New job, new retirement account options

Changing jobs? Consider these 401(k) options:

- Leave the money in your previous employer's plan
- Move it to your new employer's plan
- Roll it over to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA)
- Cash out the account subject to early withdrawal penalties

We can talk through your financial goals and find the option that works best for you.

CITY OF HOLTON BRUSH & LEAF CLEAN-UP

The City of Holton will be picking up brush and bagged leaves from Monday, Nov. 20-Friday, Dec. 1, 2023.

We have already begun picking up bagged leaves that have been placed on the edge of the street.

All materials should be placed at the edge of the street for pickup.
All leaves should be bagged, and all brush should be cut to 6-foot lengths in bundles or tied with twine.
ABSOLUTELY NO TRASH – BRUSH AND LEAVES ONLY.

The city burn site will be open all week from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.
The burn site will also still be open and free to dump on Saturday, Nov. 25 and Saturday, Dec. 2 for your convenience.

Parade Of Lights set for Dec. 9!

The 23rd annual Christmas Parade of Lights will be held at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec.
9, around the Holton Town Square, it has been reported.

After the parade, Santa Claus will be available to meet with children at his house set up on the south side of the Jackson County courtyard next to the gazebo.

Law enforcement, emergency personnel, city and county departments, area clubs, service organizations, churches, businesses, school groups and families are all encouraged to participate in the annual light-up parade that features vehicles and floats covered in Christmas lights. School floats are also encouraged and welcomed.

Line-up for the parade starts at 5 p.m. along New York Avenue, just north of the downtown Casey's.

Participants are encouraged to be creative with their entries and light up vehicles, floats, farm machinery and other methods of transportation with holiday lights.

The Farmers State Bank will provide the $50 in Chamber Bucks prize for Best Religious Entry. GNB Bank will provide a $50 gift certificate for the Best Club or Organization Entry. The Holton Recorder will provide $50 in Recorder Bucks as a prize for the Best Business Entry.

To sign up your group, business or family for the parade, contact The Holton Recorder at 785-364-3141 or send an e-mail to holtonrecorder@giantcomm.net. There is no charge to participate.

Following the parade, Santa Claus will visit with children at the Santa House on the south side of the courtyard.

Santa will also be available at the Santa House from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. each Thursday in December – Dec. 7, 14, and 21 – for children to meet with him for free.

During the Thursday evenings, parents are encouraged to bring their cameras to take photos of their children with Santa as no professional photographers are hired for the evenings.

Ashlee York, Holton/Jackson County Chamber of Commerce director, said that several shops around the town Square will also stay open late on those Thursday evenings.

Several other events are planned on Saturday, Dec. 9, to celebrate a "Small Town Christmas."

At 5 p.m., Studio 1 Dance Center students will perform to Christmas songs outside on the east side of the Jackson County Courthouse. Dance students will also host a fund-raiser soup supper that evening from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the west side of the Square.

From 9:30 a.m. to noon that day, Friends Of Beck Bookman Library will host "A Classic Claymation Christmas" event for kids at Holton Community Theatre.

The third-annual fund-raiser for Holton's library will include a craft, cookie decorating, face paintings and more. Tickets are $20 for FOBBL members and $25 for non-FOBBL members and can be purchased online.

This past week, volunteers have started painting several business windows around the Square with classic Christmas characters.

In lieu of a Christmas Homes Tour, the Chamber is selling a coupon book this holiday season that features more than 20 area retail businesses and restaurants, as well as a variety of savings.

"There's so much savings," York said of the coupon book.
"It's amazing. It's to encourage people to shop local and to shop early."

The coupon books are $5 a piece and can be purchased at the Chamber office on the north side of the Square at 104 W.
Fourth St. For more information, call the Chamber at 785-364-3963.
