of Holton, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on Nov. 5.

They were married at Sacred Heart Church in Baileyville. They hosted a dinner for family on July 10 to celebrate.

Their children are David and Carla Bowhay of Netawaka, Cheryl and Scott Gales of Topeka, Laura and Rich Rusich of Hibbing, Minn. and Dean and Jenny Bowhay of Netawaka. They also have 11 grandchildren.

Capsey family reunion enjoyed

The annual W.H Capsey reunion was held at the Soldier Community Hall on Sunday, Sept. 24. There was a good turnout with 56 signing in. Out of W.H and Ella Capsey's eight children, two are still with us, and both were able to attend the reunion.

Lela Kroh from Kansas City had two of her children, Sandra Lester and her daughter, Stacy Rose, and her son, Alex, all from Platte City, Mo., and Kenneth Grigsby and his wife, Melody, from Plattsmouth, Neb.

Winnie Pollock had her two children in attendance, Dan and his wife, Carol Pollock, from Havensville, two of their daughters, Carrie and her husband, Matt Baxter, with their three children, Charley Sue, Reese and Mitchell of Hutchinson, Sara and her husband, Danny Phillip, and their two children, Bryson and Elle, all of Topeka, and Janet Trainor from Santa Fe, Mo.

Sadly, we lost Betty Rieschick in May of this year, shortly after her 93rd birthday and 72nd wedding anniversary. Her husband, Claude, had all four of their children present: Wayne and his wife, Theresa, from Soldier; their son, Duane, and his wife, Robin, with five foster children, Marquez and Sheldon Conley, Ashton, Noah and Skylar Hammer from Holton; LeRoy and his wife, Linda, from Soldier; Claudia and her husband, Dale Long, from Meriden; their daughter, Jill, and her husband, Kris Tuck, and their children, Olivia, Marcy, Halle and Max, all of Topeka; and Tony Rieschick from Holton.

Boyd Allen from Topeka was able to make it, along with both of his sons, Mike, also from Topeka, and Ron and his friend, Mary Shelton, from Lawrence. The only other member of the Allen family was Vance Allen from Topeka.

Mary Lee Stephens from Seneca, Ed Sourk and his wife, Helen, from Hiawatha had two of their children and families in attendance: Sara from Seneca and nieces Claire and Ella Sourk from Goff; and Grant Sourk and his wife, Jennifer, with their two children, Carter and Elliott, from Topeka.

We were very glad to see Connie (Capsey) Kinman and her husband from Clarinda, Iowa. It was the first time in many years that they made a reunion. What a great time catching up on the family, and the children enjoyed the playground at the hall. The food was plentiful as usual. Old family photos were enjoyed by all. Next year's reunion will be held on the last Sunday of September.

Buck's Grove

By Betty Bernitter
Oct. 30 was a cloudy day but it didn't dampen the spirits of the Buck's Grove-Circleville Ministry congregations that met at Buck's Grove for a brunch and worship service.

Aralynn and Emberlee Allen (granddaughters of David and Evelyn Allen) rang the bell as their sister, Amariah Allen, lighted the altar candles. The recorded prelude was provided by Denny and Donna Ashcraft. Pastor Charlotte Milroy asked for announcements and led the congregation in the call to worship, opening prayer and Psalm 119.

Charlotte read scripture from Habakkuk 1:1-4 and 2 Thesalonians 1:1-4, 11-12. Hymns sung were "How Great Thou Art," "Standing On The Promises" and "God Of The Ages."

Charlotte's children message was timely with Halloween being the next day. She suggested Keith and Rosanna Wilson took Rosanna's mother, Marge Hundley, to Prairie Lake on Saturday, Oct. 15, for a memorial and dedication service for Jerry Hundley. A burr oak tree has been planted and a bench installed in his honor.

Rosanna Wilson took her grandson, Dillon Childs, and his friends, Jace Robinson and J.W. Moore, to Chuck-E Cheese and the Orange Leaf in Topeka on Thursday, Oct. 20, to celebrate Dillon's 10th birthday.

Keith and Rosanna Wilson attended the Seaman football game Friday evening, Oct. 21. Their granddaughter, Adora Rhyne, is a cheerleader and marching band member. It was their senior night honors.

Keith and Rosanna Wilson attended the last football game of the season for their grandson, Dillon Childs, on Saturday, Oct. 22. Dillon has had a good season and is looking forward to the next season.

Kenny Wykert went to Topeka to see his brother, Gerald Wykert, on Thursday, Oct. 27. Their brother, Bob, also joined them and they enjoyed several games of cribbage before Kenny returned home in the evening.

Barbara Hutchinson attended the Jackson Country Historical Society program on a student project of the "Unsung Heroes" at Royal Valley Middle School on Saturday, Oct. 29. Instructor Nate McAlister and three students, Colin Caviness, Colin Everts and Luke Boyden, explained the research that they did for this project.

This project was sent in to the Lowell Milken Center and they won a certificate and a check for their school. This project was about an American nurse, Emma Darling Cushman, who saved the lives of thousands of Armenian orphans.

Also, the group viewed a 10-minute video of "A Light In The Darkness." Along with the members of the Historical Society, several parents attended.

The Circleville Trunk N Treat drew a large crowd with more than 100 kids in various costumes coming out for candy from the many vehicles that were lined up on both sides of the driveway. The event was held on Saturday evening, Oct. 29 at the Circleville Gym. There were also some very tasty grilled hot dogs or chili dogs and cookies that all enjoyed.

Maxine Lewis, Lori Burdick and Afton Burdick were guests at our home for lunch on Sunday, Oct. 30. We were celebrating Bob's birthday.

Jay and Carol Buehler served as greeters at the door for the combined service on Oct. 30. Blair Wagner gave the welcome and announcements and the opening prayer of praise. Music was provided by the praise team of Lori Mellenbruch, Carrie Holliday, Lori Thomas, David Allen, Jake Spalding, Lyle Alley and Travis Self.

Paul Davault invited Blair Wagner and Brody Bliss to come forward as they were recognized for Pastor Appreciation Month.

David Allen gave the communion meditation using text from Ecclesiastes 4:9-12. Communion servers were Travis Self, Larry Self Jr. Bill Dyer, Mark Fenton, Greg Beecher and Tim Peterson. Lori Thomas provided the lovely piano music as communion was served.

Lyle Alley gave the prayer for the offering and Blair Wagner gave the prayer for concerns and praises.

Brody Bliss used text from Revelation 3:14-21 as he finished up his sermon series on the "Seven Churches in Asia." Sunday's sermon was on the church of Laodicea. They were a church that was all about themselves. They were self reliant and lukewarm in their spiritual walk.

Self-reliance can cause a lukewarm relationship with God. Love and discipline go together, God disciplines us out of love. God gives us the choice to repent and change courses if we need to, before it is too late. Our mission is to focus on Christ and His Kingdom.

A fellowship dinner was held at the church following the service and then the blue rock shoot and fellowship afternoon was held at the Don Jr. and Tammy Askren farm.

Vote "no" on Supreme judges listed here

Dear editor,
We are lifelong Kansans and we proudly call Pratt our hometown.

In December of 2000, our brother, Jason Befort, was brutally murdered by Jonathan and Reginald Carr. Jason was only 26, and was a beloved public school teacher for Augusta schools, where he loved to coach sports.

In 2002, the Carr brothers were found guilty and sentenced to death by a jury of their peers. Sixteen years later, we are still at the first step in the appeal process. The Kansas Supreme Court approved dozens of continuances to the Carrs' lawyers and ultimately in 2014 – shocking the entire state – overturned the death sentences of the brothers based on technicalities.

Two years later, the United States Supreme Court reversed the Kansas Supreme Court in an 8-1 decision and restored the death sentences of the Carr brothers. Unfortunately, the fight for justice continues as our case is back in the hands of the Kansas Supreme Court pending further appeals by the Carr brothers.

What many do not know is we are not the only families hurting; in fact, this Kansas Supreme Court has overturned the sentences of every death penalty case until this year where they final upheld a sentence. Other cases include the Greenwood County Sheriff, who was killed in the line of duty by a drug dealer who had his death sentence and conviction overturned; another is a mother and her one-year-old child who were brutally murdered by Michael Lee Marsh whose death sentence was overturned; and the family of a young girl who was raped by an adult male when she was only 13 years old whose life sentence in prison was thrown out by this Kansas Supreme Court just this September.

The justices and their supporters are spreading false statements about our motives. One falsehood is our cause will help the governor gain control of the court. That could not be further from the truth! We do not support Gov. Brownback – this is merely a scare tactic and does not give Kansas voters the full process. A nine-member commission, the majority of which are lawyers picked by the Kansas Bar, interview and choose three finalists, of which the governor chooses one of those finalists for the justice position. We heard from Supreme Court Justice Marla Luckert herself that the process by which the justices are chosen is fair and that the governor does not have control of that process.

Another false statement is that we must keep these justices to protect our education system. Education is very important to all of our families. We have been strong proponents and faithful supporters of our public school district.

My father-in-law dug the first scoops of dirt to build our school and served on the school board. My children attended this public school, my brother-in-law now serves on the school board, my daughter-in-law is a teacher and my wife serves as president of our school foundation.

Had the Supreme Court been following the law instead of overturning death penalty sentences, that money could have been better spent on our children's education. Instead, our hard-earned tax dollars are being spent on attorneys to defend these monsters. We would never promote anything that would hurt education.

Our mission is to help Kansans become aware of the misuse of the court's power. If one of these victims were your child, your sister, your spouse, how would you vote on the justices? Please vote no on the retention of Kansas Supreme Court Justices Carol Beier, Dan Biles, Lawton Nuss and Marla Luckert, who are directly responsible for these terrible decisions. Kansans deserve better.

Sincerely,
Mark and Lisa Befort Pratt

Immanuel Lutheran Church

By Esther L. Ideker
Reformation Sunday was observed at Immanuel Lutheran Church with new red altar paraments adding to the celebration on Oct. 29.

Mike Keehn, elder, led Divine Service 1 with Psalm 5 read responsively. "Lord, Keep Us Steadfast In Your Word" was the opening hymn.

Elder Topher Dohl read the Old Testament lesson from Revelation chapter 14 and the Epistle lesson from Romans chapter 3. Mike Keehn read the Holy Gospel from John 8:31-36, which was also the sermon text. The sermon hymn was "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

"Free In Jesus" was the title of the sermon. With the universal Christian church, the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod teaches and responds to the love of the Triune God, the Father, creator of all that exists; Jesus Christ, the Son, who became human to suffer and die for the sins of all human beings and rise to life again in the ultimate victory over death and Satan; and the Holy Spirit, who creates faith through God's Word and Sacraments.

The three persons of the trinity are coequal and coeternal, one God. Our congregation accepts and preaches the Bible-based teachings of Martin Luther that inspired the reformation of the Christian Church in the 16th century. The teaching of Luther and the reformers can be summarized in three phrases: Grace alone, faith alone, scripture alone.

In the explanation of the second article of the Apostles' Creed, Luther was bold to write, "who redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own..."

We confess that we are free only and solely because of Jesus. We can neither buy nor merit our forgiveness and salvation; it is only in Jesus that we are free.

The congregation professed The Nicene Creed. In the prayers of the church, strength was asked to persevere in the faith and to accomplish His purposes; protection was asked for missionaries around the world; for the men and women in the Armed Forces and their families; peace for our troubled world; comfort for the ill and bereaved in their affliction; and for our congregation as we move forward seeking a Pastor. The congregation joined in The Lord's Prayer.

The offering ushers were Topher Dohl and Doug Amon. A congregational meeting was held following the service with Doug Amon as chairman. The Rev. Michael Van Velzer will be with us next Sunday for worship service with Holy Communion.

If one of the VICTIMS was your family member or best friend?

HOW WOULD YOU VOTE ON THE KANSAS SUPREME COURT?

This Kansas Supreme Court has overturned the death sentences of some of Kansas' worst murderers and rapists.

- ▶ Jonathan and Reginald Carr who raped and murdered 5 young people.
- ▶ Scott Cheever who killed a cop in rural Kansas in cold blood.
- ▶ Michael Lee Marsh who murdered a mother and her one-year-old child.
- ▶ Sidney Gleason who was convicted of killing a young couple in Great Bend.

The Kansas Supreme Court is a national embarrassment and the most overturned court in the nation on criminal cases.

Mayetta Methodist Church

By Shirley Stauffer
Church services on Oct. 23 at Mayetta Methodist Church began with Cory Smith as the acolyte and Cody Smith ringing the bell. This was the 16th Sunday after Pentecost. A prayer was said by Pastor Howard to begin the service, followed by call to worship from Psalms 78:1-4.

Announcements made were a reminder of the planning meeting to be held at Mary Anderson's home at 6 p.m. on Nov. 4. Prayer concerns are for David Oakley who had surgery, but is doing well.

The living word of God was from John 1:18 and was read by Mary Anderson. Hymns included "Come Thou Fount Of Every Blessing," "Take My Life And Let it Be" and "Blessed Assurance." The special was "It Is Well With My Soul."

The children's message was "Pray And Be Thankful." Pastor's message taken from Colossians 1:15-28 was titled "Can I Be Better Than I Am?" Services closed with the circle of friendship.

Upcoming events: The planning meeting at Mary Anderson's home, and the charge conference at the Mayetta church on Nov. 20.

Mary Anderson and MaRyka Smith spent Saturday afternoon running errands and shopping in Topeka. They had supper at Spangles before coming home.

Several church members attended the soup supper and music program at Potawatomi United Methodist Church on Saturday evening. By Shirley Stauffer

The 17th Sunday after Pentecost, also known as Reformation Sunday, was a cool morning. Church services on Oct. 30 at Mayetta Methodist Church began with greetings and announcements.

Liz Smith brought cinnamon rolls as a thank you for all who supported her during her trying time this last month. The annual planning meeting will be held at 6 p.m. on Nov. 4 at Mary Anderson's home. A potluck meal will be followed by the yearly meeting.

During a time of sharing of joys and concerns, it was announced that Laura Snyder's son had died, Jim Harden is doing good after undergoing toe surgery, June Schlodder's family needs prayers and Wanda White has a new great-great-nephew. Pastor called the congregation to worship, followed by prayer.

Randy Rickel was acolyte. Hymns sung were "Rock Of Ages, Cleft For Me," "Just As I Am Without One Plea" and "Where He Leads Me." The special was "I Know Whom I Have Believed."

Karen Burns read the living word of God from Jeremiah 9:24. The offering was taken up by Randy Rickel and the birthday song was sung to Karen Burns. Pastor's word of God came from Jeremiah 31:31-34 and his sermon was titled "God's Unbroken Promise." Services closed with the circle of friendship.

Mary Anderson and Lisa Smith attended the monthly meeting of the 21 Book Club held on Monday, Oct. 24 at Perkins Restaurant. Karsen Smith and Mary Anderson went to the Topeka Zoo on Friday. They also did some shopping before going to a movie. It was a great day spent with her grandson.

On Friday, Oct. 28, funeral services were held in Horton for Allen Hallauer, a brother of June Schlodder.

June Schlodder had her son, Gary Brown, of Mesa, Ariz., visit for a couple of days. Gary participated in the funeral service for his uncle, Allen Hallauer.

On Wednesday morning, June received a call saying her brother, Gene Hallauer, had been admitted to the Manhattan hospital with severe bronchitis and pneumonia. June, Gary Brown and Kathleen Ramirez visited him on Saturday afternoon. He will be hospitalized for several more days. He can use our prayers for a complete recovery.

Ted and Elaine Hubach visited June Schlodder for a while on Saturday. It is always a joy to share a cup of coffee with friends.

Bud and Shirley Stauffer and Roy and Bev Kranz attended the funeral services for their cousin, Allen, Hallauer on Friday.

The prayer covenant church this week is Holton First United Methodist.

MORE FACTS

FACT: Road and Bridge did NOT add an additional position to its budget. The Inventory/Parts/Custodian employee filled a position opened by a retirement in the shop. The county now has complete inventory control and accountability and an employee that can run for parts, saving our mechanic's valuable time for work in the shop.

FACT: The well at the shop is capable of providing all water that will be needed, including a future wash bay. There will be NO NEED for a rural water meter or line at the road and bridge shop.

FACT: The shop repairs and maintains all county vehicles and equipment unless its warranty work or computer diagnostics are required. Very little work is done off site.

If you are being told information contrary to these facts, you are being misinformed.

These are just three of the many things I've read that are incorrect.

I can't afford an ad large enough to address them all.

Unfortunately, there has been too much county equipment, infrastructure,

R&B shop and maintenance, etc. that has been neglected for years.

None of that can be ignored forever. Putting off improvements, maintenance and necessary upgrades "for the next guys" in office is no way to run a business or a county.

It does not save the taxpayers, it only costs more in the future.

There is a difference between being a responsible commissioner and a reckless spender.

I have made decisions based on information that comes with the full-time job of serving as a Jackson County Commissioner. I would appreciate your vote on November 8th and the opportunity to continue to serve the citizens of Jackson County. Thank you.

VOTE

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

THIRD DISTRICT

PEOPLE OVER POLITICS

I take this position very seriously and try every day to deserve the trust you have placed in my hands. As your commissioner, I promise to always have the best interest of Jackson County in all my decisions, but it takes time to identify and implement positive change. I have worked hard over the last four years to make those positive improvements in our county.

We are putting new guidelines in place and hiring a new administrator to oversee the road and bridge department, moving some employees around, and budgeting an additional $100,000 for rock. I feel I can, with your vote, continue to improve conditions over the next four years.

Not one of my opponents have attended a commission meeting to gain insight into the true work involved in running a county. You can't just listen to friend chatter or read the newspaper to have all the information you need to truly understand.

I ask for your vote on November 8th.

Taming raspberries and drifting along

By Sandra M. Siebert
My wrists bear multiple scratches from my current project of taming the black raspberry patch. It would have been much easier had I started when the black raspberries were young and teachable.

If I had pounded the posts and strung the wire for a trellis on which to tie the canes when the plants were small and I could actually see where the original rows were, it would have been easier. If I had pruned the ends to keep them from taking root they would not be in the current tangled sprawl.

While struggling through the tangle to pick berries early this summer I vowed to come back later and put things in order.

Well it's later - much later - much, much later - and I am slowly making my way through the wild thicket. With the first couple of hours work I had cleared about 15 feet of alleyway between two rows. Emerging from the tangle, I saw that was only a third of the way through. Back to work.

Although the task seems monumental, I just drift along while pruning and pulling the brambles, stop a while and drift onto something else. The magnificent autumn weather has made every task so much easier. With this attitude, one doesn't "tackle" a task. Even the relatively violent acts of cutting and uprooting the raspberry canes feel gentle on these days, especially since the soil in which they are planted is so soft.

I've loved this long, drawn out autumn, feeling no rush to get things done as I ready the garden for winter and tend to the late crops. Autumn lettuce (some of it a deep, rich red), Asian greens, carrots and beets line up prettily in one recently weeded bed. A bit of hay mulch between the rows and the weeds won't sprout again so quickly. The chard that has been growing all summer stands tall and stately, with leaves of dark green and brilliantly colored ribs.

And the nasturtiums - we sing praises of the nasturtiums every day. The mounds of round leaves that I thought would never take hold, and in fact might die when the heat was more intense have become billowy mounds bearing jewel-colored flowers - more each day. Such brilliance of color! And a spicy pop of flavor to garnish our meals.

When I pick nasturtiums, I find it difficult to stop. Such a lovely bright orange! Look at this one, all stripy in yellow and orange and red. Golden yellow blossoms with bright red in the center. Pale yellow blossoms. Orange-red ones. Rich velvety red blossoms hiding beneath pale green leaves.

Beneath the white row cover grow Chinese cabbage and bok choy plants that elicit gasps of awe when I pull back the cover for harvest. I can pick leafy greens of several varieties every day for salads or cooked dishes. I may find luscious heads of broccoli the next time I peek into another covered bed.

Yet with all of the abundance, I do not find myself in a rush and flurry of harvest and preservation.

When freezing weather threatens, I won't be out desperately picking green tomatoes and wondering what to do with them. I put them out of their misery a few weeks ago. Although the pole beans have revived and started producing again, they're coming down. Just a bit at a time. Every so often I get a handful of pods from them, but soon they'll be gone and the trellis tucked away.

Some growing areas have been cleared and either planted with cover crops of oats and crimson clover, or covered with a deep mulch of hay. In spite of all the weeding I've done, quite a bit more is left to do. But I take it one small area at a time. An hour here, an hour there and things move smoothly. I feel no pressure, no rush. I get up late - by my standards, anyway - take my time to prepare and eat breakfast. No rush. No pressure. And lovely, lovely weather.

I could get used to this. Working outdoors, even if it's the same old weeding and hauling stuff in wheelbarrows, seems like such a treat in this weather - my reward for sweating through the summer. I suppose it would eventually get rather boring if the weather were always like this, and if this pace of life were the norm. I suppose it would. That's kind of hard to imagine at the moment.

We've had a couple of frosts here, not freezing temperatures, but those anomalies of weather in which ice can coat surfaces even when the temperature remains above freezing. The "patchy frost" warnings had me scrambling to cover the most tender and precious things, such as the nasturtiums and bell peppers.

However, even the nasturtiums that didn't get covered survived with barely a singe. Although the frosts did no significant harm, they came as a reminder: Winter is on its way. We'll hit the freezing point soon enough. Time is short.

That realization doesn't cause me to hurry my tasks, but to take more time to enjoy the beauty of the brilliant purple morning glories climbing an abandoned tomato cage. Admire the robust beauty of the red malabar on the trellis by our back porch. Listen to the birds discussing travel plans or winter lodgings on an uncommonly lovely morning. Watch the colors of sunset change. Feel the sun on my skin. Pick more nasturtiums.

Then drift on back to the black raspberry patch.

Mock Election...

At Jackson Heights, school officials there have planned mock elections for students also.

Rotary sponsors mock elections for students to promote the voting process as a key part of American democracy, a fundamental right and responsibility.

Here is a breakdown of how each of the Royal Valley Middle School grades voted:

Sixth-graders favored Clinton for president by a 37-28 margin over Trump. Gary Johnson, the Libertarian, received four votes and Jill Stein, the Green Party candidate, received one vote.

RV sixth-graders also favored Moran for U.S. Senate by a 30-28 margin over Wiesner. Libertarian Robert Garrard received seven votes.

For the U.S. House of Representatives, Jenkins won the RV sixth-grade vote by a 43-17 margin over Potter. Libertarian James Bales received five votes.

For the Kansas House of Representatives seat, Van Wagoner won the RV sixth-grade vote 35 to 27 over Awerkamp.

For the Kansas Senate, RV sixth-graders picked Pyle over Henry by a 41-22 vote.

Seventh-graders favored Trump for president by a 24-15 margin over Clinton. Johnson received eight votes to three for Stein.

For U.S. Senate, Moran got the RV seventh-grade nod by a 32-17 margin over Wiesner. Garrard received five votes.

For U.S. Representative, RV seventh-graders picked Jenkins by a 34-14 margin over Potter. Bales received six votes.

For Kansas House of Representatives, Van Wagoner won with 30 votes from RV seventh-graders to 23 for Awerkamp.

For Kansas Senate, Pyle won the RV seventh-grade vote over Henry by a 36-18 margin.

The RV eighth-graders picked Trump for president by a 25-20 margin over Clinton. Johnson got nine votes to three for Stein.

Moran edged out Wiesner for U.S. Senate by a 27-25 vote with Garrard getting six votes from the RV eighth-graders.

Jenkins was the pick for U.S. House of Representatives by a 37-17 margin over Potter, according to the RV eighth-grade vote. Bales got eight votes.

Awerkamp was the RV eighth-grade pick for Kansas House of Representatives by a slim 30-28 margin over Van Wagoner.

For Kansas Senate, Pyle won 37-22 over Henry, among RV eighth-graders.

The RV fifth-graders picked Clinton for president by a 33-18 margin over Trump. Johnson got 12 votes to four for Stein.

Moran was the pick for U.S. Senate among RV fifth-graders by a margin of 36-16 over Wiesner. Garrard got seven votes.

Jenkins was the pick for U.S. House of Representatives by a 36-15 margin over Potter. Bales got nine votes.

Van Wagoner edged Awerkamp for the Kansas House seat by a 31-29 margin among RV fifth-graders.

Pyle was the Kansas Senate pick by a 44-15 margin over Henry in the RV fifth-grade vote.

Circleville Christian Church

By Jeannie Arnold
Roger and Kay Rethman served as greeters at the door for Cowboy Church at Circleville Christian Church on Oct. 23. Blair Wagner gave the announcements and the opening prayer. Music was provided by the praise team of Gary Bell, Dale and Ilah Rose Askren, David Allen, Max Lierz, Sandra Hurt and Paul and Sue Davault. David Allen gave the prayer for concerns and praises.

Paul Davault used text from Proverbs 3 as he gave the communion meditation. Communion servers were Donnie Askren, Ellsworth Hewitt, Mike Cochren and John Ray. The prayer for the offering was given by David Allen.

Tara Lierz provided the lovely clarinet music by playing "Blessed Assurance" while communion was served and "Everlasting Arms" as the offering was received.

Brody Bliss brought the morning sermon by using text from Revelation 3:7-13 about the church of "Philadelphia." The church of Philadelphia was a missionary church, focused on their purpose. They were a church focused on discipleship as they kept Christ's word.

That is what the churches of today need to be also. Be a church that prays for one another and do not deny Christ's name. Know His word and live according to it, staying committed. If we overcome, we will stand like a pillar before God. Jesus is the true light and anyone who wants eternal life must go through Him.

Oct. 30 is the church's fifth Sunday service and blue rock shoot. There will be one service at 10:30 a.m. with a potluck fellowship dinner to follow. The blue rock shoot will be held at the farm of Don Askren Jr. There will also be fishing for the younger crowd and we will plan to have coffee, cocoa, tea, pop and s'mores to enjoy during the afternoon.

Denison Bible Church

By Esther L. Hall
On Oct. 30, Denison Bible Church celebrated Pastor Appreciation Sunday. The four youngest children (ages six and below), Adley, Sophia, Greysen and Carter, presented Pastor Tom and Roxanne with a gift and cards from the congregation.

After the service, the congregation retired to the fellowship hall for fifth Sunday potluck and wonderful, toe tapping entertainment by the Halblieb family.

Pastor Tom's message, "One For All! All For One?" was based on Ezra 10:1-5. The introduction was "The Ministry Of Restoring Hope!"

God used Ezra to restore hope to Israel when they went back to a destroyed Jerusalem. The people didn't know if they could rebuild and restore their city.

They had no temple, no homes, no animals and no source of income. But Nehemiah led the people to rebuild the walls and return to a sense of normalcy in less than two months.

While Nehemiah led the people to build the walls and other structures, Ezra dealt with the people's spirituality. The people were making a new start but were disobeying and committing the same sins they had made before. Ezra called the people to repent, to change their lives and follow in God's will.

To restore hope, we must have God in our lives. God is the source of all hope. His discipline is less than what we really deserve. Is there anything in today's society that shocks us?

We've become numb to how low man has sunk and we have given up on what is right. Some Christians have even put their priorities in the world, not on God. What wrath will God show us for our self-complacency?

We have a covenant promise of God's grace if we have faith. No matter how bad things are we have his promises. We don't deecided what is sin. The Bible has already done that for us. When we live in sin for so long it becomes harder to turn away from it.

First, we have to confess our sins and get the temptation(s) out of our lives. If we don't, we'll never overcome them. In order to "get right" with the Lord, we have to act, not just sit back and hope it'll go away.

If God says "do it" then do it! It's not an overnight fix, but if we're serious about it and have a personal relationship with God, there will be change.

We all have the responsibility to help the broken restore their hope. Before hope is restored, there has to be repentance, revival and reform. If we have revival and no reform, we're spinning our wheels.

How can God use you to bless His people and bring Him glory? Our obedience to God can bring hope to the people around us and possibly even our nation.

Purple Heart...

Six days later, he transferred to an Army training camp in Mississippi before being sent to another camp in Louisiana. He would eventually be sent to Italy with the 157th of the 45th, landing on July 15, 1944, in Italy, serving as a technician 4th grade and a clerk typist.

After his injury on Oct. 28 of that year, Gardiner reportedly was in and out of 20 hospitals before he was fully recovered, according to his son. He later took a furlough, crossing over the English Channel to Southampton, England, where he wrote a letter to his parents saying that "the girls here are so pretty, I might just stay here the rest of my life."

That didn't happen, but one girl he met while in Southampton would eventually come back home with him. At a Red Cross-sponsored dance, he met a young lady named Margaret Grant, who was working as a hostess with a catering team from a well-known British restaurant, and the two of them eventually fell in love.

Gardiner was discharged from the Army on Nov. 22, 1945, at Fort Leavenworth, but he stayed in contact with Margaret and convinced her to emigrate to the United States, which she did in January of 1948. Raymond and Margaret were married two weeks after she arrived in Denison, on Jan. 24 of that year.

The two of them operated a dairy farm for several years west of Denison, later welcoming a son, Allen, and a daughter, Jan. But due to a heart condition, Raymond was forced into early retirement from dairy farming, but would go on to break and train Belgian horses and mini-mules for the show ring for about a dozen years.

Raymond and Margaret later sold the farm and retired to Holton, where they lived until ill health required Raymond to move to a Topeka care center. He died on Valentine's Day, 2013; Margaret died April 8, 2013.

In addition to the Purple Heart, Raymond Gardiner's military decorations included the Combat Infantry Badge, the Good Conduct Medal, two Bronze Stars for bravery and the European-African-Middle Eastern Theatre campaign ribbon.

"In running my office, my goal is to be friendly and have good customer service because usually when you are coming into my office, it is going to cost you money," she said. "When there are problems, we do our best to help or search out the answer. However, with changes in rules and laws, it is not always easy to help like we used to."

Gerhardt said that all documents regarding vehicles now have to be scanned into the state motor vehicles system.

Also, the office used to be able to replace a driver's license without any problem if staff members knew the person or if the person's identity could be easily verified. Now, to prevent fraud, it takes two forms of identification.

Taxes can now be paid online, Gerhardt said, and the office also has an escrow payment plan to try and help someone from falling behind on payments and their property being placed on a tax sale.

"We try to work with people the best we can," she said. "Also, for the convenience of the customers, we accept debit and credit cards."

Gerhardt said that good customer service starts with the employees at the front counter.

"I am very fortunate that all of them except one have been here for 12 or more years. So they have a lot of knowledge and have been here through many changes," she said. "I feel very fortunate when someone has come here from out of the county and comments on how nice our office is. There is a good group throughout the Courthouse, and I feel very fortunate to continue as treasurer."

She has lived in Jackson County for 37 years. She graduated from Wetmore High School and is a member of St. Dominic's Catholic Church.

She and her husband, David, have two sons, Chad and his wife, Morgan, and their children, Hunter, Bodey and Collins; and Cole and his wife, Elizabeth, and their children, Eric and Reese.

Tammy Moulden

Moulden, 57, was born and raised in Jackson County and lives in Holton. She has served as the register of deeds since her first took office in 2001.

Moulden worked in that county office a short time before winning her first election.

One of Moulden's proudest accomplishments during her time as register of deeds is the implementation of e-recording during the summer of 2013.

Having e-recording available enables customers to file documents with the county through a web browser, from the comfort and convenience of their office, Moulden said.

Her department has also initiated a subscriber-based Internet site, where subscribers can access Jackson County land records from their home or office for a fee.

"But please don't be worried; we still welcome you to come into the office, and we have a public terminal that you can use and browse records while we help you," Moulden said. "The records that you can search through the site are imaged back to 1988. I welcome any and all questions and would be glad to help you find your property or look up others for you. We currently are still copying and making record books in addition to the Internet and websites available."

She and her husband, Mark, have two adult children and their spouses, Blake and Rachel Moulden and Audrey and Brian Cox. She has five grandchildren, Maggie, Beau, Ellis, Thomas and Cooper.

"I am proud to be the register of deeds of Jackson County, and I look forward to continuing to serve the county," she said. "Please don't hesitate to contact me or the office with your questions."

Moulden can be reached at 364-3591 or jaksrod@gmail.com

Judges...

The governor appoints judges to the Kansas Supreme Court from a list of three qualified individuals submitted by the Supreme Court Nominating Commission.

After their first year in office, a justice is subject to a retention vote in the next general election. If a majority of electors vote to retain the justice, he or she remains in office for a term of six years.

■ Steve Leben, 60, of Fairway for position two on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Leben has served in this position since his appointment by former Gov. Kathleen Sebelius in 2007.

■ G. Joseph Pierron Jr., 69, of Lawrence for position three on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Pierron was appointed to the Court of Appeals in 1990, and before that, served as a district judge in Olathe from 1982.

■ David E. Bruns, 57, of Topeka for position six on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Bruns was appointed to this position by Gov. Brownback in April 2011. Prior to his appointment, he served as a Shawnee County District Court judge for 12 years.

■ G. Gordon Atcheson, 62, of Overland Park for position eight on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Atcheson was appointed on July 10, 2010. Before that, he practiced law in various offices, including his own firm, from 1981-2010.

■ Karen Arnold-Burger, 66, of Overland Park for position nine on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Arnold-Burger was appointed to the Court of Appeals on Jan. 6, 2011. She worked in the Overland Park Municipal Court system in several roles from 1991 to 2010.

■ Kathryn A. Gardner, 60, of Topeka for position 14 on the Kansas Court of Appeals. Gardner was appointed to the court on March 11, 2015. Prior to her appointment, she worked in a variety of practices, as well as served as an assistant attorney general.

Court of Appeals appointments are made by the governor and require confirmation by the Senate. Judges serve four-year terms.

Court of Appeals judges ordinarily do not conduct trials. They decide appealed cases by reading the trial record and written briefs filed by the parties and hearing oral arguments of lawyers. They research and review laws involved and write opinions.

■ Gary L. Nafziger of Ozawkie for district court judge for District 2, Division 2. Nafziger was appointed in 1982. District court judges serve four-year terms.
