■ Proceeds to benefit Holton Community Theatre

By Brian Sanders
Participants in this year's Jackson County Art Walk are invited to "step up to support the arts" in Jackson County — up to the second story, that is — and find out more about life on Holton's Town Square from those who live on it.

The eighth-annual Art Walk, scheduled from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Friday, April 26, will include a tour of 10 participating lofts on the Square as a fund-raiser for Holton Community Theatre, according to Joni White, who is organizing the loft tour along with Betsy Gilliland.

"We're hoping that people will come and hear our 'second stories,'" said White, who owns one of the lofts that will be featured on the tour, a two-bedroom residential loft located above White Law Office on the north side of the Square.

Tickets for the loft tour are $20 per person, and they may be purchased in advance, or on the day of the tour, at White Law Office. The Art Walk, as in previous years, is free.

White said that she and her husband, Dennis, were inspired to create a "second story" for a building on the Square through visiting other loft spaces while on vacation — and when they purchased the Newman Building, also on the north side of the Square, in the mid-2000s, they found the opportunity to do just that.

But the Newman Building — complete with its Mesker Brothers iron facade — was in need of such remodeling when the Whites purchased it, upstairs and downstairs, she said. They were able to turn the upstairs part into five loft apartments while remodeling the ground floor for office space; two of the Newman lofts will be featured in the tour.

The work that was done in revitalizing the upstairs space at the Newman building, White said, has been inspirational to other business owners on the Square whose upstairs spaces had just been sitting vacant for years.

"I think that every building owner who has invested time and money into improving the Square is an inspiration to all the others," she said. "Each of us putting in loft apartments are writing a 'second story' for our buildings and for the Square. These spaces used to be utilized as residences or second-floor businesses, and we are bringing that back."

White said the lofts have "a certain artistic flair" that, in most cases, can be attributed to the architecture in their buildings, whether it's exposed brick or limestone, original and built-in features or just their respective histories.

One of the lofts on the tour, a two-bedroom space owned by Frank and Betsy Gilliland above Golden Fleece on the west side of the Square, draws on its past history as a turn-of-the-20th-century opera house to provide its uniqueness.

"Guests will see part of the stage, which the Gillilands plan to incorporate into their living space, the opera house ticket door, pictures and other original features," White said. "They exposed their native limestone wall and installed skylights. Their lofty, artistic space includes a baby grand piano."

History also plays a part in the Whites' loft, which includes a chandelier from the Senate chambers at the Kansas State Capital and a window from the governor's office, in addition to memorabilia of Holton.

And at a "barebones" loft owned by Les and Jan Brandt above Red Rooster on the east side of the Square, White said visitors can learn about how their building was originally a single-story structure and how a second floor was added to the building later.

Property values remain 'steady'

■ Appraiser: Valuation average up "one to two percent" for 2019

By Ali Holcomb
Property valuation notices were recently mailed to Jackson County property owners, and values "remained steady" this year, according to the Jackson County Appraiser Jason Claycamp.

"Some went up and some went down," Claycamp said. "We probably saw a one to two percent increase on average."

Claycamp said a five-year average is used to determine property values.

"About 70 to 100 sales drop out of the average each year and 70 to 100 new sales are added in," he said. "Property has been selling pretty good in Jackson County in the last year or so."

All the valuation notices were mailed to property owners on Feb. 28.

"The first question people need to ask themselves when they see their valuation is, 'Would I sell my house at that value?'" Claycamp said. "Ultimately, that's the value that we try to come up with. It's not perfect, but it's the system that the state has put in place for us to use."

At the end of the year, the state will "grade" the appraiser's office on how accurate they think the sales ratio numbers are, Claycamp said.

"We have to be between 90 and 110 percent," he said. "In 2017, we were at 94 percent. We try to stay on the low side. As properties sell for more money, that's going to increase people's property values."

Increases in ag land values are slowing, Claycamp said, noting that an eight-year average is used to calculate those values.

"Those are set by the state," he said. "Cropland went up five percent this year, and grassland increased an average of 10 percent. In the past, cropland has increased by 15 to 20 percent so lower numbers are now being added to the equation and helping to bring that number down."

New 911 system can receive text messages

Jackson County has a new 911 system that's now capable of receiving emergency text messages, according to Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse.

Last Tuesday, March 12, the county became the 91st Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) to join the statewide Next Generation 911 system, Sheriff Morse said.

The annual cost for the new 911 system is about $39,000 and will be paid for out of the 911 taxes collected from cell phones and landlines in the county, it was reported.

AT&T personnel has been installing the new system at the dispatch center, located at the Jackson County Sheriff's Office, throughout the last few weeks and has provided training for sheriff's office dispatchers, Morse said.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Office 911 Center is the central answering point for all 911 calls in Jackson County, Morse said.

"A new feature with this new system is Simple Message Service Text-to-911. Sheriff dispatchers can now receive emergency text messages," Morse said. "Dispatchers will be able to text back through the new system to the caller. This will be helpful during incidents where someone may be in danger but does not want the suspect to know they are seeking help."

By joining the 911 Coordinating Council's statewide Next Generation 911 system, Morse said Jackson County is no longer required to host an in-house 911 system and isn't required to plan for future 911 updates.

Two new trials slated in animal cruelty case

■ Johnson appealing February conviction

By Brian Sanders
Two bench trials have been scheduled in Jackson County District Court in the case of a rural Hoyt resident recently convicted on 45 charges of animal cruelty, a case that is being appealed while he and the co-owner of the horses involved in the matter is challenging the possible forfeiture of the horses.

Following a telephone conference on Wednesday morning, District Court Judge Norbert Marek set a new two-day bench trial in the case of Frank L. Johnson, to begin Tuesday, April 9 in district court on the 45 animal cruelty charges after an appeal was filed against Johnson's conviction on the charges.

Judge Marek also scheduled a bench trial for Wednesday, May 22 in district court on a civil case in which Johnson and a Montana resident listed as the co-owner of the horses involved in the case are contesting the possible forfeiture of the horses.

Johnson was found guilty on all animal cruelty charges after a February bench trial and placed on two years of supervised probation by District Court Magistrate Judge Blaine Carter earlier this month. Judge Carter also ordered Johnson not to possess any livestock, particularly horses, during the probation period.

Defense attorney Rhonda Levinson of Bonner Springs announced immediately after the March 4 sentencing hearing that the sentence would be appealed. Carter also noted the filing on an appeal would postpone any bench orders to put the horses being kept on Johnson's property up for adoption.

Levinson is also representing Sharon Young of Forsyth, Mont., who was listed in a Jackson County civil court filing as the co-owner of the horses after the Jackson County Sheriff's Office filed suit in January to have ownership of 42 of the horses transferred to other parties.

Young filed in late February to exempt the horses from forfeiture, noting that no criminal charges had been filed against her in the case. She also requested an evidentiary hearing on the matter.

In her filing, Young said she authorized Johnson to care for the horses, provided Johnson with funds for their care and regularly received updates on the horses from him, acknowledging that some of the horses may have been in poor health while in Johnson's care.

A REAL HEARTBREAKER

Recent research indicates that the heart and mind may be more closely associated than some might think. Mood disorders take their toll on the heart and, conversely, cardiovascular disease can make a person more prone to anxiety and depression. According to a recent review of data pertaining to 221,677 people, among men between the ages of 45 and 79, high to very high levels of psychological stress were associated with a 30% increased risk of heart attack and a 24% greater risk of stroke over a 4.5-year period. Another study involving more than 6,000 people found that screening positive for depression was associated with a 30% higher risk of atrial fibrillation (Afib), which is a leading stroke risk factor.

P.S. Although researchers have yet to definitively prove that treating depression can prevent cardiovascular disease, heart attacks, and stroke, talk therapy can lead to physical health benefits.

Children, teens, and adults can have mood disorders. However, it's harder to diagnose mood disorders in children because they aren't always able to express how they feel. Therapy, antidepressants, and support and self-care can help treat mood disorders. Please call our office today if you would like to make an appointment with one of our compassionate counselors. We offer a wide array of services that includes mental rehabilitation services for children, youth, and adults.

OFFERING HOPE FOR A HEALTHIER TOMORROW.

Four 3,000-unit bulk seed bins have been installed on the east side of the Jackson Farmers facility in Holton. The seed bins are part of a new seed treatment unit at the facility that will aid local farmers looking for higher yields at harvest time, it was reported.

Brooke Smith has been named the new juvenile intake and assessment director for the second judicial district, it has been announced. Smith succeeds longtime director Barby Kroening, who retired in December.

On Monday, March 17, the Holton City Commission voted to approve a final plat for construction of a new Walmart store and an adjoining gas station.

The middle school basketball season has come to an end for area teams, with the Royal Valley eighth-grade boys team closing out the season strong to cinch the Big Seven League title.

There is a new art gallery in Holton, and it's located inside Sarah's Enchanted Cottage. The Prairie Meadow Gallery's grand opening was Saturday, March 14, and store owner Sarah DeVader said that this gallery will "educate people about art and what fun it can be."

According to Duane Clemons, chapter director of the American Legion Riders Post 44 of Holton, the riders are donating more than 30 memorial bricks that will line the walkway on the southeast corner of the Jackson County Courthouse lawn near the existing fallen soldier memorial.

The bricks will include the names of local soldiers that were killed or listed as missing in action from all world conflicts.

With the sudden resignation of Holton City Manager Glenn Rodden, the Holton City Commission finds itself looking for a new city manager for the second time in two years. The commission said that the next person to take the job should be a manager, rather than an administrator, it was reported.

Kansas State University's Valerie Dysart, a senior from Newton, qualified for the 2009 IHSA National Championships recently after taking top honors in Intermediate Horsemanship at the semifinal competition in Kentucky, it was reported. Dysart placed first among 14 riders in her class to advance to the national championship, a goal that she has worked towards for the past year.

Fenceline: Brutal calving season

By Jody G. Holthaus
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent

Livestock & Natural Resources weather has been brutal for those trying to calve. First off, fighting the snowstorms each week, and now the rain and mud. I'm fearful that the results will be higher calf deaths.

Surveys show that mortality in beef herds from birth to weaning ranges from three to seven percent. A few years ago, when there was a USDA livestock emergency program, you had to have more than a four percent loss to get payment. The majority of normal deaths occur within the first 24 hours of life. Slow and difficult births (dystocia) and cold stress are the leading causes of death, during this period. Proper care and treatment of the cold stressed calf can prevent this.

There are two types of hypothermia or cold stress – exposure and immersion. Exposure hypothermia is the steady loss of body heat in a cold environment through respiration, evaporation and lack of adequate hair coat, body flesh or weather protection. This type of hypothermia affects all classes of livestock but particularly affects young, old and thin animals.

Immersion hypothermia is the rapid loss of body heat due to a wet, saturated hair coat in a cold environment. Immersion hypothermia often occurs after the birthing process because the calf is born saturated with uterine fluids. This also can occur if they are born in deep snow, or wet ground, falling into a creek or heavy rains.

What does hypothermia look like? The body tries to defend itself in two ways: shivering to increase muscle heat production, and blood shunting to reduce heat loss by diverting blood flow away

A penchant for exploring new ideas has sent Junior and Ula Armstrong around the world on an important venture. Their willingness to attempt new agriculture procedures and pioneering spirit has earned the Armstrongs a "master farmer-homemaker" title, it has been reported. The couple currently resides on their farm south of Muscotah.

During the Jackson Heights Cobras' first-round state tournament game, boys basketball managers Travis Nichol, Jon Banaka and Travis Carlson prayed for some divine intervention. The praying worked, as Brandon Pitenger hit a game-winning shot with 13 seconds left in the game.

Also in state basketball news, the Wetmore High School Lady Cardinals basketball team went to the state tournament for the first time in 21 years.

Leesa Harshaw of Holton decorated an award-winning exhibit on Friday afternoon, March 18, in preparation for the weekend's Holton Home and Garden Show. The exhibit was named the "most creative display."

50 Years Ago

Week of March 17-23, 1969

The Holton city offices were moved on Thursday, March 13, to their new location in the old Kansas State Bank building at the northeast corner of the Square. City manager Joe Whitehead has his own office, while city clerk Virginia Zibell shares an area with the utility billing department.

An open house celebration was held at Jackson Farmers on Friday, March 21. Featured was Anita Authier, the Kaynor "Diamond Girl," who displayed diamonds valued at thousands of dollars to visitors.

At the 113th Annual Communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Kansas, Glen W. Rogers of Holton was appointed as District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 19, it was reported. Rogers was Master of the Holton lodge in 1967, and came to Holton from Washington, Kan., in 1963 and went right to work in his church and Lodge.

A recent summary of traffic counts taken in numerous locations in Holton by the state highway department shows that the south side of the Square is the block in town with the highest traffic count, averaging 5,080 cars a day, it was reported. Second place goes to the 400 block of Arizona Avenue on U.S. Highway 75 with an average count of 5,050 cars a day.

from the body extremities to the body core.

A cold nostril and pale cold hooves are early signs that blood is being shunted away from the body extremities. Erratic behavior, confusion and clumsiness are all signs of mild hypothermia. We often call these "dummy" calves.

Severe hypothermia results as the body temperature drops below 94 degrees F. After the shivering stops, it is replaced by muscle rigidity. The pulse and respiration begins to slow as the body core cools to 88 degrees F. Below 94 degrees, the vital organs are beginning to get cold. As the brain cools, they become unconscious. Below 86 degrees, signs of life are difficult to detect and may be mistaken for dead. This happened just last week, I happened to see a movement. We were able to warm this calf up and save it (so far).

Warm these calves up to 100 degrees and feed them some warm colostrum as soon as possible. Warming and drying boxes are on the market, or make your own. I've seen plywood boxes three feet by four feet. I've seen totes turned into calf boxes. Anything can work.

Heat sources can be electrical heaters, heat lamps or propane. It is recommended that a fan be included in construction to circulate the warm air. Lack of ventilation and shut offs are often a problem, with homemade units. As the hair coat dries, moisture raises the humidity in the box. This can lead to pneumonia. If the calf is left unattended, it can suffer from heat stress or scorching if there is not a thermostat shut off.

It's that time of year when you don't have enough rags or old towels, or like me you've lost your hair dryer for the sake of drying off number 466.

Managing cool season grass

By David G. Hallauer
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent

Crops & Soils/Horticulture
Cool season turfgrass species are the norm for most all of our home lawns and athletic fields in northeast Kansas. That means they like temperatures ranging from the 40s to the mid-to-upper 70s. With spring (maybe?) finally here, they'll be taking off before long, and that means there are some "chores" we might need to be prepared to get done.

Broadleaf weed control is one of those things that can really sneak up on turfgrass managers and homeowners alike. While fall applications would likely have been more effective from a broad spectrum standpoint for controlling winter annuals and weeds like dandelions, spring can be a good time for spot treatment.

When necessary, spot treat broadleaf weeds on a day that is 50 degrees or warmer. Rain or irrigation within 24 hours of application will reduce effectiveness. Always read and follow label directions for best results.

If crabgrass is your nemesis, you probably have until April to apply treatment (products may vary – always read and follow label directions). Many of our preventers are applied when the native redbud trees are in full bloom sometime in April. Moisture hasn't been a problem this winter, but who knows what spring will bring, so remember that the preventer needs to be watered in with about a quarter inch of water before it will start to work.

Note: A good, thick lawn is the best weed prevention and may be all that is needed.

It gets warm. Grass starts to green up. We start to think about applying fertilizer. As with broadleaf weed control, fall is actually a better time to apply fertilizer than is the spring. In fact, applications in November and September will likely do more for your turf (both from a vigor and weed control perspective) than spring applications. If you didn't get a fall application applied – or just want to add a little more – May is probably your best option.

If you have a lawn that typically receives enough rainfall (or irrigation) that it doesn't go dormant due to drought in the summer, you can apply a light rate of a slow-release fertilizer once May arrives.

If you are using a fertilizer that includes a weed killer for broadleaf weeds, you need to pay attention to how it is applied. Rain or irrigation within 24 hours of application tends to reduce effectiveness of the weed killer, yet the fertilizer needs to be watered in. If using a product with both fertilizer and weed killer, wait 24 hours after application before watering in.

All of our offices have a full complement of lawn care publications available either in the office or online from our KSU bookstore. For those publications, contact a District Office or e-mail me at dhallae@ksu.edu.

Legislative meeting set

The three state legislators who serve the Jackson County area are scheduled to meet with local constituents from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 30 at the Hutchins Building, located on the west side of the Holton Town Square, it has been reported.

Meeting with our state legislators is an annual tradition in Jackson County. It is an excellent opportunity to sit down with our state leaders, hear from them about their work on behalf of all of us and learn more about how our state government works.

The Holton Rotary Club will sponsor this meeting with Sen. Dennis Pyle (R-Hiawatha), Rep. Francis Awerkamp (R-St. Marys) and Rep. Randy Garber (R-Sabetha). Reps. Awerkamp and Garber have stated their intentions to attend; Sen. Pyle now says that with spring calving under way at his farm he may or may not be able to attend.

After introductions at the meeting, each of the three legislators will be asked to report on the activities of their specific legislative committee assignments this session and to also report on how they have been voting on important issues.

After the reports, Sen. Pyle, Rep. Awerkamp and Rep. Garber will field questions from the audience.

Rotary will furnish coffee, orange juice and doughnuts. Everyone is welcome for what is always a cordial, respectful, friendly exchange of ideas that affect all of us.

Sen. Moran opposes, Sen. Roberts supports president's emergency declaration for wall

U.S. Senator Jerry Moran (R-KS)—a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee—announced Thursday that he was not supporting President Donald Trump's emergency declaration to build a wall at the southern border.

In a news release, Sen. Moran (shown at right) preferred to report that he will support H. J. Res. 46, the Emergency Declaration Resolution of Disapproval.

"President Trump is correct, there is a need for better border security," wrote Sen. Moran. "I have introduced legislation and voted many times for greater funding for border security, including President Trump's border wall."

"Upon my election to public office, I take one oath—to uphold the Constitution of the United States. I believe the use of emergency powers in this circumstance violates the Constitution. Allowing the use of such power establishes a precedent for future presidents to further act against laws and appropriations approved by Congress. This continues our country down the path of all powerful executive—something those who wrote the Constitution were fearful of."

Meanwhile, U.S. Sen. Pat Roberts (R-KS) voted Thursday to support President Trump's efforts to secure the border.

"We must have comprehensive immigration reform, which starts with a secure border," Sen. Roberts said. "We also need further resources at the southern border to deal with the humanitarian crisis hurting the thousands of migrants who attempt to enter our country. I agree with the president's assessment that we have reached a crisis point at the border, and this is nothing new. For many years, control of our southern border has been a fundamental failure of our first obligation to protect the national security of the United States."

The resolution of disapproval cleared the House and was approved by the Senate with a vote of 51-49. The resolution now goes to the president's desk where he is expected to veto it.

Sen. Moran's full written thoughts on the matter included:

"1. President Trump is correct, there is a need for better border security.

2. Our borders are a matter of national sovereignty and control over who enters our country is vital in our fight against terrorism and battle against drugs and human trafficking.

3. Many Americans and most Kansans agree with President Trump that this is an important issue and must be dealt with.

4. President Trump has not been fairly treated by Democrats in Congress—a wall is not immoral, and Democrats have previously supported funding border barriers.

5. I have introduced legislation and voted many times for greater funding for border security, including President Trump's border wall.

6. President Trump can advance the building of a wall with the funding just approved by Congress and can increase the funds available by reprogramming other accounts.

7. Therefore, the declaration of an emergency is not necessary.

8. The declaration of an emergency under these circumstances is a violation of the U.S. Constitution. The laws passed by Congress years ago allowing the president emergency powers is flawed and needs to be repealed or amended.

9. In high school government class, we all learned about our founding fathers and the three separate, but equal branches of government. This concept is one of the most significant in protecting America as a republic and maintaining citizen freedoms and liberties. Both government structure and the Bill of Rights matter.

10. Upon my election to public office, I take one oath—to uphold the Constitution of the United States. I believe the use of emergency powers in this circumstance violates the Constitution.

11. Allowing the use of such power establishes a precedent for future presidents to further act against laws and appropriations approved by Congress. This continues our country down the path of all powerful executive—something those who wrote the Constitution were fearful of.

12. Kansans criticized President Barack Obama for abuse of executive orders, ignoring the laws and avoiding the requirements of negotiating a treaty when dealing with foreign powers. I agreed and fought it.

13. I aggressively opposed the overreach of past presidents and believe that I cannot pick and choose to now look the other way.

14. If the Constitution means one thing in the Obama administration and another in the Trump administration, the enduring value of the Constitution disappears and another generation of Americans will be less free.

15. The number one responsibility we have as American citizens is to pass to the next generation of Americans our constitutionally guaranteed liberties. There are days where it seems clear we are failing greatly.

16. How we do things—even good things—matters. We were raised that the ends don't justify the means.

17. To find a loop hole on this issue and to vote another way might be an easier course. But my gut, my intellect, my understanding of history, tells me use of emergency powers is wrong. It can't be an option to support something I believe wrong.

18. This country is filled with people who care, who are patriots, who served in our military. I try never to let anyone down. On my watch, I always want to do right as I see it," Moran wrote.

Davidson a Rasmussen graduate

Brandy Davidson, a 2009 graduate of Royal Valley High School, has now graduated from Rasmussen College of Topeka, it has been reported by her parents, Pam and Mike Moseley of Hoyt.

Brandy completed coursework online for an associates of applied science in business management degree, maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.31 in the two-year accelerated program, while being named to the honor roll and dean's list on multiple occasions.

Davidson is employed by Custom Sheetmetal in Topeka.

Steinlage

William Gerald Steinlage, 81, of Holton, died Thursday, March 14, 2019 at Plaza West Regional Health Center in Topeka.

He was born Oct. 13, 1937, at Corning, the son of William Anton and Josepha Emma Haverkamp Steinlage. He attended Kelly schools and graduated in 1955 from Kelly High School.

After high school, he helped on the family farm. He enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1956 and was discharged in 1958. While in the Marine Corps, he was stationed in Okinawa, Japan, and at Camp Pendleton in Bakersfield, Calif.

William worked at Santa Fe in Topeka as a machinist until he retired in 1999 after 38 years of service. Shortly after William and Joan were married, they moved to Holton and purchased a farm. William raised cattle on the farm and gardened. Some years, he had as many as three gardens.

William was a man's man. He liked to hunt and fish and would take his dogs raccoon hunting, in the dark, on a Friday night. William would help strangers who got stuck in the ditch by his house, even sometimes after being awakened in the middle of the night following a snow storm.

After his retirement, he worked and helped his neighbor and friend Walt deliver tires to other Midwestern and Northern parts of the country for Walt's tire business. In November 2017, he moved into Oak Creek Assisted Living in Topeka.

William was a member of St. Dominic Catholic Church in Holton for more than 40 years and a member of the Grand Lodge of the International Association of Machinist and Aerospace Workers, Lodge No. 378.

He married Joan Marie Dosch on Sept. 16, 1967, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Topeka. She died June 11, 1998.

He was also preceded in death by an infant son, Craig Gerald Steinlage, on July 16, 1968; his parents; and brothers Elmer, John and Gerald.

He is survived by his son, Dr. Eric Steinlage, Bentonville, Ark.; grandson, Cole Steinlage; his daughter, Renee Ward, Holton; granddaughter Isabela Ward; brother, Marvin Steinlage, Seneca; sisters, Mary Ann Olberding, Seneca, Arlene Lowe Lisa, Fountain Valley, Calif., Verna Strathman, Topeka, and Joella (Larry) King, Hoyt; many friends and neighbors; and his Oak Creek family.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 23 at St. Dominic Catholic Church. Burial with military honors will follow in Mt. Calvary Cemetery at Holton. William will lie in state after 9 a.m. Thursday at Chapel Oaks Funeral Home in Holton, where a Rosary will be prayed at 6 p.m. on Friday, followed by visitation until 8 p.m.

Guideline for obituaries

In free obituaries printed in The Holton Recorder, references to the dead will involve courtesy titles, such as Mr., Mrs. and Miss, rather than first names or nicknames, as a matter of practice. Formal titles such as Dr. or those related to military rank will also be used in obituaries if so specified by the family of the deceased.

Boersma

Andrew Theodore "Paka" Boersma went to be with his Lord Thursday, March 14, 2019, from his home in Clovis, New Mexico at the age of 84 years, 11 months and eight days.

He was born April 6, 1934 in Artesia, Calif., to Ted and Katharina (Bouwman) Boersma.

Andy graduated from Excelsior Union High School in 1952 and married his high school sweetheart, Grace Idema, on June 30, 1953. Together, they had five children: a daughter, Pam; a son, Ted; and three more daughters, Karol, Ilene and Michelle.

Andy was a milker in California, then became a carpet layer. In Oregon, he and his brother-in-law, Tony Blok, owned and operated Wooden Shoe Carpet and Draperies. At age 50, Andy, along with his son, Ted, followed their dream of dairy farming. Andy loved the dairy industry and was able to enjoy a long and fulfilling career in New Mexico and Kansas alongside Ted.

Other things that Andy enjoyed in life were basketball, in his younger years; wood-working, in which he made many furniture items for the office and home; and studying and sharing God's word. He especially loved all his family. The most cherished gift of all is the spiritual legacy he instilled in his family.

Andy is survived by his beloved wife of 65 years, Grace; daughters, Pam Chinkidiadi and her husband Paul of Clovis, N.M., Karol Bell and her husband Brian of Holton, Ilene Vernon and her husband Steve of Clovis, N.M., and Michelle Brittain and her husband David of Rio Rancho, N.M.; son, Ted Boersma and his wife Nancy of Cimarron; sisters, Jeanette VanDyk of Ontario, Calif., Lena Bekendam of Windthorst, Texas, Thelma Blok of Redwood, Ore., and Cris Murphy of Gilbert, Ariz.; brother, John Boersma of Redwood, Ore.; 33 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Church services were held Monday morning at Central Baptist Church in Clovis, N.M. Burial was held in Lawn Haven Memorial Gardens in Clovis.

The family suggests memorials be sent to your favorite mission organization. Online condolences may be made at www.ellisfuneralhomes.com Holton Recorder 3/18/19 ▲

Kramer

Eymard J. Kramer, 90, of Holton, formerly of Topeka, passed away Saturday, March 16, 2019, at Plaza West Care Center with family by his side.

He was born July 30, 1928, in Baileyville, the son of Joe and Minnie (Bergman) Kramer.

Eymard attended Humphry Country School and graduated from the eighth grade. He attended high school in Baileyville and later received his G.E.D.

Eymard graduated from Auctioneer School in Kansas City in 1979. He worked at the Silver Lake Co-op, was a grain inspector at Scranton and was an auctioneer for many years. Eymard lived in the Holton community since 2015 and previously in Topeka for more than 30 years.

He was a member of Christ The King Catholic Church in Topeka, he attended St. Dominic Catholic Church in Holton and was a life member of Seneca Knights of Columbus #1769. He had a great love for Angus cattle, John Deere tractors, the great outdoors, country music and dancing.

Eymard married Joyce L. Anderson on Aug. 15, 1981, in Topeka. They celebrated more than 37 years of marriage.

Survivors include his wife, Joyce Kramer, of the home; three sons, Stephen Kramer (Marcia), Wayne Kramer (Cindy) and Dave Kramer (Angie), all of Seneca; two daughters, Donna Heinen (Darrell) of Axtell and Susan Steinlage (Tom) of Emporia; a brother, Martin Kramer of Azle, Texas; 19 grandchildren; and 28 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sons, Paul Kramer and Jamie Anderson; a sister, Lucille Wessel; and three brothers, Lawrence, Gene and Dareol Kramer.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, March 25 at St. Dominic Catholic Church. Inurnment will follow in Mount Calvary Cemetery. A rosary will be recited 2 p.m. Sunday with visitation to follow until 4 p.m. at Mercer Funeral Home in Holton.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Plaza West Care Center, sent in care of Mercer Funeral Home, P.O. Box 270, Holton, KS 66436. To leave a special message for the family, please visit www.mercerfuneralhomes.com Holton Recorder 3/18/19 ▲

Holton police check thefts

Two thefts were investigated in recent days by the Holton Police Department.

Sometime between 1:40 p.m. and 1:50 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 26, Roger E. Collins of Holton reported that a license plate was stolen from his vehicle at an unspecified location in Holton. The license plate was valued at $40.

Sometime between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 16, Shawn D. Stephenson of Holton reported that someone entered his residence in the 800 block of Second Street and stole a HiPoint .380-caliber handgun and magazine, about $2,200 in cash, two rings and seven boxes of ammunition. Total loss was estimated at $5,545.

Public Notice

(First published in The Holton Recorder, Holton, Kan., on Monday, March 11, 2019.)

JACKSON COUNTY

GENERAL NOTICE TO CONTROL NOXIOUS WEEDS

The Kansas Noxious Weed Law K.S.A. 2-1314 et seq requires all persons who own or supervise land in Kansas to control and eradicate all weeds declared noxious by legislative action. The weeds declared noxious are: field bindweed, musk thistle, johnsongrass, bur ragweed, Canada thistle, sericea lespedeza, leafy spurge, hoary cress, quackgrass, Russian knapweed, kudzu and pig-nut.

Multiflora Rose and Bull Thistle are County Option Noxious Weeds declared noxious by the Board of County Commissioners of Jackson County. Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Kansas Noxious Weed Law to every person who owns or supervises land in Jackson County that noxious weeds growing or found on such land shall be controlled and eradicated. Control is defined as preventing the production of viable seed and the vegetative spread of the plant.

Failure to observe this notice may result in the County:

1. Serving a legal notice requiring control of the noxious weeds within a minimum of five days. Failure to control the noxious weeds within the time period allowed may result in the county treating the noxious weeds at the landowner's expense and placing a lien on the property if the bill is not paid within 30 days or,

2. Filing criminal charges for non-compliance. Conviction for non-compliance may result in a fine of $100 per day of non-compliance with a maximum fine of $1,500.

The public is also hereby notified that it is a violation of the Kansas Noxious Weed Law to barter, sell or give away infested nursery stock or livestock feed unless the feed is fed on the farm where grown or sold to a commercial processor that will destroy the viability of the noxious weed seed.

Custom harvesting machines must be labeled with a label provided by the Kansas Department of Agriculture and must be free of all weed seed and litter when entering the State and when leaving a field infested with noxious weeds. Additional information may be obtained from the Jackson County Noxious Weed Department or by contacting the Kansas Department of Agriculture, 1320 Research Park Drive, Manhattan, KS 66502.

Holton’s Elkhorn Lake trout ready for area anglers

By Brian Sanders

In recent weeks, the surface of Elkhorn Lake at Holton’s Rafter’s Park has been covered with a solid sheet of ice, making fishing a near-impossibility.

But with temperatures starting to climb, and the ice on the lake surface now melted, Holton Parks and Recreation director Mike Reichle is inviting fishing aficionados of all ages to fish the lake for trout.

“The trout are ready to go,” said Reichle, who noted that the ice on the Elkhorn Lake surface had disappeared by the middle of last week, enabling anglers to take advantage of Holton’s partnership with the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism’s Community Fisheries Assistance Program (CFAP) to stock the lake with rainbow trout.

This winter marks the ninth season that the city has worked with CFAP to stock the lake with trout, with the first 550 trout put into the lake last November. Another 500 trout, all estimated at 10 to 14 inches long, and more than 50 trout with a length of more than 14 inches, were put into the lake this past Tuesday, Reichle said.

Six of the trout have been tagged, Reichle noted, and lucky anglers who snag them can bring the tags to Holton City Hall to receive a prize of $25 in “Chamber Bucks” from the Holton/Jackson County Chamber of Commerce and a $25 Parks and Recreation gift certificate, good for redemption at the department’s activities and sports events.

In Kansas, the trout fishing season runs from Nov. 1 through April 15, and anglers looking to catch fish from rivers, streams and lakes where trout are located, whether they are fishing for trout or not, are required to have a trout permit. Trout permits cost $14.50 and are good for the season, whereas fishing licenses are valid for a calendar year.

“The season runs through April 15, but because of the weather, you don’t have to have a trout permit after that date,” Reichle said. “Anglers 15 and younger can fish for trout without a permit, and after April 15, if you don’t have a permit, you can still fish them out.”

Trout are generally recognized as a “stream fish” and are most often found in rivers or streams that allow for migration to larger bodies of water that allow for spawning. However, it has been noted that Elkhorn Lake in late fall, winter and early spring months provide the fish with ideal temperatures for survival — preferably 62 degrees Fahrenheit or cooler.

Elkhorn Lake is classified as “Type 2 trout water,” meaning that trout permits are required for fishing or possessing trout during trout season, which runs from Nov. 1 through April 15. After that, KDWPT officials noted, trout permits are not necessary, but the daily limit of five trout is still in effect after that point.

Trout can be caught with live bait or artificial lures, such as jigs or spinners, or by using fly-fishing or drift-fishing techniques. Although trout are known for sometimes taking live bait from the bottom of a stream or lake, many consider it preferable to float bait just off the bottom, and when using artificial lures, it is recommended to fish near cover, such as tree roots, rocks or overhangs.

A light-action rod with a four to six-pound test line is considered by many to be the best rod to use for trout fishing. Furthermore, the best time for fishing for trout in lakes is between first light and mid-morning.

All Kansas residents ages 16 to 74 and non-residents 16 and older must have a valid fishing license. Trout permits may be purchased at KDWPT offices, most county clerk offices, licensed vendors such as Walmart or online at ksoutdoors.com/License-Permits

The four-acre Elkhorn Lake is considered a community lake by KDWPT. Other fish in the lake include bluegill, channel catfish, crappie, bass and walleye. For more information on the lake and the city’s other parks and recreation facilities, contact Reichle at 364-9000.

Royal Valley baseball makes debuts tomorrow hosting SFT

By Michael Powls

Royal Valley High School head baseball coach Trent Oliva is now in his second season.

“Our strength this year will be our athleticism and it has improved from last year,” coach Oliva said. “As long as we come to practice and games ready to work hard each day, we will improve each day. Our playing experience at the varsity level is what we are lacking. As the season progresses, we hope to become more experienced.”

Coach Oliva also said that to be successful this season was “the Panthers will have to be consistent at playing defense which comes down to playing catch each game day. We will also have to compete at the plate as hitters and have a plan when at bat. Being consistent at doing the fundamentals will give us an opportunity to be competitive and allow us to have a chance to be successful.”

Coach Oliva is assisted this season by assistant coaches Charles Nez and Peter Pfannenstiel.

Last year, the Panthers finished their season 3-11 in the Big Seven League and 3-16 overall.

Returning lettermen for the Panthers include senior Ben Neuner, senior Garrett Pruyser, junior Isaac Neuner, junior Tegan Ruddy, sophomore Cole Dressman and sophomore Jack Wiedmann. Coach Oliva has also two top newcomers in Brady Klotz and Nathan DeCoteau.

“Isaac Neuner is our most experienced pitcher returning from last year,” coach Oliva said. “Brady Klotz and Nathan DeCoteau will be the newcomers that we will need to have to compete on the mound for us.”

The team will open its season on Tuesday, March 19, with a non-league game against Santa Fe Trail. The Panthers will host Santa Fe Trail, which begin at 4:30 p.m.

“Jeff West, Sabetha and Nemaha Central are all tough teams and compete for the league title each year,” Oliva said.

Meet the 2019 Royal Valley Panthers baseball team:

#4 Senior Garrett Pruyser – A 5’8” infielder.

#15 Senior Bryce Garrison – A outfielder and infielder.

Lady Panthers’ first softball games tomorrow at SFT

By Ali Holcomb

Several familiar faces are returning to the Royal Valley varsity softball team this season who will bring speed and strength to the Panther lineup, according to RV head coach Corey Katzer.

“We are looking to improve defensively. Ultimately, I felt like the games we lost last year could basically be broken down to unearned runs,” Coach Katzer said. “Our runs given up to runs scored ratio was exceptional, but when you look into the numbers, it should have been a lot better simply because of unearned runs. If we can fix this problem, I believe we can be a tough team as the season goes along.”

The Panthers finished the 2017-18 season 14-7 overall and 13-3 in the Big Seven League for a third-place league finish. The Panthers fell in the first round of Class 3A regionals to Riley County, 2-0. This is Katzer’s fifth year as head coach.

After taking last season off due to an injury, junior Abigail Harding is back in the circle for the Panthers as one of the starting pitchers.

Sophomore Mae Joslin has returned to pitch for the Panthers as well after a successful first season last year. In 60.2 innings, Joslin started nine games, including seven wins, and posted an earned run average of 2.538.

“Our pitching could be a strength with Abigail being back. She will be our power arm. She throws hard and has worked extremely hard to get back after losing her sophomore season to a season-ending injury,” Katzer said. “Mae is a year older and has a year worth of varsity experience under her belt. Between the two of them, they provide us a good one-two punch in the circle.”

Joslin, who also plays second base, proved to be an offensive asset for the Panthers last season as well with a .429 batting average. She had three home runs last season, 26 RBI and 30 hits.

Two other top returning starters for the Panthers are junior McKenzie Ogden, who will play shortstop and outfield, and senior Emily Albright, who will serve as catcher and play in the outfield.

“We are going to once again count on them at the top of our line-up to set the tone. McKenzie and Emily combined for almost 60 stolen bases, and between the two of them, scored 61 runs. That averages to almost three stolen bases and three runs scored per game.”

Ogden had a .563 batting average and a .761 slugging percentage last year. She had 40 hits last season and 38 stolen bases. Her on base percentage was .761.

HHS coach Deitrich says team could be “one of best”

By Michael Powls

The Holton Lady Wildcat softball team is gearing up for its 2019 season. The Lady Cats are led by head coach John Deitrich who is 404-162 overall over 28 seasons and 165-71 at Holton over eight seasons.

The Lady Cats were 19-6 overall last season, winning their regional and finishing in fourth place at the Class 4A-DII State Softball Tournament – the highest placing in the school’s history.

The 2019 Holton Lady Cat Softball team will return a lot of familiar faces on the field this season.

The Lady Cats graduated their 2018 battery but bring back a healthy portion of their defense and “at bats” from last season.

“Our roster has grown from 18 to 28 players and with the growth add some much needed depth, especially in the circle,” coach Deitrich said. “Jewel Lutz worked her fair share of the innings last season and will become the leader of the pitching staff in 2019. We have a boatload of freshmen with competitive softball innings from their summer teams. I’m not sure I have ever had this many quality innings in a pitching staff in my career. I hope the competition keeps them sharp and hungry.”

The Lady Cats will be led offensively by seniors, Lauryn Moore (1B), Emma Howes (2B – CR); juniors, Bailey Flewelling (SS – C), Kinleigh Rhodd (3B), Savy Booth (OF), Jewel Lutz (P – OF), Paige Crouch (OF – DP), and Addie Degenhardt (OF) and sophomores Ally Beard (2B – SS), Abby Boeckman (1B – DP) and Grace Utz (C – OF).

“Some of these players had to play out of necessity a couple of seasons ago but now they might be one of the best groups that have come through Holton High School,” Deitrich said.

The Big 7 League might be as good as it’s been in years, also, with Nemaha Central, Perry, Jeff West and Royal Valley returning a majority of their players from last season.

Riverside, Sabetha and Hiawatha were all very young last year and that experience will make them better this season, Deitrich said.

“Our non-conference schedule is very challenging. We added a double header with Topeka West due to the exit of Atchison County from the Big 7 league,” the coach said. “When we go to the Sunflower Softball Festival this season we will see Shawnee Mission North, Shawnee Mission West, Shawnee Mission East and Olathe North. This schedule might be as challenging as any Holton team has seen in a very long time.”

Coach Deitrich said that the team will be watching to see where it falls in the KSHSAA classifications this season.

“The changes are exciting,” the coach said. “The process is a simple one. You have to beat people to earn the opportunity to host or be the home team on the bracket. As long as we get better every day, the rest of the other stuff will sort itself out on its own.”

Returning projected starters are:

*Senior 1B Lauryn Moore – last season she had a .300 BA, .328 OBP, .483 SLUG percentage, 4 doubles, 3 triples, 1 HR and 11 RBI.

*Sophomore 2B Ally Beard – last season she had a .333 BA, .424 OBP, .578 SLUG, 4 doubles, 3 triples, 2 HRs, 8 RBI and went 8 for 12 on SBs.

*Junior SS Bailey Flewelling – last season she had a .504 BA, .528 OBP, 1.036 SLUG, 13 doubles, 5 triples, 7 HRs and 43 RBI. She also was a 1st Team Class 4A-DII infielder and was 1st Team All Big 7 League infielder.

*Junior 3B Kinleigh Rhodd – last season she had a .359 BA, .475 OBP, .578 SLUG, 6 doubles, 1 triple, 2 HRs and 17 RBI.

*Junior OF/P Jewel Lutz – last season she had a .465 BA, .519 OBP, .483 SLUG, 10 doubles, 1 triple, 7 HR, 27 RBI and as a pitcher had 9 wins, 2 losses, a 4.06 ERA 46 Ks and a .818 winning percentage. Lutz also was a 2nd team Class 4A-DII outfield pick.

*Junior OF Paige Crouch – .379 BA, .441 OBP, .448 SLUG and 2 doubles.

*Junior OF Savy Booth – last season she had a .329 BA, .447 OBP, .342 SLUG, 1 double and was 12 for 13 on SBs. She also was a 1st team All Big 7 League OF pick.

*Junior OF Addie Degenhardt – last season she had a .256 BA, .463 OBP, .578 SLUG, 2 doubles and 9 SBs.

*Sophomore DH/U Abby Boeckmann – .556 BA, .583 OBP, .944 SLUG, 2 doubles and 2 HRs.

*Sophomore Grace Utz, catcher, 16 games played, .143

BA.

Other newcomers to watch include:

mers.

HHS will play its first game on Tuesday, March 26 on the road at Hummer Sports Park against Topeka West.

Nine of 12 state track qualifiers return for RV

By Brian Sanders
In his third year as Royal Valley High School's head track coach, David Boucher seeks to replicate the success his team had last year, when the Panthers qualified 12 athletes for state competition.

"We had a tremendous season of growth at all levels," Coach Boucher said. "This year, we will put a team on the track and in the field that the Royal Valley community will be proud of, and if we work hard enough, we can do some special things."

Several Panther athletes who performed well at last year's state competition will be returning, including sophomore Morgan Harvey, who placed third in the girls triple jump and 13th in the girls 100-meter dash. Harvey will be participating in those events this year.

Senior Mikal Kitchkommie, who placed fifth in the boys 100-meter dash and ran with the 10th-place boys 4x100-meter relay team — which also included senior Devon Hale and Kobe Mills and junior Gavin Cumpton — is also returning to participate in those events, as well as the 4x400-meter relay team.

Other top prospects for the girls, along with their accomplishments at the 2018 Class 3A state meet, include:

- Senior Mary Broxterman, participating in the sprints, hurdles and long jump. At last year's state meet, Broxterman placed 12th in the girls 300-meter hurdles, 16th in the girls 200-meter dash and 15th with the girls 4x400-meter relay team.
- Senior Kenzie Hegemann, participating in the sprints, the 4x400-meter relay and the pole vault. Last year at state, Hegemann placed 12th in the girls pole vault and ran with the girls 4x400-meter relay team.
- Junior Emma Poort, participating in throwing events.

- Sophomore Ivy Fink, participating in the jumping events and the 4x400-meter relay. At last year's state meet, Fink ran with the girls 4x400-meter relay team and competed in the girls high jump.
- Other returning track letter-winners on the boys' side, along with their accomplishments at the 2018 Class 3A state meet, include:
  - Hale, participating in the sprints, triple jump, 4x100-meter and 4x400-meter relays.
  - Mills, participating in the long jump, sprints and 4x100-meter and 4x400-meter relays. In addition to his success with last year's boys 4x100-meter relay team, Mills placed 16th in the boys 400-meter dash.
  - Senior Chance Lyming, participating in the sprints.
  - Senior Brandon Rodewald, participating in throwing events.
  - Cumpton, participating in the sprints, hurdles and 4x100-meter and 4x400-meter relays. In addition to his success with the boys 4x100-meter relay team at state last year, Cumpton also placed 13th in the boys 110-meter hurdles.

- Junior Kain Fink, participating in the jumps. Fink placed ninth in the boys high jump at state last year.
- Junior Judson Mathis, participating in long-distance running events.
- Junior Holden Mundy, participating in long-distance running events.
- Junior Komes Shpoonhunter, participating in throwing events.
- Junior Nue Tinajero, participating in long-distance running events.
- Sophomore Luke Boyden, participating in the 4x800-meter relay and pole vault.

Boucher also noted that this year's track and field team has several newcomers who show potential.

"We just have to work hard with them and make our future," he added.

Assisting Boucher this year as assistant coaches are Joe Baumenchen in the jumping events, Steve Hardesty in the pole vault, Russell Hodison in the sprints and relays, Jake Lott in the hurdles and sprints and Nathan Smith in the long-distance running events.

Albright's batting average last year was .352 and her on base percentage was .514. She had a .463 slugging percentage last year and 18 stolen bases.

Other returning starters include:

- * First base, senior Eryn Daugherty, whose batting average was .353 and slugging percentage was .943. Daugherty also had 17 RBI and 24 hits last season.
- * Catcher, senior Alexis Hancock, who had 19 RBI and 24 hits last season. Hancock had a .329 batting average, .405 on base percentage and .980 slugging percentage last year.

- * Junior Hadley Gregory played second base part-time last year on varsity. Gregory had a .261 batting average and a .370 on base percentage. She had 6 RBI.

New varsity players this season will include junior Cassidy Parks at shortstop, who was injured last year and did not play; junior transfer Jenna Elmer at third base and junior Maddie Saia and freshman Karlie Albright in the outfield.

Junior Madison Boswell will also help in the pitcher's circle for the Panthers when needed.

"Our lineup should be very versatile," Katzer said. "We can run at the top with Jenna transferring in, Mae a year older and Alexis continuing to become a very good hitter. Our middle has some very good power, and with Cassidy and Eryn in the bottom third of the lineup, I think it's a very long lineup that allows us to do many different things dependent upon where we are at in the lineup."

The Panthers begin the season with a non-league game tomorrow on the road against Santa Fe Trail. Games begin at 4:30 p.m.

Tobacco use by youth is rising

By Cindy Williams
Meadowlark Extension
District Agent
FACS

Tobacco product use among U.S. youth is increasing. More than one in four high school students and about one in 14 middle school students in 2018 had used a tobacco product in the past 30 days. This was a considerable increase from 2017, which was driven by an increase in e-cigarette use.

E-cigarette use increased from 11.7 percent to 20.8 percent among high school students and from 3.3 percent to 4.9 percent among middle school students from 2017 to 2018. No change was found in the use of other tobacco products, including cigarettes, during this time.

There were 1.5 million more current youth e-cigarette users in 2018 than 2017. A total of 4.9 million youth were current tobacco product users in 2018. Use of any tobacco product grew by 38.3 percent among high school students (2017-2018). E-cigarettes, specifically those shaped like USB flash drives, are the main reason for the increase.

So what should parents know about vaping and JUULing? JUULing is a teen phenomenon. It's a new way to consume – and get the buzz of – nicotine without the mess and telltale signs of smoking a cigarette. This trend can have serious negative side effects for youth.

Elaine Johannes, K-State Research and Extension specialist for family and youth development, offers these insights:

1. What is a JUUL? A JUUL, pronounced "jewel," is an e-cigarette that looks like a computer flash drive and charges in a USB outlet. Once powered, you can load the JUUL with tiny, refillable pods of liquid nicotine.

One pod contains the same amount of nicotine as a pack of cigarettes. Just one quick "puff" can give youth the "feel good" sensation.

A JUUL pod is no bigger than a soda can tab. The e-nicotine comes in appealing flavors such as crème brulee, mango and bubble gum.

2. Why is it so popular? Three words: Marketing and peer pressure. These terms are strategically sold with a very young audience in mind. The JUUL is often customized with a "skin" or decal with images of movies, TV shows and pop stars. So it becomes the "cool" thing to do. Many kids don't realize that JUUL has addictive nicotine and other chemicals.

3. What are the possible signs that a child is using a JUUL? You may notice a sweet smell. Users will often have dehydration and nosebleeds due to a chemical that retains water molecules in e-nicotine. Also, users can experience a strong aversion to caffeine. Other signs include changing habits in grades or behavior, or disappearing regularly to take a hit.

By Beverly Ramey Newell
On March 10, the Pleasant Hill United Methodist Church congregation opened its worship service by singing “O God, Our Help In Ages Past.”
The birthdays for March 10 through March 16 were John Dowd, March 10; Kiersten Harris, Tymber Neblett, Jamie Sexton, Alan Shaffer, Mary Smith and Jillian Walder, March 11; Samuel Martin and Chris McManaman, March 12; Kearstin Lester and Jim Wright (Barbara’s husband), March 13; Grace Cho, March 14; and Gary Slimmer, March 15.
The concerns were prayers for Nick Nicolay, who had hip surgery on March 12; Jeanetta Boughn’s sister has breast cancer; Jeanetta Boughn’s niece is having health problems; Scott Stewart, who will have surgery on March 27 at Mayo Clinic; and the family of Victoria Broadbent.
For special music, Carol Powell played “Hymns Of Comfort Medley” on the piano. It was beautiful.
The children’s story was given by Kevin McDowell. He asked, “What is your favorite movie? Forrest Gump or Star Wars?”
There is always a special line in a movie, like in “Forrest Gump” – “Life is like a box of chocolates. You never know what you will get.” In “Star Wars” – “May the force be with you.”
The devil tried to test Jesus many times. Jesus always turned to the Bible and read scriptures to the devil. Let us resist the devil’s temptation.
Ron Griffiths read the scriptures, Exodus 1:15-2:10, Luke 1:39-45 and Matthew 2:13-16.
The sermon “The Two Saviors: Moses And Jesus – Birth In Danger” was given by the Rev. Hyun-Jin Cho. Moses and Jesus were born in life-threatening times, but they grew up to be saviors of their people.
Deuteronomy 34:10-12 says, “Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the light of all Israel.”

Let each of us take up our faith and courage, for we can do anything in Christ.
The closing hymn was “We Walk By Faith.” Those assisting with the service were Ron Griffiths, liturgist; Marty Ransdell, organist; Joy Jepson, sound system; Megan Strobel, acolyte; John Wilson, song leader; and John and Linda Reed, Daryl Jepson and Gary Slimmer, usher team.
On March 7, John, Dorothy and Mike Holt; Gladys Law; and Gary and Barbara Slimmer attended the Pleasant Hill coffee group for breakfast at Perkins restaurant in Topeka.
On March 10, John and Linda Reed, Gary and Barbara Slimmer, Marvin and Mary Smith, Marilyn Colhouer, Merlin Nelson, Carol Powell, Marty Ransdell and Mike Gillgannon ate lunch at Vikings Grille in Topeka.
-----
On March 3, the Pleasant Hill United Methodist Church congregation opened its worship service with the praise choir and band leading the congregation in singing “We Believe.”
The birthdays for March 3 through March 9 were Fred Patton, March 3; Jason Marteney and Rebecca Unruh, March 4; Andrew Gower, March 5; Cara Etzel and John Holt, March 7; and Shelly Pittman, March 8.

The concerns were prayers for the family of Sherry Cooper; the family of Ruth Dodge; and the family of Lois Rill.
The congregation sang two songs, “You Are Holy” and “Beautiful Things.”
Zach Patton read the scripture, Acts 10:9-20.
The sermon “The Living Word Of God” was given by the Rev. Hyun-Jin Cho. The sermon was based on the United Methodist Churches General Conference session, which was held in St. Louis, Mo., from Feb. 24-26. The Traditionalist Plan was approved.
The communion elements were served by Pastor Jin, Brian and Gayle Smith, Thera Boyles and Michael Bipes.
The closing hymn was “We Believe.” Those assisting with the service were Kevin Fealey, liturgist; Marc Serrano, guitarist; Alfred Mannell, drummer; Kevin Fealey and Kelly Neiman, singers; Emily Patton, acolyte; and Fred, Kim, Zach and Andrew Patton, usher team.
On March 3, the weather was very bad so there was only the 11 a.m. worship service. There were only 53 people who attended.

Area quilter semifinalist in international show

Jan (Zimmerman) McCreary of Wichita is a semifinalist for the 2019 American Quilter’s Society QuiltWeek spring show, it has been reported. The show will be held from April 24-27 at the Schroeder Expo and Carroll Convention Center in Paducah, Ky.
McCreary took a class by Jacqueline de Jonge at Quilting on the Square in Holton. She then gave the quilt to Terry Craig of Holton, who said it was the “gift of a lifetime from a very special friend.”
McCreary has been chosen to display the quilt, “Circle of Life,” along with 409 others in the annual contest, now in its 35th year. Three quilting authorities will judge this entire group in Paducah, awarding first, second and third places in 16 categories, along with nine overall awards.
Winners will be announced at the 35th AQS Awards Presentation, which takes place at the Carson Four Rivers Center in Paducah on Tuesday, April 23. Cash awards totaling $125,000 will be granted, including $20,000 for the Janome Best of Show; $12,000 for the Bernina Stationary Machine Workmanship; $12,000 for the AQS Hand Workmanship; $12,000 for the APQS Movable Workmanship; and $5,000 for the Hobbs Best Wall Quilt.
Regardless of how “Circle of Life” places in the final judging, all semi-finalists’ quilts will be displayed at the show, which is expected to draw more than 30,000 people.
AQS founder and president Meredith Schroeder said, “Quilters submitted hundreds of beautiful quilts for the 35th annual AQS QuiltWeek in Paducah. The quilts this year represent a wide variety of colors, scale of prints and techniques used.”
Quilts were entered in this international contest from 44 U.S. states and 16 other countries.

Buck's Grove Church

By Betty Bernitter

As the bell rang loud and clear at Buck's Grove United Methodist Church, let us be thankful for the beautiful day that God created on March 17, 2019.

LeRoy Rieschick manned the recorded prelude as Mary Ringel lighted the altar candles.

Pastor Charlotte Milroy welcomed everyone and after announcements led the congregation in the call to worship, opening prayer and Psalter, Psalm 27.

The scripture reading was Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18 and Philippians 3:17-4:1.

Songs sung were "The Faith We Sing," "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" and "Lord Of The Dance."

"Amazing Grace" was the hymn LeRoy and Linda Rieschick chose for a special.

Pastor Charlotte read scripture, Luke 13:31-35, and titled her message "Let's Be A Prophet." In the gospel, Jesus tells about prophets as He fends off Pharisees. So what is a prophet? Prophets are understood to be people who speak and teach the word of God. Jesus is so much more than a prophet. He is connected to the prophetic tradition that He inherits and that continues today.

Prophets come in many shapes and sizes, and they speak about many different ideas. But the one thing they have in common, according to Jesus, is that their lives is quickly rejected by those who have a stake in maintaining power. Prophets speak and teach about God's truth, about God's power and that threatens the truth and power of the day.

In these 40 days of Lent, we can make a change, even create a habit in our own lives, that makes our lives better and encourage others to recognize God in the world. When our lives bear witness to the grace of God, we become prophets to those around us.

Each of us has been given unique gifts from God, gifts to share with the world. Do not let your gifts go to waste. You do have a prophetic voice, and the world is ready to listen. As we travel on this Lent journey, may we follow Jesus' calling to be one of His prophets using the gifts He has blessed us with.

The offertory prayer was recited and Don Boling and Wayne Rieschick received the offerings. As the hymn "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung, Mary carried out the light of Christ.

Bible study will continue next week.

911 system...

The state has two different host sites for the 911 system, Wichita and Topeka.

“If Jackson County were to experience an outage or disaster, dispatchers could go to another PSAP in another county and still be able to answer 911 calls for Jackson County,” Morse said.

Typically, 911 systems need to be replaced every five to six years and can cost “a couple hundred thousand dollars or more each time,” Morse said.

The 911 Coordinating Council’s Next Generation 911 system will be upgraded overtime and be maintained by the council.

This new system also provides an upgrade to the dispatch center’s 911 mapping system.

“Counties receive better mapping for the entire state, rather than just their own counties. This is important when crimes or emergencies that are in progress cross county lines,” Morse said.

Some counties have chosen to continue to host their own 911 system or join other systems, however, a majority of counties, including Jackson County, have joined the state-wide system, Morse said.

Jackson County went live with its first 911 system on Aug. 3, 1993, and this is the sixth system upgrade for Jackson County.

Sherri Ladner serves as the 911 coordinator in Jackson County, and Kylie Mercer serves as the dispatch supervisor.

Johnson trials...

It was reported during the February trial that of the 45 horses that were being kept on Johnson’s property, two of the horses died.

Two area veterinarians testified that Johnson was apparently giving the horses inadequate care and food during the trial; two other area veterinarians disputed that testimony.

Following the bench trial on the animal cruelty charges, Carter sentenced Johnson to two concurrent one-year jail terms on the two criminal cases that comprised the 45 counts of animal cruelty. Carter suspended Johnson’s sentence to two years or probation, saying that he did not “believe that the testimony warrants a jail term.”

The trial consolidated two district court criminal cases against Johnson, one involving 12 animal cruelty charges filed in August of 2018, the other filed in December and involving the remaining 33 charges.

Loft tour...

At the present time, White said there are now 21 loft apartments around the Square, with some of the spaces for rent while others are owners’ residences. At least four more loft apartments are being planned — “a very unique number for a town the size of Holton,” she added.

“People living and investing on the Square bring a certain life, vitality and pride to our Square that other towns lack,” she said.

White noted that the lofts are not handicapped-accessible, and no public restrooms will be available on the tour.

Dear Jackson County Community,

Jim and I very much appreciate the wonderful benefit put on by the lovely, hard working volunteers from the Jackson County Courthouse. Your support and words of encouragement mean so much.

A very sincere thank you to all who volunteered, gave monetary donations, served delicious food, donated gifts for the raffle and all who attended.

Disoriented man rescued Wednesday near Horton

Law enforcement officers in Brown County participated in the rescue of an as-yet unidentified man on Wednesday morning after he apparently became disoriented somewhere in the southern part of the county, Brown County Sheriff John D. Merchant reported.

“We are very fortunate to have many agencies who responded to assist with this search,” said Sheriff Merchant, citing the work of his department, Nemaha and Brown county dispatchers, the Kickapoo Tribal Police Department, the Brown County Rescue Squad, the Powhattan Fire Department, Kansas Highway Patrol and Brown County Mounted Search and Rescue.

At about 8:50 a.m. on Wednesday, a Nemaha County dispatcher received a 911 call from a man who said he was “lost, cold and wet... laying in a field somewhere between a pond and a farm house,” Merchant reported.

The dispatcher identified the location of the call, determined to be in the area of Kansas Highway 20 and Hazelnut Drive, which is about 4.5 miles west of Horton in Brown County. Merchant said the call was transferred to a Brown County dispatcher, who notified sheriff’s officers and Kickapoo police for further investigation.

Sgt. Brian Guilliams of the Brown County Sheriff’s Office and Kickapoo Police Chief Nathan Gray began searching on foot for the missing man in “heavy rains and wind,” Merchant said.

After walking more than half a mile in the adverse weather conditions, they located the man at about 11:25 a.m.

Merchant said that at the time the man was found, he was “wet, cold and tired, having been exposed to the elements” for about 24 hours.

“Apparently, this gentleman was walking near the Delaware River the day before and became disoriented and spent the night outdoors,” said Merchant, who did not identify the man by name.

The Kickapoo Fire Department brought an all-terrain vehicle to carry the man from the field to a Horton EMS ambulance standing by on K-20, and the man was taken to Hiawatha Hospital for treatment and observation.

“By the actions taken by the Nemaha County Sheriff’s dispatch, Chief Gray and Sgt. Guilliams,” Merchant added, “they are directly responsible for saving this man’s life.”

Merchant said that as of Friday morning, the man had still not been identified but was still in stable condition at an area hospital.

The man’s case remains under investigation, Merchant added.

Property values...

Jackson County residents who wish to appeal the value or classification of their property as stated on their valuation notice, must contact the Jackson County Appraiser’s Office within 30 days of receiving their notice to schedule an informal meeting to discuss the value.

The Jackson County Appraiser’s Office is located in Room 202 of the Jackson County Courthouse and can be reached by phone at 785-364-2358.

If a resident does not appeal within the 30 days, they can still protest the value or classification of their property when they pay their taxes on or by Jan. 31 if their taxes are paid out of an escrow account or by a tax service.

By law, residents cannot appeal both at the time of notice and when they pay their taxes for the same property in the same tax year.

All informal meetings between taxpayers and the appraiser’s office staff must be completed by May 15, and during the meetings, Jackson County Appraiser employees will explain how the value of the property was determined for tax purposes.

Land and property owners are reminded that if their property value goes up, that does not necessarily mean they’ll pay more taxes, it was reported.

Likewise, if property values go down, or does not change, that does not automatically mean residents will pay less or the same amount of taxes.

Property tax is determined by a formula that multiplies a property’s assessed value by the total mill levy set annually by local governments.

Each classification of property (residential, ag, etc.) is assessed at a different rate.

Appraised residential property values are assessed at an 11.5 percent rate.

Agricultural use land is assessed at a 30 percent rate and agriculture use improvements are assessed at 25 percent.

Vacant lots and real property owned and operated by a not-for-profit are both assessed at 12 percent.

Commercial property’s assessment rate is 25 percent of the total appraised value. All other rural and urban real property is assessed at 30 percent.
